societies. A number of the friends of the couple already know of their engagement, but as yet there are no definite plans for the wedding.

Mrs. Isam White and Miss Edith Nanz, who have been visiting in the Canadian Rockies, recently returned and are now at the home of Mrs. White Salmon, Wash., for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shull and daughter, Mrs. Grenville Vernon, and Miss Ruth Shull, who have been visiting the former's son, H. H. Shull, in Vancouver, B. C., returned yesterday to Portland.

Miss Amy Robinson and Harold Dekum Gill will be married Thursday, September 26, in St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral at 8:30 o'clock and the affair is of great interest to Portlanders as both families are prominent and active in the affairs of the city, socially and otherwise. Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner will read the service and following that there will be a small and informal reception held at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson, on Portland Heights.

Miss Elsa Gill will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Misses Kathryn Hoyt, Alice Dancy, Stephanie Strain and Helen Page. Joseph Gill will attend the bridegroom and the guests will be ushered by Captain Prescott Cookingham, Lieutenant Adair Brewer, Richard Montgomery and Walter Keisner.

Miss Catherine Collins, of Seattle, who has been visiting Mrs. Ruth Teal for a few weeks, left Thursday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olmstead (Alice Smith) are being showered with congratulatory messages upon the arrival of a daughter born Friday morning at the Portland Maternity Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Forbes (Frances Wilson) who recently moved to Morris-town, N. J., are being showered upon the arrival of their second son, born Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honyman are spending the week-end as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jacobson at their residence on the Columbia Highway.

Mrs. E. C. Shevlin and Mrs. David C. Lewis are taking a few days' motor trip through the Deschutes country.

A big benefit dance is being arranged for the Franco-Belgian Society for the evening of September 28 for the French and Belgian orphans. The dance is being given under the auspices of the society, and it will be held in Laurelhurst Club. Patrons and patronesses for the affair include:

Mr. and Mrs. Henri Labbe, Mr. and Mrs. J. Drouillard, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Folger Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Whitwright, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Tucker, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Tamsie, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooke, Mme. Lucie Valaire, Mrs. Kelly Rees, Mrs. Donald Spencer, Miss A. Mallet.

The dance will be informal and the tickets are to be sold at a nominal cost, so the society is planning to sell to everyone whether a guest or not. The society is making efforts to secure everything by donation, so there will be no expense and a large sum raised for the orphan fund.

Honoring Miss Kate Brasel who became the bride of Lieutenant Sylvester M. Scott yesterday, a number of charming functions were given during the week, among which was a luncheon presided over by Miss Louise Poulson for 12 close friends of the bride—Mrs. Trommald, Mrs. John Plagemann, Mrs. Della Hahn Gearin, Mrs. Harry Sharp, Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mrs. Mary Kern, the Misses Leah and Wynona Guthrie, Gretchen Klotterman, and the hostess. On Wednesday Mrs. Sharp entertained with a motor trip to Forest Hall where luncheon was served, covers being placed for Miss Brasel, Miss Klotterman, Mrs. Trommald, Misses Edna Minsinger, the bride, Miss Katharine Graham, and the hostess.

Last night Mrs. Gearin and Mrs. Harry Sharp entertained 12 couples at supper and dancing after the Scott-Brasel wedding.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Folger Johnson will regret to learn that they will spend the winter in California. Mr. Johnson went a week ago to assume a responsible position in the Liberty shipbuilding plant at Alameda. Mrs. Johnson left on Friday with Folger, Jr., and their new home will be in the Euclid Apartments on Euclid avenue and Hearst street.

The marriage of Miss Agnes M. Evans and Harry Fischer took place Friday, September 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Green, 1263 East Flanders street, Laurelhurst. Dr. A. A. Morrison, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, officiated at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Elceena Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Green, a senior student of St. Mary's Academy and College, played the wedding music on the harp and Miss Geraldine McClellan, also a senior of St. Mary's, sang "Ave Maria," with Miss Green at the piano.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe meteor, with tunic of Georgette crepe and silver beading. Her veil was of silk tulle, worn with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Ruth Euphrosene Larson was maid of honor and the best man was Edward R. Morris. About 50 guests attended the ceremony and the reception which immediately followed. A wedding supper was served and the evening spent in dancing.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Evans, of Bellingham, Wash., and for the last year she has made her home in Portland with relatives. She is popular in a large circle of friends.

Mr. Fischer is a son of Ella M. Oldfield, of New York City, and a nephew of the late United States Senator, Shelley E. Culham, of Illinois. He has made his home in Portland for about 20 years and he is one of the most popular and best-known men in social circles and clubdom. He is a member of four of the leading clubs of Portland and secretary of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club. He has gained distinction numerous times in athletic and won many medals for various athletic events. He is a Phi Delta Kappa man.

Mr. and Mrs. Fischer left yesterday for an extended motor trip. They will join the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans, at Mount Baker. Mr. Evans is an artist of prominence and at the present time he is traveling and sketching the Western mountains in their fall grandeur.

Portlanders will be interested in the news of the engagement of a former resident of this city, Miss Priscilla Elliott, daughter of Captain and Mrs. John E. Elliott, of Marsa Island, to Captain Thomas Eugene Watson, U. S. M. C., which will take place in San Domingo tomorrow.

A cablegram telling this news was received recently by the parents of the bride-elect, the engagement being made known some months ago. The wedding will be solemnized at the home of the bride-elect's brother-in-law and sister, Captain and Mrs. R. S. Kingsbury, who have been making their home in San Domingo for some time.

As the parents of the bride will be unable to attend the wedding, owing to uncertain travel conditions, the bride-elect's uncle, Major C. S. Williams, U. S. M. C., will give her in marriage.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Miss Florence Gould, of Hood River, Or., has been added to the Tacoma library staff. Miss Gould returned late in August from Pittsburgh, Pa., where she completed her course in library

EMPORIUMS

Greatest assemblage of FALL DRESSES

at conservative prices

For street wear, business, afternoon, informal wear

More dresses than we've ever before assembled for any one season await your admiration and approval. We've pictured six of the models for you. There are hundreds of others equally attractive.

—Popular prices hold sway at the Emporium. There are dresses for every woman whether she would pay $19.50 or $75. Satins, charmeuse, Georgettes, tricolettes, serges, velvets, jerseys—all the new shades.

We've priced a splendid group of smart Silk, Serge and Jersey Dresses at $19.50

—They'll prove the biggest kind of surprises! Because the store is closed Monday and we want to double Tuesday's business we've given them this low price.

—Satin dresses have fringe trimmings or are finished with Georgettes. Serge models are cleverly braided and display tunics or plaited effects. Jerseys are tailored. All shades.

AT $25.00—an exceptionally interesting showing of the most approved styles in silks, serges and jerseys.

AT $29.50—We've a wonderful array of styles that are individual and different. You'll like any one of a dozen models.

AT $35.00—are dresses that are copies of very much higher priced models. They're as distinctive and handsome as can be!

AT $39.50 TO $75—are the most bewitching models. Any number of them were exclusively designed by foremost makers of dresses.

Second Floor—Emporium

Crepe de Chine Blouses of unusually heavy crepe

—Values much out of the usual! They're of the sort of crepe that will wear and launders beautifully. A quality we'll not be able to duplicate again at this price.

—One model has tucked front, square neck and big hemstitched collar—others are tailored high-neck models.

Modish Millinery

Fashion's fairest blossoms are shown at the Emporium.

A group of beautifully trimmed models representing the final decisions of millinery fashion designers.

—These are types that well-gowned women will insist upon for Autumn wear. We're proud of our display. It tells of the very latest styles in no uncertain terms.

—Every popular material and trimming feature is represented—and used in so many distinctive, novel ways that the variety is emphatically unusual.

—Prices range $7.50 to $25 and more.

—Our 3d floor holds hundreds and hundreds of the cleverest of untrimmed hat shapes! More, we believe, than you'll find in any other Portland shop.

—The Emporium will be closed tomorrow, Monday—Jewish Holiday.

IN ORDER to assist all women who are especially interested in helping win the war, a shop has been opened on the second floor of the Tilford Bldg., in order to greatly decrease the cost of dressmaking. A plan has been devised to furnish the cutting, fitting and assist in the work of making women's garments of all kinds. At this time it is the duty of all women to know how to make their own clothing and help conserve and save. We will assist mothers and all busy women at their own hours. We have a first-class French cutter and fitter, who will assist at all hours on appointment, making only a nominal charge of $3.00, and will assist in selecting materials so as to get the best and most practicable values at lowest rates. Apply at the Shop, Second Floor, Tilford Bldg.
