

IDAHO NON-PARTISANS FACE DISLOYAL CHARGE

Latah County Council of De- fense Makes Complaint.

ORGANIZERS ARE ARRESTED

Carl H. Davis, District Manager at Lewiston, and R. W. Bignell Must Answer Federal Court.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Carl H. Davis, district manager and organizer of the Non-Partisan League, with headquarters recently opened at Lewiston, is under arrest on a charge of violating the espionage law in Latah County. The warrant for his arrest was issued by H. R. Smith, United States Commissioner at Moscow, upon a complaint sworn to by L. E. Parsons, chairman of the Latah County Council of Defense. The arrest was made by a Deputy United States Marshal. R. W. Bignell, another Non-Partisan organizer, is also under arrest upon a warrant issued by Commissioner Smith on complaint of Chairman Parsons, of the County Council of Defense. "For some time the Council of Defense and the Department of Justice have been at work on these cases," said Mr. Parsons. "We secured satisfactory evidence that these men had made disloyal statements and that they were injuring the work of putting the bond drive over. After due consultation with the legal department of the Council of Defense it was decided to make the arrests. The men will be given a hearing before the United States Commissioner. There is no politics in this matter. It is a case of stopping disloyalty and opposition to the Government's conduct of the war."

CAPT. ABRAHAM PROMOTED

Former Hood River County Physi- cian and Coroner Becomes Major.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Local friends today received a message from Mrs. V. R. Abraham, announcing the promotion of her husband, Captain V. R. Abraham, to a Major. Major Abraham, who, at the outbreak of the war, was commissioned a First Lieutenant, has just been transferred from Fort Riley, Kas., to Camp Devens, Mass., where he is director of ambulance companies of the Twelfth Division.

Major Abraham, formerly County Physician and Coroner here, lived at Forest Grove, where his parents now reside. Mrs. Abraham and children have removed from Junction City to Forest Grove.

SPRUCE WORKER IS KILLED

William Wines Meets Tragic Death at Aberdeen Plant.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—William Wines, spruce division soldier, employed as teamster at the Wilson Bros. mill, died this morning as the result of injuries suffered yesterday afternoon while at work. Mr. Wines was driving a horse hitched to a truck in the mill yard, and tripped over the truck chains. Before he could extricate himself the horse trampled him. He was removed to a hospital and the medical staff worked all night to save his life. Mr. Wines was 28 years old and was born in Wisconsin. He will be given military burial.

HOOD RIVER STILL GOING

County's Loan Quota Already Ex- ceeded by $70,400.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—This county voluntarily pledged an over-subscription, and tonight the campaign closed with $70,000, exceeding the quota by $70,400. E. H. Greene, De committee manager, notified headquarters today that his committee was trying to obtain the subscriptions of all loggers and his final report tonight is expected to extend over-subscriptions several thousand dollars. Banks report the total number of subscribers at 1951, 288 more than for the third loan.

POLK TO HONOR PRESIDENT

Special Ceremonies to Mark Unveil- ing of Monument.

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—At a recent meeting of the Sarah Childress Folk Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution plans were made for unveiling the monument to be erected in North Dallas on November 2, marking the site of the first courthouse in Polk County. That date is also the birthday of former President James K. Polk, after whom the county is named. The unveiling of the monument will take place in the afternoon and the plan is to make the event a special holiday for the city.

"FLU" BAN REDUCES TRADE

Aberdeen Department Stores Feel Pressure of Epidemic Ban.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Department stores felt the pressure of the influenza ban today. City Physician C. E. Bartlett instructed department stores to hold no special sales until the epidemic abates. Stores which had advertised Saturday bargain sales for today were told to allow no crowds to gather, and to post notices advising people to "keep on the move after making specific purchases."

Refrigerator Cars Scarce.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Although not expected to be of such duration as to become serious, a shortage of refrigerator cars is being felt by the local sales agency. The Apple Growers' Association, formerly shipping an average of 15 cars daily, has been allowed but 50 per cent of its requirements the past two days.

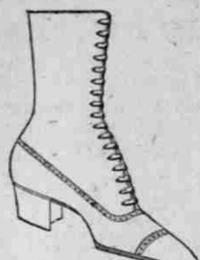

Banks Largely Oversubscribes.

BANKS, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—The bustling little town of Banks, out on the Tillamook line in Northern Washington county, has subscribed over $61,250 in the fourth liberty loan drive, or close to 200 per cent over her quota, which was $22,500.

Farmer Has Prize Hog.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—A Yorkshire sow belonging to J. A. Scotland, a farmer living near Chehalis, is a war-time winner. This week she gave birth to her first litter of pigs, 17 in number, all of which are alive and healthy.

We Speak for Quality in Your Footwear

Women's Brown Russia Calf Shoes with long vamps; military heels. Smart, stylish, serviceable. Priced $10.

Laird, Schober & Co.'s Oxfords in brown or black leather; heavy soles. For Fall wear with spats—$11.

Men's Fall Lace Shoes with genuine calf uppers and waterproof Neolin soles. Priced, the pair, at $8.00 and upwards.

It is a time to choose your footwear with care. Your health—your good appearance—depend upon its quality and its reliability.

Much that is mediocre and unworthy has taken on the appearance of true worth, but the deception soon becomes apparent.

We will neither buy nor offer to sell a pair of shoes that is not of sterling quality. The manufacturer who makes his merchandise of poor materials is not welcome here; we do not wish to deal with him.

The shoes we have here to offer you are made in American factories by men whose very names guarantee quality. We deal only with such, and it is only their product that we offer.

Our Fall exhibit awaits your approval.

VARSITY FIELD DESERTED

"FLU" RESTRICTS GAMES AT EU- GENE TO PRACTICE ONLY.

Chances of Two Clashes With Aggies Depends Whether Military Author- ities Permit Trips to Be Made.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—For the first time during this season of the year, Kincaid field was deserted this afternoon. Owing to the ravages of the Spanish influenza no game was scheduled for today and the team, which is slowly rounding into form again, spent the day in light practice. Maultz, the 200-pound guard, is out again, after having been laid up with the "flu" for almost a week. Brandenberg, Chapman and Blake are not able to get out as yet, but as none of the cases are considered serious, they are expected back into uniforms by the first of the week. Layton, who played center during most of the Multnomah Club game, is still out with an injured leg. It is hardly expected that he will be in condition to play before the first contest with Oregon Agricultural College. Layton's place is being taken by Callison, a Eugene High School star, who finished the Multnomah game at center. Callison is showing up well and will probably start in the game with "Tlek" Malarkey's Spruce Division team here next Saturday.

PORTLAND LAD GIVES LIFE ON AMERICAN FRONT.

Samuel I. Faveluke. Official notice from the Government last week brought word to Mr. and Mrs. Sol Faveluke, of 319 East Thirty-sixth street, that their elder son, Samuel L. Faveluke, had made the supreme sacrifice.

Samuel Faveluke had been missing since July 18, according to a former notice received from the Government. The notice of last week gives the fact of his death, but supplies no details as to where it occurred or in what manner. Through Chaplain Gilbert, of the former Third Oregon, efforts are being made to obtain more complete information.

The young man came to Portland from Russia with his parents when he was 8 years old. He enlisted with the Third Oregon in March of 1917 and was transferred to Company G of the 18th Infantry after reaching France.

The last word received from him told of his participating in the battle of Chateau Thierry on July 4. The letter said that he was happy, but hoped he could be back in Portland for his 21st birthday, which would have been on December 21, 1918. After his graduation from the Falling Grammar School he was with the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company.

is sick with the influenza in Portland. Plummer was given leave by the military authorities to visit his home here. Speculation is rife as to whether or no the military authorities of the two institutions will grant leave for the followers of the teams to make the trips between the two cities. Coach "Shy" Huntington, who is now also graduate manager of the university, intends to put the men through a week of hard practice before the game the Spruce Division squad. No word has been received from the Marines or Camp Lewis, so games with these two service elevens are still hanging fire.

LIQUOR PARTY IS JAILED

SIX ALLEGED BOOTLEGGERS TO FACE PROSECUTION HERE.

Suspected Violators Are Arrested in Southern Oregon and Turned Over to U. S. Officers.

Bootleggers picked up by local officers in Southern Oregon, were brought to Portland yesterday by Federal authorities. One group consisted of Morris Minsky, Barney Perlman and George B. Goldenberg.

According to their story, Minsky, who is a jewelry salesman for a Portland concern, concocted the scheme to make money. He suggested that Perlman, who sells newspapers, should put a machine in the game; that Goldenberg should pay for the gasoline and oil and that he, Minsky, would furnish money for liquor. They bought 144 quarts at Hill, Cal., for $300 and when they were in Southern Oregon had an auto accident which was their undoing. John Parker, another alleged bootlegger, was in the party brought to Portland. He was in a machine with Jack Brennan when the latter was shot by a Deputy Sheriff. There were 200 quarts in the car. George Lewis and wife were the third group of bootleggers brought to Portland. They were stopped on the Pacific Highway and when Lewis left the machine to argue with Deputy Sheriff Hopkins, of Canyonville, the woman drove away. On the way to Hiddle she cached a stock of liquor, picked up her companion in that town and they escaped for the time being.

PRISON PROBE TO EXPAND

Penitentiary Investigation Shifts to Oregon Metropolis.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Attorney-General Brown, District Attorney Max Gehlbach, of Marion County, and District Attorney G. S. Hill, of Linn County, will be in Portland Monday to join with District Attorney Evans, of Multnomah County, in extending the State Penitentiary probe into that county. It is probable that a number of paroled convicts, now in Portland, will be put on the grill to divulge what they know in regard to conditions surrounding the issuance of paroles at the prison.

Precautions Against Colds and Grippe

Combating epidemics of colds and la grippe can be effectively aided by a rigid adherence to these suggestions:

At the first indication of a heavy cold or la grippe, go home. Call your family physician. Drink one or two glasses of hot lemonade. Go to bed. Cover up well. Do not cough or sneeze toward others. Isolate yourself, as much as possible, from other members of the family.

The chances of "catching" cold, la grippe or influenza will be minimized by following these precautions:

Avoid crowds. Crowds spread infection. Take adequate exercise. Live and work in pure, fresh air. Get plenty of sleep. If possible, sleep in a room by yourself. Keep your feet dry and warm. If you need a laxative, take one. Don't overeat.
