Mr. and Mrs. George C. Mason, accompanied by Mrs. Henry McCracken, left Friday on an extended Eastern trip. They will remain in New York about a month, afterward visiting in Philadelphia and Boston.

The Tillamook Dancing Club will hold its first party of a series of 12 dances at the Irvington Club, Thompson and East Twenty-second street North, Saturday evening, November 3. If the ban on meetings is lifted by that date. The club this year will be informal, owing to war conditions, and the proceeds will go to a fund being raised for a company of men in tank service in France in which a Portland man, Thomas W. Saul, is a First Lieutenant. The list of membership will be closed by October 26, as the membership is limited.

Compliments Mrs. Lloyd F. Weaver, a charming and popular San Francisco matron, who is visiting in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Guthrie, Mrs. Irving E. Stearns entertained with an informal sewing-tee Wednesday. Guests numbering about 20 young matrons and maids, old friends of the honoree, called during the afternoon.

An artistic array of Fall flowers decked the drawing and dining-rooms, and the tea table, also adorned with garden flowers, was presided over by Mrs. William Castleman, of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. John Francis Daly.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Conant left early in the week on a motor trip to San Francisco, where the former will go to Camp Taylor in the officers' training school. Mrs. Conant will remain as the guest of her parents in Oakland until the return of her husband. Mr. Conant is a well-known member of the M. A. A. C. and a popular man in social circles as well as club and in business.

Mrs. Robert Dean Murray, assisted by Mrs. Albert D. Merrill, entertained at a dancing party Friday evening in honor of Miss Catherine Murray, of Seattle, who has been spending a couple of months with her brother of this city. Miss Murray has made many friends here who are rejoicing over her return to Portland.

Word of the marriage of Miss May Evans to Carl Hoeftle September 6 at Seoul, Corea, has been received by friends in Portland. Mrs. Hoeftle has been a frequent visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst, and she is one of Monmouth Normal School girls.

Mr. Hoeftle is one of the resident engineers of the Oriental Consolidated Mining Company's plant at Unsan, Corea, where they will continue to make their home. The couple were attended by Harry J. Evans, brother of the bride, who is a mining engineer living at Unsan also, and Miss Grace Johnson, of the Woman's College at Seoul.

The wedding of Miss Margaret E. Knight and Stephen A. Moech on October 15, Miss Knight, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Etter Knight, of this city, is a well-known Portland girl and for the past three years has maintained her

There are a dozen reasons why women like best to shop at the Emporium—It's Portland's largest exclusive Ready-to-Wear and Millinery Shop. It is most centrally and conveniently located of all shops, and it is light and airy. A heavy noiseless linoleum covers our floors in the place of the usual heavy rugs that can't help collecting dust. It's as light and sanitary as we can possibly make it. You'll enjoy shopping here. Shop in the morning and avoid afternoon crowds. Prices are popular.

Fur-Trim'd Novelty Suits

To Delight the Heart of Every Woman Who Sees Them

—To be really smart every suit must have its quota of luxurious Fur. However, fur is only one of the many interesting features about this showing of exclusive suits.

—Panel backs and narrow belts are prominent—many are copies of imported models. Rich silver-tones, duvet de laines, velours, broadcloths, tricotines in warm brown, plums, taupe, Burgundy and navy.

—They're marked 'way less than such suits ordinarily are—$55, $67.50, $75.

Handsome Novelty Coats

That Combine Beauty and Service..... $55.00

—Whether you choose a lavishly Fur-trimmed coat of duvet de laine or a plainly tailored model of rich, warm Bolivia, pom pom, silvertone, velour or Normandy you have the assurance of high quality and real serviceability at a price decidedly reasonable.

—Other coats range in price $25 to $135.

Charming "Best" Blouses

Are Priced $8.95

—Filmy modes in white and the palest of flesh pinks and lovely suit shades that will complement your Fall suit wonderfully.

—Exquisitely designed—tiny tucked, embroidered and beaded. An early choice is advised, for such entrancing models will not long remain unsold.

Most Women Will Wear FURS

—Perhaps it will be a scarf of Hudson Seal, of fox, wolf, mole, squirrel or moleskin—or mayhap a cape effect or stole. The particular choice is a matter of individual preference, but furs in some form you must surely have.

—Emporium prices are surprisingly low.

—Furs selected now will be reserved until Christmas.

A Gay Gathering of Clever Serge Dresses $37.50

—These new styles seem to be made with the idea of being appropriate for every wear. They are practical, yet their elegance has been preserved by the use of silk braidings, embroiderings, variations in plaits and novel collars. Styles for miss and matron.

—Other dresses $19.50, $25 and up to $75.

Millinery Modes

Of Striking Originality

Clever copies of the latest French creations, these artistic Millinery modes are representatives of every whim of Paris fashions.
