

SOCIETY

Two Brides of the Week Whose Weddings Are of Interest to Society.

Mrs. Frank Von Borstel Floye Clodfelter

Mrs. Francis Lester Michelbrock Christie Cleve

Judge Dickinson was Secretary of War during President Taft's Administration, and he has been prominent and active for a number of years in political affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Cordner and baby son, Carter, Jr., have returned to their home in Chicago after a residence in this city of more than a year. Mr. Cordner is preparing to enter Army service and he is to report at Camp Pike after a week's visit in Chicago. Mrs. Cordner, a charming and attractive young matron, was Miss Nan Corcoran, a Dana Hall girl, and very popular in Portland society.

For the benefit of the Franco-Belgian Society a dance is being arranged for Saturday, September 28, at Laurelhurst Club, and the affair is creating a great deal of interest in the various parts of the city. Proceeds will be sent to the French and Belgian orphans and everyone is cordially invited to attend and help make the affair a success. As the dance will be most informal and the tickets will be sold at very small price, everyone is asked to buy one, whether he attends the affair or not. Effort is being made to have everything donated for the affair, so that there will be no expense, as the society is desirous of raising a large sum for their orphan fund. Patrons and patronesses include: Mr. and Mrs. Henri Labbe, Mr. and Mrs. J. Drouillard, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Folger Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Tucker, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Tammie, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cooke, Mrs. Lucie Valair, Mrs. Kelly Rees, Mrs. Donald Spencer, Miss A. Maille.

Mrs. Vincent Cook is leaving tonight for Medford where she will make her headquarters for the next week while making a speaking campaign in the interests of the fourth liberty loan.

Miss Verna Barker will leave tomorrow for Berkeley to enter the University of California.

Mrs. Clara J. Bond, of Eugene, who has been visiting in Portland for the past month, left yesterday for her home. Mrs. Bond is a prominent Red Cross worker in Eugene and she has been attending several of the special meetings held in this city. She has had a delightful visit with relatives and friends here, by whom she has been charmingly entertained.

Dr. and Mrs. Gustav Baar have returned from Gearhart and they have leased Dr. N. Coghlan's house at Twenty-fifth and Johnson streets for the winter.

Miss Marguerite Bergh will entertain Wednesday at her home on Portland Heights with an informal tea in honor of Miss Amy Robinson, charming bride-elect.

Miss Mary Frances Isom, librarian of Portland's public library, was the honor guest at a breakfast Sunday morning at the Hotel Portland. Covers were laid for 70 of her close friends. Miss Isom left on Tuesday for New York, whence she will sail for France to establish libraries in the American rest camps under the direction of the American Library Association.

A number of Portland folk went to Pendleton yesterday to attend the Round-Up, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sharp, Mrs. C. H. Lamont, of Seattle, who is the house-guest of her sister, Mrs. Della Hahn Gearin; Clarence Sewall and Dwight Edwards. The party is being entertained at the home of Dan P. Smythe, of Pendleton, who frequently visits in Portland.

Mrs. Frederick A. Barker entertained at her home in the American Apartments with a charming luncheon on Wednesday honoring Miss Ruth Small, who is leaving on Wednesday for Lane Hospital, San Francisco, to take up a course in dietetics. Covers were arranged for seven close friends of the honoree, and the afternoon was devoted to sewing. Miss Small has been entertained extensively since she announced intention of going into hospital training.

Miss Constance Piper, who will leave Wednesday for New York to resume her musical work, is being delightfully entertained by a number of well-known matrons and maids. A number of informal evening parties are being arranged in her honor, and afternoon affairs, knitting-teas and luncheons also have Coats! Coats! Coats!

—and still more of them, and all conservatively priced

FOR EVERY OCCASION — FOR EVERY PURSE

—There are many reasons why the Emporium is recognized as "The Coat Center of Portland." The bigness of stocks—the diversity of styles and "popular prices" have won for us that enviable position.

—Our "Portland-New York" buyers and our New York resident buyers declare that never before have they been so pleased with coat stocks! We're proud of them, too, because we know we have the very coat you want and that it is priced within your purse.

made the week just ended interesting. Yesterday her aunt, Mrs. D. C. Bogart, entertained a number of the young girls with a knitting-tea in honor of the popular maid.

The following from a San Francisco paper will be of interest to many Portlanders: "Miss Priscilla Elliott, daughter of Captain and Mrs. J. M. Elliott, of Mare Island, was married to Captain Thomas Eugene Watson in Santo Domingo on Monday, September 15, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, wife of Major Kingsbury. According to the laws of Santo Domingo, a civil ceremony was performed in the morning and in the evening the marriage was solemnized by Archdeacon Wyllie in the presence of friends and relatives. "The bride wore an elaborate gown of cloth of silver trimmed with rare lace and pearls. A long train of lace hung from the shoulders. A full tulle veil held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms completed the costume. She carried a shower bouquet of white and pink orchids. Mrs. Kingsbury was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a gown of pink tulle over pink charmeuse and carried a bouquet of Coele Bruner roses. A small cousin and nephew of the bride acted as ribbon bearers, and her niece and the little daughter of Archdeacon Wyllie acted as flower girls." (Continued on Page 4.)
