 about 250,000 men for services in the British armies as well as quantities of money through the auxiliaries and various performances he got up. Sir Popham Young and Lady Popham Young are anticipating a visit to America and possibly Portland within a few months.
 Miss Margaret Montgomery left Sunday night for Mills College, where she will join the staff of teachers in the psychology department.
 Miss Florence Jacobsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Jacobsen, will become the bride of Homer T. Shaver. The engagement of this young couple was announced Tuesday, and the wedding will be an event of the early fall.
 The bride-elect is attractive and she was popular in the high school set.
 A charming wedding of yesterday was that at which Miss Ethel Nelson became the bride of Theodore Palitzsch, the ceremony being solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Emil Nelson, 415 Tillamook street. Rev. W. E. Brinkman officiated.
 Miss Margaret Palitzsch was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Modesta Mortensen and Eva Gentry. Margaret Garcia Cutter was flower girl and Ben Risky, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.
 Miss Jessie L. Lewis played the wedding march, and "At Dawning" was sung by Miss Esther Hogan. The house and dancing rounded out the delightful affair.

 The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was prettily gowned in Georgette crepe over white satin, trimmed with rose point and Duchess lace, made round length. Her tulle veil was arranged in a coronet of orange blossoms and rose point lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids, bride roses and bouvardia.
 The maid of honor's gown was yellow taffeta and Georgette crepe with silver lace, and a velvet girdle of delft blue.

 Miss Mortensen wore a gown of silver cloth and white tulle, with silver lace embellishments. Miss Gentry's gown was of Nile tulle and silver lace. They all carried bouquets of asters in pastel shades. The little flower girl wore a charming frock of white lace trimmed with pink bows and sash, and she carried a French basket of Cecil Bruner roses.
 Presiding at the supper tables were Mrs. Albeit Broddie, Mrs. S. E. Petersen, Mrs. C. G. Anderson, Mrs. Charles Conrad, assisted by Gladys Trimble, Marguerite Conrad, Helen Hogan and Mrs. C. Van Clieve.
 Mr. and Mrs. Palitzsch left for a fortnight's trip to British Columbia and the Sound cities, and upon their return they will make their home with the parents of the bride.

One of the interesting events of yesterday was the wedding of Miss Anna Boyd Russell and Herbert Johnston Campbell, which was solemnized at 3 o'clock in St. Mark's Episcopal Church. The betrothal ceremony was read by Rev. John Hatton, and the marriage service was read by Rev. J. E. H. Simpson. The church was artistically decked with a profusion of Japanese sun flowers, golden glow, dahlias and greenery, a color scheme of yellow and white being carried out in the church and the home where a reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. W. Barker played the wedding march; Mrs. A. H. Pope was matron of honor, and E. N. Rytke attended the bridegroom.
 The bride was attractively gowned in a moon glow crepe combined with white Georgette crepe panels. Her veil was of tulle fashioned into a mob cap of rose point lace, with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, orchids and tiny yellow roses.
 The matron of honor wore a gown of yellow silk and Georgette crepe, and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of yellow and lavender flowers. Mrs. Russell, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of gray broadcloth, a smart black hat and a corsage of orchids.
 Only relatives and close friends were bidden to the ceremony and to the reception which followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. E. Russell. A buffet supper was served, the tables being presided over by Mrs. Frank S. Stillman and Mrs. Mabel C. Conway, and they were assisted in serving by Mrs. Robert Buck, Mrs. Ralph Mori, Miss Irene Campbell and Miss Florence Hickok.
 Mr. Campbell and his bride left immediately after the reception for a fortnight's wedding trip, and upon their return they will be at home at 25 East Twenty-sixth street North.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
 The Wisconsin State Society opened its monthly meeting for the Winter at the Portland Social Turn Verein Hall, Thirteenth and Main streets, on Thursday evening. After a short business meeting a pleasing programme was rendered. Mrs. Fullman gave a reading, "Godful Sam"; Mrs. Durham played the "Star-Spangled Banner." The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and cards.
 Mrs. George W. Joseph will entertain the members of the Crescendo Club at her home, 269 Sixteenth street North, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Business for the coming year will be discussed and election of officers will take place. A full attendance is required.
 The evening was opened by a community sing led by Musical Director L. F. Lakin, and the Artisans and friends responded by singing several patriotic numbers. Miss Lillian Marks favored with a song, "Break the News to Mother." Mr. Williams, chairman, introduced District Attorney Evans, who made a rousing speech along patriotic lines, closing his remarks with a patriotic little poem entitled "The Service Flag." Instrumental numbers were furnished by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clifford and the evening closed with cards and dancing.

Beauty

Beauty, not alone of color, nor of line, nor of fabric, but the three fused into harmony so perfect by our designers that each is an inextricable factor, and all form a self-sufficient whole. That is the secret which makes Wonder millinery not only beautiful in the hand, but beautiful on the head.

Prices
$7.50 to $45

A comprehensive collection of beautiful Fall Hats in small, medium and large. Now shown.

RAIN STICKS—
Beautiful in all the new novelties and colors. Price surprisingly low.

Fall Furs

What we succeeded in doing last season, to the utter amazement of Portland women, we will out-do this Fall. In short, we will show scarfs, stoles and coats that bear all the aspects of aristocratic, high-priced furs, and will price them at a low mark no house in the city will dare to reach.
