

The programme was arranged by E. Frances Williams, chairman of array, assisted by a number of league members. The regular order of events was somewhat changed for this occasion.

WEDDINGS.

Daniels-Dudley.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—One of the loveliest of the season's brides was Miss Hera Dudley, whose marriage to Gilbert Wintler Daniels was solemnized Tuesday in St. Luke's Episcopal Church in the presence of a large assemblage of friends of the popular couple. The bride wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin and silver lace, her veil was arranged with a wreath of orange blossoms and the bouquet was a creation of white sweet peas and orchids. Mrs. Harold Patterson, matron of honor, wore a gown of ivory satin with a hat of silver lace and panne velvet. She carried Opheelia roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Regina Shea, of Portland, and Miss Hazel Stokes. Their gowns were of white brandy, each wearing a large picture hat and carrying a French basket with yellow corsage.

Mrs. Fannie Crocker played the wedding march. The music by the choir was a beautiful feature of the ceremony. Horace Daniels, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the guests were ushered by Harold Patterson and William Marshall. William Dudley, father of the bride, gave her in marriage. The Rev. C. W. Holmes, rector of St. Luke's, was the officiating clergyman. The church was artistically decorated with tall standards of yellow crape and ferns.

They were entertained later at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dudley. The house was decorated in yellow and the dining table was centered with a basket of yellow flowers and maidenhair fern. Mrs. J. G. Kelley, of Portland, and Mrs. E. B. Collier presided.

Mr. Daniels comes from a well-known family and is prominent in the business world and civic affairs. His bride is a charming girl, beloved by her friends, many of whom entertained for her after the engagement was announced a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels left the following morning for Klipsan Beach. They will be at home after September 20 at Franklin Court.

Messinger-Swan.

A pretty function of the week was the wedding performed by Rev. P. B. Grant of J. W. Messinger and Mrs. S. C. Swan at the home of the bride, 396 Church street, on Saturday evening. The house was decorated with cedar and Autumn leaves. The table, decked with sweet peas, was presided over by Mrs. D. E. Bowman and her two charming daughters, Matilda and Lucile. Miss Florence Wilbur played the wedding march.

The bride wore gray silk with a corsage bouquet of orange and red. The matron of honor, Mrs. L. A. Bowman, was gowned in pink. D. E. Bowman was best man.

Mr. Messinger is a well-known resident of McMinnville and was formerly a prominent citizen of Eastern Oregon, having formerly been Mayor of Moro. Mrs. Messinger is well known in this city. She is an active worker in the Lincoln-Garfield Relief Corps, of which organization she is treasurer and past president. She is the mother of Captain D. E. Bowman, of Portland; Major L. A. Bowman, now in France, and Levi Bowman, formerly a prominent vocalist of this city and now of Calgary, where he is in charge of the Western Canada Chautauque.

Those in attendance were Mrs. L. A. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bowman, Dr. W. E. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wilbur, Mrs. Ramsey, of Spokane; Mrs. Colburn, of White Salmon; Mrs. Clemens, sister of the bride; the Misses Edna Mott, Florence Wilbur, Matilda and Lucile Bowman.

Jewell-Pfaender.

An interesting marriage of recent date was that of Miss Ruth Pfaender and Private Dana E. Jewell, who is now with the Heavy Artillery Corps en route to Virginia. The wedding took place on August 14 at Long Beach, Cal., where the bride went with Miss Imogene Jewell, sister of the bridegroom, to spend her vacation. Private Jewell was at that time stationed with the Coast Artillery Corps at Fort MacArthur, near San Pedro, Cal.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Pfaender, of 171 East Twenty-ninth street North. Mr. Jewell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jewell, of 399 East Everett street. The couple are popular among the younger set, the bride being a Lincoln High School graduate and well known in musical circles as a vocalist. Private Jewell is a former Washington High School student. The bride will remain with her parents for the present.

Farr-Pearce.

Miss Myrtle A. Pearce and Charles W. Farr were married Sunday evening, September 7, at 6 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pearce, 91 West Emerson street. Rev. J. Bowersox officiated. The bride was attended by little Rose Baxter as ring bearer, and she was given in marriage by her father.

Only the members of the families were present at the ceremony and the wedding supper. The bride was attired in a dark blue silk frock, trimmed with lace. The Pearce family are originally from Akron, O., where the bride was one of the most popular members of the younger set. Mr. Farr is popular in Portland and he is connected with the Mitchell-Stover Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Farr will be at home after September 15 at 666 East Thirty-fourth street north.

ENGAGEMENTS.

The many friends of Miss Irene Higgins, for the past four years a resident of New York City, will be pleased to learn of her marriage September 7 to John E. Hays, of Nashville, Tenn. After a short honeymoon in the Catskill Mountains they will be at home October 1 to their friends in Plainview, N. J., in which city Mr. Hays has business interests.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. C. E. Holliday has returned from a six weeks' trip in New York and other Eastern cities. Mrs. J. Ward Childs, of the Hotel Portland, has returned from an extended visit in California. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sterns are down from Hoquiam and are spending several days at the Hotel Portland. Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Meyers, Miss Marie Meyers and Henry G. Meyers, all of Portland, have been in Tacoma. They visited Rainier National Park and Camp Lewis. Miss Lois Macbeth, a charming maid from Mankato, Minn., is the house guest of her uncle, Ralph H. Torrey, of Laurelhurst. Miss Macbeth is being entertained by a number of the younger set. Mrs. Victor Langwell (Katherine Dorney), en route to join her husband, who is in the officers' training camp at Little Rock, Ark., spent a few days in the city last week visiting her sister, Miss Nell Dorney. Mrs. J. A. Wickman and her sister, Miss Irene Cross, are spending their vacation touring California. They will be gone about five weeks and will visit friends at Long Beach, San Diego, Los Angeles, Salinas and San Francisco.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Mrs. Edward Bok, of Philadelphia, wife of Edward Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, is in Tacoma. She is accompanied by her son, Cary, and Miss Mueller, of Philadelphia. They are visiting Rainier National Park. Mr. Bok has a son who is in the (Concluded on Page 7.)
