"FUI" PLAYS HAVOC WITH GRIDIRON GAME

Winged-M and Aggies Clash May Be Called Off.

MARINES' DATES UP IN AIR

Captain Covert's Team to Play Fort Baker and California University November 9 and 16.

BY JAMES J. RICHARDSON.
Spanish "flu" is being blamed for many things nowadays. But the malady is surely playing havoc with gridiron contests as well as other forms of amusement. The big gridiron battle scheduled for next Saturday at Multnomah Field between the Oregon Aggies' regimental eleven and the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club gridiron team may have to be called off on account of the malady, unless Mayor Baker modifies his order, which at present seems not appear likely.

Next Saturday's scheduled clash would mark the first appearance in Portland of any college aggregation. The Aggies lined up against Vancouver Barracks yesterday at Corvallis and gave Private "Tick" Malarkey's soldier-division a good argument, and Portland followers of Oregon Agricultural College as well as enthusiasts of the Winged M club are quite anxious to see the two rival elevens meet next Saturday.

If the Aggies are to be entertained by the clubmen on Multnomah Field, it will mark the first appearance on a Portland field of the Aggies' new gridiron coach—W. H. Hargis. Reports emanating from Corvallis state that Hargis, who hails from Kansas State Normal College, Emporia, Kan., is living up to all the good things that have been said about him. The students at the Corvallis institution, as well as faculty members, are loud in their praise of the new mentor's strategy. It is to be hoped that Spanish influenza will have lost its grip on this city by next Saturday and permit the big game being played.

When the Oregon Aggies clash with Washington State College on Multnomah Field, Turkey day, the Corvallis eleven is going to have a hard row to hoe, provided reports from Pullman are to be taken seriously. Athletic Director Fred Boehler had over 100 Husky soldier-students respond to his first call for football practice. Boehler has decided to organize company elevens and each of the four companies will play each other, the first games being scheduled for next Saturday. At the conclusion of the inter-company series the men who have showed the greater promise will comprise the varsity or "regimental" eleven.

Boehler says he has some excellent material and that the Oregon Aggies are going to have to step aside if they expect to take a fall out of the Washington Staters.

A little thing like a quarantine of Mare Island because of Spanish influenza does not keep the members of the Marines' football squad from practicing every day. Coach Bill Dietz has his first and second string men out each afternoon, and twice a week, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, they put on a real contest. Last week the second team held the first team to two touchdowns, which is better than either Goat Island or Camp Fremont did with the "duds."

The Marines' schedule is pretty much up in the air. Captain Covert cannot tell when the quarantine will be lifted, so he does not know when his team will play again. The northern tour of the Marines is tentative. No games would be the elements to give battle to the famous Mare Island aggregation. If the Marines come north it is almost assured they will bring their famous band with them. A concert has been arranged for at the City Auditorium and during the few days previous to the game the musicians will hold forth in different parts of the city, giving vent to their melodies.

The Marines have agreed to play Fort Baker at San Francisco, November 9, and the University of California, November 16, but further than that Captain Covert has not made any plans. Bangs, famous Washington State halfback, is expected to join the Marines at Mare Island this week.

FOREIGN ATHLETES UPHELD

COAST PROPOSAL IS OPPOSED IN EASTERN STATES.

Prominent Association Men Look to Revival of College Sports at Close of World Conflict.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The proposal advanced by the Pacific Coast Association of the Amateur Athletic Union to bar all foreign athletes from future competition in National championship meets finds little favor among Eastern athletic officials and followers of track and field sports. The consensus of opinion indicates that it would be a most peculiar action for the American athletes to take, as athletes from the States have for years been the most consistent traveling competitors and prize-winners.

It was pointed out by a prominent A. A. U. authority that there might be some reason for such a proposal on the part of the Canadian Union, in view of the fact that in past years strong teams from the New York A. C. and the Irish-American A. C. have journeyed to Canada and swept away every first prize and title at the annual Dominion championships. American athletes also have been prominent winners of titular track and field honors in similar meets in England, Scandinavia and other European countries. In every case our athletes have been welcomed and where they were good enough to defeat the best of the home entrants there was nothing but praise for their performances.

The menace of the foreign athletic invader is, furthermore, of little danger. Very few have been able in the past to show their heels to the best of the American athletes. The records of both home championships and Olympic games clearly demonstrate. It would undoubtedly be an impetus to greater and better work by a few invading performers could be found to show the way to our stars. It is the generally expressed opinion that after peace reigns again, throughout the world there will be a great revival of international sport competition. With this thought uppermost in the minds of the delegates who gather for the annual meeting of the A. A. U. at Philadelphia on November 18, there appears little possibility of the adoption of the proposed resolution.

FIGHT PROMOTERS ARE HARD PRESSED FOR RING MATERIAL

Four-Round Game, as It Is Being Conducted in Oakland, Declared in More or Less Tangle These Days.

BY HARRY B. SMITH.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—The four-round game, as it is being conducted in Oakland, is in more or less of a tangle these days. And the way things are going across the bay, here's always the danger that something might happen to the sport not only in Oakland, but San Francisco as well.

The situation is thus: If they were a professional standpoint, Tommy Simpson, of Emeryville, is the only promoter who has been going to the shipbuilding yards in that section. The boys needed funds for a gymnasium and other essentials, and somebody told them the proper thing since only four-round scraps have been allowed.

More recently Jimmy Rohan, who, in the good old days was associated with the Moffitt brothers in the Piedmont Club, has shown a tendency to get back into the harness. Some months back there was organized the Shipbuilders' Athletic Association, composed of representatives from the shipbuilding yards in that section. The boys needed funds for a gymnasium and other essentials, and somebody told them the proper thing since only four-round scraps have been allowed.
