

BOLSHEVIK ARMY ON RUN IN SIBERIA

Red Guard Driven Northward
After Stubborn Fighting on Ussuri Front.

ALLIED ATTACK CONTINUES

President Tachikovsky Outlines Aims of New "Sovereign Government"—Further Assistance From Entente Sought.

(By the Associated Press.)
TOKIO, Aug. 25.—Entente allied forces on the Ussuri front in Siberia took the offensive against the Bolshevik Red Guard at dawn on August 24 and drove the enemy to the north, according to an allied official statement issued today by the Japanese War Office.

The allies, following up their advantage, pushed forward to the high ground north of Shimakofka and launched another attack against the enemy positions. The text of the statement reads:

"On August 22 the enemy still remained on our front. His airplane was observed in the afternoon. Otherwise there was no change. The enemy's strength was about 8000 infantry. The field guns actually observed numbered 14 and he also had some other heavy guns.

Attacks Completely Repulsed.
"On August 23 our right wing, guarded by the Japanese, was twice attacked by the enemy numbering 1000, with field pieces and machine guns. The enemy was completely repulsed.

"In the evening the left wing also was attacked by 2000 enemy infantry with six machine guns. The Czechoslovak soldiers stubbornly resisted, but were obliged to retreat.

"The 12th infantry division, arriving there, covered the retreat of the Czechoslovak soldiers and repulsed the enemy.

"The 12th division, gradually concentrating in the direction of Sulya-gina, assumed the offensive at dawn on August 24. After severe fighting the enemy was driven to the northward. We then advanced to the bluff north of Shimakofka and are now attacking.

Guns and Engines Taken.
"Our booty includes one field piece, three machine guns and two armed locomotives.

"The casualties on both sides are unknown."

PEKING, Aug. 26.—General Semenov, the anti-Bolshevik leader, yesterday captured Borzja station.

The Bolshevik forces are retreating along the Onon River, burning villages and destroying bridges.

ARCHANGEL, Aug. 25.—More entente allied troops are being sent to establishing a screen behind which a new Russia may be formed to join Russia's allies in the war on Germany.
Nicholas Vasilovitch, Tachikovsky, president of the new "sovereign government of the northern region of Russia," told the Associated Press today.
"We want to restore the eastern front against Germany, together with our allies," M. Tachikovsky said. "We thought the only way to do so, in addition to the agitation of our own people, would be to have a firm military basis and screen to protect us from immediate attacks by the Germans and the Bolsheviks.

More Allied Troops Needed.

"We understood perfectly well in the circumstances and demoralization that it would be impossible to restore our own army in a short space of time without having the nucleus of a disciplined force upon which we could rely in case of necessity.

"Therefore, we required a screen in the shape of at least some allied forces.
We have some, but we need to move quickly, and, therefore, we certainly need immediately a number of allied troops."

M. Tachikovsky explained that the government does not rely exclusively upon the troops of the allies.

"We have our own forces," he said.
"In the short space of a few days, with the aid of the allies, we recruited in Archangel alone over a thousand men.
What we want is allied assistance, and with that we are confident of success.

Americans Aid Expected.

"We naturally expect American aid.
We need soldiers, food and agricultural machinery from America, and if the Japanese finally decide to come from the East, they are welcome, too. We should like Americans to come with them."

He explained that the government plans to extend its authority as its troops progress, joining all the elements opposing Germany.

"We decided to begin the government in the north, where we felt the allies could best help us there."

"As at present formed, our government includes the provinces of Archangel, Murman, Vologda, and Viatka and the northern part of Novgorod. Perhaps Yaroslavl and Kostroma will join us," M. Tachikovsky continued.

Government to Federate.

"The idea was born at Moscow. We include all groups except the extreme left and the monarchists. Siberia has a similar government and soon our groups will form regional governments in Central, Eastern and Southern Russia. We are ready to join in some sort of federation and then call a constituent assembly.

"All the members of our government were members of the former constituent assembly, elected by the people.
We call ourselves a sovereign instead of provisional government, because we believe in the need of firm authority.
We have no personal ambitions."

M. Tachikovsky said he felt the Russian people were capable of a republican form of government, despite the general illiteracy and cited the success of the village governments.

Tachikovsky Related to Composer.

M. Tachikovsky was born in Vyatka province in 1856. His father was a land owner and he is a distant relative of the composer of the same name.
As a student in Petrograd he engaged in revolutionary propaganda. He fled to America, where he lived from 1875 to 1879 and then returned to England, where he was a refugee for 23 years.
He returned to Russia in 1907 and was arrested.

STRIKE OF POLICE ENDS

LONDON BOBBIES GET MORE PAY, INCREASED PENSIONS.

Metropolis, Without Protection During Night, Suffers From Depredations of Thieves.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The strike of the London policemen composed of more than 22,000 men in the metropolitan district and the "city" has been settled.

Agreement between the Government and the strikers was reached this afternoon at a conference at which the demands of the policemen for more pay and increased pensions were met by the Government.

The police will receive a minimum wage of 43 shillings ($10.22) per week and a maximum wage of 73 shillings ($17.73) plus a war bonus of 12 shillings ($2.88); also an allowance of 10 shillings for children of school age and two shillings and sixpence for other children.

After 25 years of service the policemen will be entitled to retire on a pension of 35 shillings ($8.49).
Recognition of the National Union of Police and Prison Officers as a federation, but not as a trade union, has been granted.

Considerable lawlessness marked the first night passed by London without police protection. During the earlier hours of the morning there were some harmless demonstrations, but later on the thieves became active and daylight found a number of windows of jewelers' shops and other places of business broken and considerable property stolen.

There were a few military police about, including Americans, but they devoted their attention entirely to their own men and even if they had tried would not have been able to cope with the thieves, who generally worked in squad.
