

UNPatriotic Aliens Are Being Listed

Cancellation of Citizenship Papers May Embarrass.

DEPORTATION IS FAVORED

State Council of Defense Making Permanent Record of All Who Adopt Plan.

Unpleasant results will be experienced by something like 45 foreign-born residents of Oregon who have canceled declarations of intention to become American citizens. In fact, most of these men have already undergone unpleasant experiences because of their unpatriotic moves.

It was stated yesterday by a Government official that, almost without exception, the aliens who have turned their backs on American citizenship, usually to evade military service, have been discharged by their employers.

But the future holds further humiliations for the men who have placed selfish interests above patriotic duty and gratitude for opportunities the United States has afforded them in cooperation with the United States Naturalization Bureau and selective service executives, the State Council of Defense is making a permanent record of the aliens who have renounced forever the privilege of obtaining American citizenship.

Permanent Record Kept. The histories of the aliens who have canceled their papers are going into permanent records which will be filed with every State Council of Defense and every naturalization office in the United States. The obvious object in doing this is to make it impossible for any of the men to ask again for citizenship after the war, or at any time.

Deportation back to their homelands may be the fate of the recalcitrants, naturalization officers favoring such procedure. This can be brought about only by enactments by Congress. That such measures may be passed is considered probable by officials.

The Council of Defense, explains John K. Kollock, executive secretary, has not completed compilation of the list of all aliens who have canceled their papers. It released for publication yesterday the names thus far verified and entered in the permanent record being made.

The record shows that Swedes lead in the matter of relinquishing first papers, thereby automatically receiving exemption from possible military service. Fifteen men of this nationality have been listed. Next are Austrians, and five from Norway have been reported.

Names and addresses of the men, grouped by nationality, follow: Sweden—Anton Bauman, Beaverton; Adolf Benson, 92 North Seventeenth; Charles Carlson, 251 Couch; Charles K. Danielson, 635 Sawyer street; Gustaf Fred Gustafson, 221 Burnside street; John M. Johnson, Bend; Adolph Johnson, 720 East Seventy-second; Emanuel Johnson, 221 Burnside street; Gustaf Kringsman, Bend; Carl T. O. 1185 Greley street; August Magnusson, Escalon, Cal.; Gustaf Emerick Nelson, Escalon street; Anton Berglund, 212 First street; Jacob Schaffer, 204 1/2 Second street; Norway—Alfred Johnson, 212 West Park street; Anton Berglund, 655 Planders street; Amanda Olson, 1440 Third street; Ole House, city; Olof Toland, 1014 North Third street.

Switzerland—Fred Ault, Amity; Carl Beza, Beaverton; Ernest Gilmer, Tillamook; Joseph Grossman, Blaine; Herman Graber, city; John Laugher, Astoria street; Holland—Alvin Gabel, Pendleton; Cornelius Nieuwerf, 582 Boise street; Sebastian Trapp, Pendleton.

Spain—Augustine Anacabe, Pendleton; Jose I. Laguardia, 1140 Grand avenue, San Francisco; Pedro Rodriguez, Or.; Ramon Zabala, Andrews, Or.

Four Boards Report

This initial list embraces reports from four State Council boards and from about 20 per cent of the boards out in the state, with a few additions made by the Portland Naturalization Bureau. Numerous other boards and an occasional Russian have sought to take the same step. Through mistakes of draft officials some cancellations for these men, both citizens and alien subjects, and therefore not neutral in the war, have been effected.

W. Tomlinson, naturalization examiner in this district, has devoted much time to investigation of citizenship withdrawals. While he has encountered suspicious circumstances, indicating concerted action and agitation for renunciation of citizenship, he is not ready to divulge his findings. He does speak out, however, against Socialism and foreign-language gatherings as contributing causes.

"Many of the men who have renounced the privilege, however, become American citizens," said Mr. Tomlinson, "are found to be Socialists or to have Socialist friends. In a majority of cases the men seem to have acted on the advice and prompting of someone else."

"Foreign-language talkers should be watched quite closely. Such speakers are still running at large, and I believe they often spread the poison of their doctrines against citizenship. The cancellation of papers has slowed down materially the last two or three weeks. I attribute this partly to the prompt action of employers in dropping the undesirable from their payrolls the minute they learn of the unpatriotic act of the employe."

Fishermen Are Disappointed

"Fishermen and shipyard workers and others who have been drawing fat war-time wages are especially not back when they discover that they cannot fatten their bank accounts at the expense of good American citizens. The fishermen at Astoria and along the Columbia, it is claimed, in many instances have absolutely commercialized their citizenship claims and have even boasted of the fact. These took out first papers purposely that they might get fishermen's permits."

Some of the aliens withdrawing their papers have had the advice and assistance of attorneys, declares Mr. Kollock. Investigations are in progress and he promises that the Council of Defense will "make it hot for any persons who have contributed to the anti-citizenship agitation."

PIONEER STOCKMAN DEAD

EDWIN P. CLAY BORN IN OREGON IN 1865.

Death Occurred at Chinook, Mont., Although Mr. Clay's Home Was in Billings.

Late Edwin P. Clay, prominent stockman, whose death occurred October 10.

Edwin P. Clay, prominent stockman and native of Oregon, who died in Chinook, Mont., October 10, was widely known in this state. He was born in Reedville, Or., March 14, 1865, but spent the greater part of his life in Portland.

In 1888 he was married to Edith C. Thomas and returned to Portland, where he was in the meat business for several years. He then went to Forsyth, Mont., as foreman for Rea Bros. Sheep Company. He spent the last six years of his life at Billings, Mont., where he was engaged in buying and shipping sheep for several firms.

He was a charter member of W. O. W. Camp No. 65, of Portland.

Besides his widow, Edith C. Clay, of Oswego, Or., he is survived by a sister, Alice Clay Gibbs, of Portland.

DAUGHTER OF PIONEER DIES

Mrs. J. W. Cruthers Passed Away in Portland October 24.

Mrs. J. W. Cruthers, whose death occurred in Portland October 24, was the daughter of early Oregon pioneers, Johnson and Susan Mulkey, who came across the plains from Kentucky and Missouri in 1845.

Johnson Mulkey, the father, was captain of one of the first settlers' trains made up of members of the Christian Church.

Mrs. Cruthers, formerly Frances T. Mulkey, was born at Corvallis, Or., in 1845, soon after the parents took up their residence on the Mulkey donation land claim, near Corvallis. She grew to young womanhood in that community. Her ability in music brought her into prominence and gave her the position of instructor in the school of music at Corvallis College, the South Methodist institution which was the beginning of the Oregon Agricultural College.

Mrs. Cruthers is survived by two sons and one daughter, born of her first marriage. They are Marshall E. and Charles Armstrong, and Augusta Armstrong, all residents of Seattle.

Funeral services were conducted at the Portland Crematorium by Dr. A. A. Morrison at 3 o'clock, October 26. Interment will be at Pomeroy, Wash.

BANK ROBBERY LOSS PLACED AT $18,500

Reward of $500 Offered for Apprehension of Thief.

ARTHUR DAVIS IS SOUGHT

Suspect Informs Young Wife to Communicate With Him Through Personal Columns of Press.

An exact check on the losses of the East Side Bank of Portland, which Arthur C. Davis, 109 East Thirtieth street North, is accused of robbing, placed the loss at $18,500, about $2500 more than the bank officials first reported missing. Davis was a bookkeeper in the bank.

The missing funds consist of $1500 in silver, $6000 in currency, $1000 in gold and $10,000 in liberty bonds. Half of the liberty bonds were the property of the bank, and the rest had been left there for safe keeping by depositors. The missing clerk, Arthur Davis, had not been arrested at a late hour last night, although police had accumulated additional evidence that he was the robber. H. H. Newhall, president of the bank, has identified the wrappers around the packages of bills which Mrs. Davis returned as stolen property. The bank did not have the numbers of the bills, which had been accepted by the cashier and wrapped in $500 packages.

Davis Seen by Worker

Martin Lundeen, a fireman in the Supple & Ballin shipyard, told the police yesterday that he had seen Davis coming out of the bank with his arms full of packages at 5:40 A. M. Friday. Lundeen said he had worked with Davis, and knew him personally.

Police regard this as fixing the time of the robbery, and are inclined to believe that the thief had planned every move. By going to the bank early in the morning instead of at the usual time, the ordinary thief would have done, he avoided suspicion by persons who saw him there. Lundeen said Davis put the packages in an automobile and drove away.

This time tallies with Mrs. Davis' story that her husband went out early in the morning, returning about 7 o'clock for breakfast. Inspectors Coleman, Morak, Hyde and Abbott learned yesterday that Davis had told his wife to communicate with him in the first of every month through the personal columns in The Oregonian.

Young Wife is Prostrated. Mrs. Davis was prostrated when police told her that her husband was accused of robbery. The young couple had been married only two years and have one child 14 months old. Rev. C. Howard Davis, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene and father of the missing bank clerk, expressed hope that the boy would be captured.

"That money will do him no good," the old man said. "I hope they get him and take it away from him."

Rev. Mr. Davis secured $1500 which his son had given his wife and returned it to the bank. He has given the authorities every assistance in his power.

Police believe that the father inspired a "personal" in the newspapers yesterday, signed "Iona," his daughter-in-law's name. "Please communicate with Iona at once," the advertisement said.

Bank Offers $500 Reward. In view of the fact that young Davis told his wife to communicate with him in this manner, it is believed that the father is trying to get in touch with his son and have him make restitution.

H. H. Newhall, president of the bank, yesterday offered a reward of $500 for the capture of Arthur Davis. Ten per cent of all the missing funds recovered will be given to the person who makes the arrest, making a total reward of $250 for the arrest of the clerk and return of the missing money. The percentage is only $175, because $1500 of the funds were returned.

Police got out circulars bearing young Davis' picture yesterday. The circulars will be sent all over the United States and Canada.

Davis was only 29 years old. He had

McARTHUR'S RECORD

Stands "Acid Test" of Americanism

REGARDS WELFARE OF COUNTRY PARAMOUNT TO PARTISAN POLITICS

C. N. McARTHUR Congressman From Third Oregon District, Candidate for Re-election

"Pledges Continued Support of America's Great Task—The Prosecution of the War to a Victorious Peace" and a Sane Preparation for Reconstruction Problems.

The record of Congressman McArthur shows that in all National concerns he has had a correct comprehension of his duty, and in state and district affairs he has been alert and efficient. He was one of the first men in Congress to sense the danger which threatened the country because of the war-mad policy of the Kaiser, and took advanced ground on war preparedness long before it was popular. He has given the President hearty and competent support in all war measures, and throughout the whole trying period of pre-war agitation and war preparation he has measured up to all loyal expectations. He is straight and true in his Americanism. His record calls for no explanations; there are no quibbles, no evasions, no squinting at the pacifist or disloyal partments that her husband has been appointed a Lieutenant in the Railway Engineers, his commission dating from September 13. Lieutenant Judson, former civil engineer here for the Northern Pacific, entered the Army as a private a year ago.

Boy Shoots Off His Fingers. CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Alonso Smith, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, met with a serious accident while out hunting. The boy raised his gun to shoot at some birds and, as he pulled the trigger, the barrel flew off, driving the bullet sideways and shooting off his first finger and the second finger at the first joint.

New Warehouse Erected. WHITE SALMON, Wash., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Dan Wulle & Co., Limited, of England, have erected, at Lyle, a frost-proof inter-locking tile fruit storage warehouse, to properly care for the fast increasing fruit crops of this district. With two warehouses in the Hood River Valley and one at White Salmon, they are enabled to handle a large quantity of boxed fruit. Their interests locally are under the management of A. E. Woolpert of White Salmon.

Three Runaway Girls Captured. CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Three girls who escaped from the State School for Girls at Grand Mound were captured by Dr. A. P. Davis, of Tenino, and returned to the school. The runaways stopped the physician and asked for a ride. Suspecting that they were fugitives, Dr. Davis drove rapidly to the school, arriving at which one of the girls leaped from the machine and again escaped. She was caught later.

To the Women of Oregon:

When Oswald West was Governor of Oregon he had the courage and breadth to aid powerfully in securing the adoption of equal suffrage, state-wide prohibition, prison reform, widows' pensions, industrial welfare for employed women and workmen's compensation.

The causes in which women are vitally interested will always have his active support, regardless of political favor or disapproval, because he believes they are right.

His election as United States Senator from Oregon next Tuesday will be no less a victory for the women of this state than for himself and for all citizens interested in state and National welfare.

Not as Democrats, not as Republicans, not as Prohibitionists—not in any partisan way—but as loyal Americans, we, the undersigned, voluntarily and most earnestly solicit your votes for Mr. West:
