month, the proceeds from same being used to pay the dues and assessments of the members, both men and women, who are in the service of their country. Miss Helen Hall entertained with a luncheon on Saturday at her home in Portland Heights. Covers were arranged for 12.

At the home of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Bertrand, 86 Texas street, with whom she is now visiting, Mrs. Emeline Pettit, of Ilwaco, Wash., celebrated her 88th birthday last Sunday. Mrs. Pettit is a pioneer of the Willamette Valley. She is the mother of 14 children, seven of whom are living and her family includes five generations and number 100.

WEDDINGS.

Bradley-Chamberlain.
A pretty military wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at the Grace Baptist Church of Montavilla, when Ida Barnes Chamberlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Barnes, of 2150 East Glisan, and Arthur Bradley, son of Mrs. K. M. Roskey, of 325 Lowndale, were married by Rev. Herbert Cash. Mr. Bradley is attached to the medical corps, E. F. Barnes, the bride's father, is attached to the aeroplans division at Vancouver. Bert Barnes, brother of the bride, was best man, and Mrs. Bert Barnes (Iva Harter) was matron of honor. Bert Barnes is stationed at Vancouver in the Second Regiment Band.

About 20 soldiers formed a guard of honor on each side of the aisle for the bride party, led by Mr. Cash. Private John Johnson gave the bugle call to assemble and Mrs. May Hagaman played the wedding march. Private A. Lewis sang "Passing By," accompanied by Private L. Newton. After the ceremony the soldiers again formed in the aisle and Private Johnson sounded "Retreat." The members of the band and several of the closest friends and relatives proceeded to the house, where the boys of the band entertained them with several selections, also vocal and Corvallis, Driggs, Idaho, and Ogden, Utah. The bridegroom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCready, well-known residents of Corvallis, where they are engaged in the lumber industry. The young couple left by automobile for a brief honeymoon trip, after which they will make their home in Corvallis.

Elgin-Wills.
A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday at noon, when Miss Myrtle Wills, daughter of Mrs. Eda E. Wills of Carlton, Or., became the bride of Benjamin F. Elgin, son of Mrs. Sara Elgin, of Corvallis. The bride was unattended and she wore a dark blue tulle and white hat. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. Rev. Mr. Gibson, of the Baptist Church, officiated at the simple service. Miss Wills has spent the past five years in Portland. Mr. Elgin is a pharmacist of Sherwood, Or., and a well-known business man of the valley. Only relatives and close friends were present. After the service a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson, a sister of the bride. The couple left immediately for Oakland, Cal., where they will visit the bridegroom's sister. They plan to make their home in Seattle.

Parson-Hummel.
Quiet simplicity marked the wedding of Miss Norma Hummel and Harry Edmond Parson, which was solemnized on Monday evening, October 7, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hummel, 349 Grant street. Only relatives were bidden to the affair, and the young couple were unattended. The Rev. John H. Boyd read the ceremony, and Mrs. Kenneth Crookham played the wedding music. The bride wore her going-away suit, a dark blue tulle, with a velvet hat. An informal reception followed the ceremony, after which the young couple left on a short wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Parson, of Kenora, Ont., Canada, parents of the bridegroom, were present, as was Mrs. C. W. Goudir, of Saskatchewan, Canada.

Brown-Manning.
Miss Esther Belle Manning, daughter of Mrs. Mary D. Manning, of this city, became the bride of James Brown, of Vancouver Barracks, on Friday evening, the ceremony being read in Vancouver. The bridegroom is a member of the spruce production division, and the wedding was a simple affair.

Booth-Dick.
Westminster Church was the scene of a simple wedding Saturday evening, September 7, when Miss Carolyn F. Dick became the bride of Sergeant Warren R. Booth, Rev. Edward H. Pence officiating. The young couple were unattended, and only immediate relatives were present. The bride is
