We direct attention to our Third and Fourth Floors, which now house enormous carefully chosen stocks of fashionable apparel in reliable qualities for all womanhood.

FABRICS MACHINES FOR SEWING IN THE HOME

THE ECONOMY BASEMENT STORE

—Here is a whole store of personal and home necessities for the entire family at lower than customary prices because sold for cash only. To people of limited means this basement offers a solution to the ever-present question of how to dress for less.

The Nation and the community demand that shopping now take its place as an exact science with the woman skilled in the way of wise economy.

To such women, the Nation's and the community's slogan, "Careful anticipation" should mean intelligent management of time and energy as well as of finance. With such women going from store to store is no longer the necessary preliminary to purchasing. No matter, now, that such was their former habit, they have accepted this store's guidance and have become expert judges of values.

We point with pride to the increasing number of women in this community who we hear saying "I always begin and end by buying at Lipman, Wolfe & Co."—instead of those who used to go half way and say "I always end by buying at Lipman, Wolfe & Co."

This store appreciates this confidence. It is striving as it has been for more than sixty years to merit it. It therefore feels safe in—

Inviting the Shopping Public of This Community to Make This Store Its Regular Source of Supply

It Is Hardly Necessary to Again Call the Attention of Everyone to This Store's Ability to Supply the Needs of Everyone

OPERATION PROVES FATAL

Ray Finnerty, Trying to Get in Condition to Fight, Dies in Hospital.
Mrs. Ellen Finnerty, mother of Ray Finnerty, who died Tuesday at the Good Samaritan Hospital while undergoing an operation to put him in physical condition to enter the United States Army, arrived in Portland from Madison, Wis., Friday only to find that her son was dead.
Mrs. Finnerty left another son seriously ill with the Spanish influenza in Madison to come out to the Pacific Coast to be with her son when he would undergo his operation, and thought he was only ill.
Ray Finnerty is well-known in Portland and was formerly employed at the Broadway Hotel. He was recently called to the colors. He was told he would have to have an operation before he could be taken into the service and he died trying to better himself to fight for Uncle Sam.
Mrs. Finnerty lost another son, in France, in September, when Joseph, a brother aged 29, was killed in action.

GIRLS PLEAD BEING MINORS

Cases of Gladys Valles and Mildred FitzHenry Postponed.
Gladys Valles and Mildred FitzHenry, alleged girl burglars, insisted that they were minors when they appeared in the Municipal Court for a preliminary hearing yesterday. Judge Rossmann postponed the case until tomorrow. When arrested they gave their ages as 21 and 18 years.
The girls were arrested Friday by Inspectors Hellyer and Leonard, and charged with the larceny of $1000 in postal savings certificates, and $70 in gold from Mike Markich, of the Sargent Hotel, Hawthorne and Grand avenues. The girls burned the postal savings certificates after the burglary, because they did not know what they were for. Police recovered most of the money, and the certificates will be re-issued by the postal savings bank, it is believed.

DESERTER IS REWARDED

Red Sox Allot $300 of Series' Gains
Did you ever see a bunch of ball-players after they had won a bet at a racetrack dividing the pool? They are likely to get into a corner and the holder of the winnings will deal out the bills, "one for Sam, one for Jack, one for Bill," and so on around. It must have been a peculiar little party that dealt the cards in the division of the Boston Red Sox' share of the world's series swag, says an Eastern writer.
Some of the things that happened through inscrutable methods were that Thomas, who played 44 championship games, and then quit the club merely because he was ordered to the Great Lakes, got only $750, though he played the full series. Dick Hoblitzel, who went into the Army of his own free will after playing 25 games, was "paid" $300.
But Dutch Leonard, who left the club flat, jumping to Fore River to escape the draft, was given the same sum as Hoblitzel, though there is no way to figure him a member of the world's series team. In fact, his leap would have ended it as a championship probability had not Sam Jones unexpectedly delivered. And Leonard, after cheating himself out of a full share, doesn't escape after all. His draft board has grabbed him out of the shipyard and has ordered him into the Army.

CAMP LEWIS BEATS MULTNOMAH, 7 TO 0

Winged "M" Athletes Put Up
Hard Game.

FORWARD PASS ONE SCORE

Hughie McKenna, Club's 120-Pound
Quarterback, Makes Gains
Through Soldiers.

BY EARL R. GOODWIN.
CAMP LEWIS, AMERICAN LAKE, Wash., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Camp Lewis is put one over the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club football team here this afternoon in one of the most thrilling games yet played on the division athletic field. The final score was 7 to 0 and the lone touchdown came in the last 10 seconds of the second quarter.
It was a beautiful contest from a spectator's standpoint, with both aggregations evenly matched. The score was made from a 41-yard forward pass, Lyle Bigbee to Schultz, and Jim Blackwell converted the goal, running up the seventh and last marker. That was the last time the soldier boys threatened the Winged "M" goal.

Visitors Lacked Punch.

The visitors several times got down within the 20-yard line, but the necessary punch to put across anything was lacking. In the last quarter with all hands fighting desperately amid a steady downpour, the Oregonians went to the Camp Lewis four-yard line. On the fourth down Hughie McKenna sent the heavy olive drab line for good substantial gains and especially when the necessary yardage was needed. It took from two to three of the opponents to put him off his feet, while he was carrying the ball. At running back punts he especially was effective for he fumbled the slippery oval only once and then recovered that after a punt.

Teams to Meet Again.

Huyck and Bryant, the Camp Lewis directors, were the bright and shining stars for the cantonment. There was but one substitution on the Portland side, while five were made by Coach Lieutenant Eddie Kleinholz and Captain T. G. Cook. Tom Louitt, the husky Multnomah center, was well as Mike Bloch, played a bang-up game and busted through the opposition with frequency.
The two eleven will play in Portland on the Winged "M" enclosure, November 16, providing the present quarantine is lifted.
Tom Louitt handled the Oregonians' affairs here today in the absence of Manager George Bertz, who could not get away at the last minute. When the two teams met at Oregon metropolis, quite a delegation, no doubt, will journey south.

Punt Goes Sixty Yards.

The longest punt of the afternoon was for 60 yards, made by Hughie McKenna. In the last period Major-General Leith ordered the game stopped because of the heavy downpour, but when it was learned that but a little more than six minutes of play remained he allowed the contest to proceed.
Following is the summary:

CALIFORNIA GAME SIGNED

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON TO PLAY IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Contest on November 23 Will Be for Benefit of Allied War Work Council.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Oregon will meet the University of California in San Francisco on November 23, according to arrangements completed this afternoon by Charles Huntington, graduate manager of the university. The game will be played for the benefit of the allied war work council, and all receipts, over and above expenses, will be turned over to the cause.
The playing of this game so far from the campus is made possible by the ruling of the War Department, which has set aside its previous ruling that no team could play any contest that could not be reached by leaving the campus Friday night. This change is made only for games that will benefit the allied war work, and a series of such games is being arranged throughout the United States.
This acceptance of the game with California for the 23d makes it necessary to cancel the game scheduled for Portland with the Mare Island marines. It is possible that some other date may be secured for the marine game, but as yet Huntington has not made the change. If a change is not made the marine game will be dropped.
The Oregon team will be in tip-top condition by this time, and will go south for the determination to "skin the Golden Bear."

TWO GAMES AT VANCOUVER

Spectators at Post Athletic Field Are Mostly Soldiers.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Two hard-fought football games were played on the post athletic field this afternoon. Spectators were mostly soldiers.
The Eighth Spruce Squadron defeated the 11th Spruce Squadron, 13 to 7.
The Sixth Spruce Squadron won from the 12th Spruce Squadron, 10 to 7, one field goal being made by the winning team, this deciding the score, which was tied but just failed, the ball passing to the left of the post. Captain Upton was referee and Malarkey was umpire.
The post team will play the Standford team on the same grounds at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow.

AMATEUR RULE MAY FAIL

SERVICE AS ARMY DIRECTOR NOW AFFECTS STANDING.

Athletes Who Have Turned Military Coaches Should Not Be Penalized for Their Patriotism.

Whether amateur athletes who have accepted commissions in the Army as directors of camp athletics or have engaged in the war work of the Y. M. C. A. as physical instructors should be permitted to regain their amateur status after the war is a subject which is exciting more and more discussion in athletic circles. Although the list of amateurs who have gone into such work is not large, there is, nevertheless, a feeling that they should not be considered without the pale of amateurism when peace comes.
One of the most important amateurs who has gone into Y. M. C. A. instruction work is E. H. Goulding, the champion Canadian walker, who held several American walking titles. Goulding was unable to enter the army in Canada, but he did the next best thing when he became a physical instructor for the Y. M. C. A. in England.
Jack Eller, the former Irish-American A. C. hurdles champion, went to France early in the present year as a Y. M. C. A. worker with the American Expeditionary Forces. He has since returned home and has resumed his position with the New York police department.
Under the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union, as they are at present, however, neither Goulding nor Eller may compete again as amateurs, because neither they nor any amateur athletes who have gone into the services of the Y. M. C. A. or the War or Navy Department, Commissioned Training Camp activities have done so with the purpose of making it their life work. For the most part they have been actuated by motives quite patriotic as if they had gone into the ranks and carried on in the front-line trenches.
The Amateur Athletic Union could well afford to declare that its rules stood suspended in the cases of all registered amateurs who were in the services of the Y. M. C. A. or the War or Navy Department. Certainly the number of men affected is so small that no harm could come to the association, nor could it be made the basis for unjust criticism.

O'CONNELL VISITS PORTLAND

Former Multnomah Instructor Tells of Work at Eugene.

Eddie O'Connell, former boxing and wrestling instructor at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, who is now connected with the physical education department of the University of Oregon, was a Portland visitor yesterday.
Athletics is playing a big part in the Student Army Training Corps at the Eugene institution. Four new volleyball nets have been strung up on the tennis courts for the students and soccer games are being arranged as part of the athletic program, according to O'Connell. Cage ball, boxing, wrestling, swimming, fencing and other branches of athletic activities will come in for their share.
Plans are now being laid for a pentathlon meet for the entire camp to be run off at the end of the season. Every S. A. T. C. man will take an active part.
O'Connell is receiving many valuable pointers in his new line of endeavor from Bill Hayward, who returned recently from the vicinity of Yodel Canyon, where he enjoyed some good fishing.

Famous "Steam Roller" Aggregation Runs Up High Scores.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 26.—Georgia Tech's new "steam roller" has been sent against three foes so far in 1918 and has established an amazing result in point scoring.
The new eleven which Coach John W. Heisman has welded together from two 1917 regulars and nine "green" players so far has made a record that overshadows even the remarkable performance of the championship eleven of a year ago. Up to the present the Georgia Tech has played three games with this result:
Georgia Tech 25, Clemson 0.
Georgia Tech 13, Furman 0.
Georgia Tech 13, Fort Oglethorpe's (11th Cavalry) 0.
That makes a total of 25 points in three contests—an average of almost 8 2/3 points per game.
