

Owing to the necessity of continuous his services without interruption, the wedding will be solemnized in San Francisco and it will be an event of the early Winter.

Honoring Miss Mary McMillan, of Washington, D. C., who is head of the reconstruction clinic of Reed College, Mrs. James A. Dougherty entertained with an informal tea Wednesday. The affair was given at the home of Mrs. Dougherty's sister, Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, and the prettily appointed tea table was presided over by Mrs. Jack Browne and Mrs. Martin Gay Lombard.

The myriads of candles on the mantle and flanking the altrar enhanced the charm of the scene.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white moonglow crepe made with panels front and back, embroidered and brailed in silver. The bodice was made of real lace and silver embroidery, and the wing-sleeves of lace gave a distinctive touch to the gown. The veil was arranged in a double correct of silver at the back of the scife.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot celebrated their wedding anniversary Monday evening with an informal dinner. They also were hosts for a tea honoring Prince Axel, who was one of the distinguished visitors in Portland the past week. Mrs. Talbot asked a a number of her old friends to meet the Prince at the test, which was given at the conclusion of a trip on the highway Tuesday.
