EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Hellis entertained at their home on Saturday evening. They were assisted by Mrs. J. T. Dahlgren and Mrs. F. P. Rigney, the occasion being a surprise birthday party given in honor of Miss Xavier Rigney, who was the recipient of several beautiful presents.

Music and five hundred were diversions of the evening. Prizes were awarded as follows: First honors to Miss Nelson and F. Bertram; second prizes to Mrs. M. Peterson and Alvin Douden.

Supper was served to the following friends who called during the evening to offer best wishes and extend cordial congratulations to Miss Rigney: J. T. Dahlgren and sons, Clement and Theodore, C. H. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Rosewell and children, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Peterson and children, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Holburg, Mrs. M. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Douden, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peterson, Mrs. Hoyer and son, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bertram, Mr. Murphy and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wallner, Mrs. Nelson and daughter, and children of the host and hostess, Bobby, Carl and Elma Hellis.

Miss Josephine Grigg, daughter of Mrs. Leonard Brock, was entertained with a surprise party, in honor of her 12th birthday on Monday, at her home in Delahunt Court, Twenty-eighth and Sandy boulevard. The party was given by her mother and her school companion, Miss Audrey Jensen. The children enjoyed games, music and singing. They were served with a delightful luncheon. The house was decorated with the National colors, red, white and blue. Those present were: Dorothy Boland, Gracie Boland, Della Duffy, Helen Duffy, Gertrude Harbin, Audrey Jensen, Florence Cohen, Dorothy Bleeker, Ann Strong, Jean Macqueen, Leah Anderson, Mae Cuddeback, Emma Fleming, Nellie Boland, Mrs. M. J. Boland, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Duffy.

Miss Hazel Croxford entertained with a miscellaneous shower Monday evening complimenting Miss Frances Clarke, a bride-elect.

Miss Croxford's home was decorated with hearts, darts and cupid. In the music-room a sprinkling pot with a shower of ribbons and gifts at the end of each was gracefully arranged. The dining table was adorned with kewpie dolls, dressed in soldier's and bride's attire, with two as flower girls.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Slater were agreeably surprised Saturday evening when about 75 of their friends invaded their home on Church street, the occasion being a farewell to the doctor, who is taking a trip to Honolulu. Mrs. Eliza

Conaway, in her gracious manner, in behalf of Gordon Granger Post and Corps, of which Mrs. Slater is president, presented the doctor with a beautiful leather traveling bag. He also received a silver loving cup from the State Association of Chiropractors, of which he is a member. Cards and dancing were the pastime, dainty refreshments were served and all had a splendid time.

Ben Butler W. R. C. No. 51 tendered a reception Thursday afternoon to the visiting National vice-president, Minnie Horseman. Other visitors present were Margaret Becker, president Geo. Wright W. R. C. No. 2; Mary Simmons, president Thompson W. R. C.; Mrs. Hendershot, president Lincoln-Garfield Corps No. 19; National Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief J. G. Chambers. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable programme of instrumental numbers by Mrs. Bowman was given. Vocal numbers by two young women, and addresses by Comrades Chambers, Terry, Hendershot and George were given. This was another of the very enjoyable meetings of the corps and a number of visitors were present from other corps.
