

WAGE RISES MAY GO TO POSTMASTER-GENERAL

Phone Company Continues Testimony Before Board.

REVENUE DATA SUBMITTED

J. C. Nowell Testifies as to Need of Company for Increasing Rates for Service in Oregon.

Whether the increase in wages for Oregon employees of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company will be maintained, if the Oregon Public Service Commission should not approve an increase in telephone rates, must be decided by the Postmaster-General.

This was the inference of J. C. Nowell, general manager of the telephone company, testifying yesterday at the hearing before the Public Service Commission in Portland.

The hearing, which was held in the county courthouse, was on the application of the company to increase rates. The commission's proceedings began Thursday. The company contends that the wage rise is dependent upon the granting of an increase in its rates.

Mr. Nowell states the following condition has been added to the armistice agreement:

"The supreme command of the allies requests the armistice to consider this advisable, and in order to obtain fresh guarantees, to occupy the neutral zone on the right bank of the Rhine north of the Cologne bridgehead as far as the Dutch frontier. Notice of this occupation will be given six days previously."

Marshal Foch has announced in behalf of Herbert C. Hoover, the American Food Administrator, that 2,500,000 tons of cargo space lying in German harbors must be placed under the control of the allies to supply Germany with foodstuffs. The ships are to remain German property.

WAGE INCREASE TEMPORARY

"All the authority I have is an order to put in an increase of rates temporarily," said General Manager Nowell, in answer to a question propounded by Commissioner Buchtel. "Beyond that there is nothing upon which to base an opinion. That word 'temporarily' sounds ominous to me."

"Is there not some other method than an increased rate, whereby the higher wage might be paid?" asked Mr. Buchtel, to which Mr. Nowell replied:

"There would be only one method other than increasing rates for service in Oregon. That would be to endeavor to have some of the other states in which we have applications pending, permit establishing rates high enough to make up the difference. That would hardly be equitable or fair. The deficit in the state of Oregon before the war, was the telephone system, I believe it is insisted that the revenue earned in each state be adequate to pay the expenses of operation within the state."

DEATH DUE TO SCALDING

Bathroom Mishap Proves Fatal to Lawrence F. Lamping.

Lawrence Forsythe Lamping, 49, local manager of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company, of London, who died in Mountain View sanitarium, December 10, came to his death as the result of being scalded accidentally while taking a bath, according to a report issued yesterday. He died within two hours after being scalded.

Mr. Lamping was alone in his bathroom when the accident happened. It is believed that the steam from the hot water filled the room so that he stumbled against the tub and fell into it.

Mr. Lamping was born in Indiana and came to Oregon in 1892. He has been in the Northwest for 25 years. He is survived by a widow and one daughter, his mother, a sister, and four brothers.

Chart Is Introduced.

Developments in the hearing yesterday indicated that it will be well along in January before the decision may be expected from the Public Service Commission. The insurance business to be introduced by the company was laid in the introduction of a chart showing the valuation of plant, revenue derived under present rates and that estimated for 1919, under proposed rates; expenses and net revenues; 27 exhibits consisting of statistical tabulations to confirm the figures and a copy of the contract between the United States and the company.

It appears that the testimony of the company in support of the application may occupy all of Monday and perhaps Tuesday. The postponement to a date when the protests may be heard will depend upon the time when the company officials can again appear. There are hearings scheduled in California, and one in Washington is set for January 26. Probably a hearing will be held at some central point, at which the testimony of witnesses from Corvallis, Eugene, Albany and other key points will be taken, the last of this week or first of next. So it is probable that the resumption of the case at Portland may be delayed to the first week of January.

Quick Action Desired.

However, while the company officials and counsel are busy in California and Washington the experts of the Public Service Commission will check up on the testimony and data submitted. All concerned expressed the wish to prosecute the hearing as rapidly as possible.

L. C. Phelps, general auditor, was called to the stand to verify the authenticity of the statistics embodied in the exhibits.

PLEDGES TO BE AUCTIONED

Diamonds, Firearms, Etc., to Be Sold by Loan Association.

Loans aggregating $122,554.16 have been made by the Portland Remedial Loan Association during its existence of nearly five years. At this amount there is at present outstanding $70,788.69. There has accumulated in the period some $10,000 worth of articles, including diamonds, firearms, machinery and all sorts of personal belongings that will now be sold to redeem the loans. The sale will be held Tuesday, December 17, in the store room at 139 Tenth street, between Washington and Alder, and John T. Wilson will be the auctioneer.

GASOLINE TAX IS FAVORED

Newberg Meeting Goes on Record for Improved Highways.

NEWBERG, Or. Dec. 14.—(Special).—A good roads meeting, called by John U. Smith, chairman of a committee appointed to promote a hard-surfaced road from Newberg to Carlton by West Chehalis, today adopted resolutions endorsing Senator Vinton's proposed tax on gasoline, increase of the auto-license tax, a moderate tax on other vehicles, and a tax on the benefits derived by good roads. The meeting also favored issuing of bonds by the state to meet the proposed $1,000,000 Federal appropriation. A committee is to be appointed to solicit voluntary subscriptions to assist the county in preparing the road from Newberg to Carlton, a distance of 21 miles. Hard surfacing, provided the Legislature will put the road on the state highway map.

ROSCOE GILTNER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Lawyer Wins Fame in Oregon Criminal Courts.

CITY SERVICE IS RECALLED

Attorney Prominent in Elks' Circles and Life Member of Multnomah Athletic Club.

Roscoe Rush Giltner, 61, well-known Portland attorney, died at 7:15 o'clock last night at his home, 647 Siskiyou street, after an illness of six weeks. He was a son of the late Dr. Jacob S. Giltner and Martha M. Giltner, both Portland pioneers. Death was caused by blood poisoning following inoculation to prevent Spanish influenza.

Mr. Giltner was born in Northumberland County, Pa., October 25, 1857. He came to Oregon in the Summer of 1866 with his parents and had lived in Portland ever since. He was educated in the public schools of the city and after a preparatory course at Hopkins Grammar School in New Haven, Conn., he entered Yale University and was graduated in 1881. He studied law with the late Richard Williams and the late Governor W. W. Thayer. He was admitted to the bar of Oregon in 1884.

Mr. Giltner was elected City Attorney in 1894 and was the first City Attorney to occupy the offices in the new City Hall building. During that year he formed a partnership with Russell E. Sewall, which had continued until his death.

He was Chief Deputy Prosecuting Attorney from 1898 to 1900, during which time he conducted some of the most important criminal trials in the history of the county. He convicted the famous outlaw, Harry Tracy, and caused him to be sent to the Oregon Penitentiary. Another famous trial he handled was the McDaniel murder case.

Mr. Giltner married Miss Fronia Wallace, of Cottage Grove, Or., in 1892. He is survived by his widow and two sisters, Mrs. Emma Giltner White, and Mrs. Vincent Cook, and a brother, Frank Fayrest Giltner, all of Portland. He also leaves two nephews, Eugene Giltner White, and John Rush Giltner, and a niece, Mrs. Edna Giltner Pease.

Mr. Giltner was a life member of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club and a member of the Elks.

He was reputed one of the best trial lawyers in Portland.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed. The funeral will be held at the family residence, probably tomorrow.

ALLIES EXTEND ARMISTICE

RIGHT TO OCCUPY NEUTRAL ZONE IS RESERVED.

Ships in German Harbors Must Be Turned Over to Allies to Carry Food.

(By the Associated Press.)
COPENHAGEN, Friday, Dec. 13.—The German armistice has been extended until 5 o'clock on the morning of January 17, and the allies have notified Germany that they reserve the right to occupy the neutral zone east of the Rhine from the Cologne bridgehead to the Dutch frontier, according to a dispatch from Trier.

Marshal Foch states the following condition has been added to the armistice agreement:

"The supreme command of the allies requests the armistice to consider this advisable, and in order to obtain fresh guarantees, to occupy the neutral zone on the right bank of the Rhine north of the Cologne bridgehead as far as the Dutch frontier. STOCK SHOW HOME URGED

DRIVE TO BE CONDUCTED TO SECURE FUNDS FOR BUILDINGS.

All Sections of State Will Be Involved During Campaign Now Being Outlined.

Permanent buildings costing no less than $200,000, to house the 1919 show, and thorough-going stimulation of the livestock industry of the entire Northwest—these are the two big objectives set before the new Pacific International Livestock Exposition directors by O. M. Plummer, manager.

An innovation in the way of raising building and expense funds, which will aggregate $250,000 to $400,000, has been conceived—an innovation, so far as regards such an enterprise. It is intended to formulate and conduct a subscription campaign on exactly the same lines as employed in war drives.

The exposition organization will open an office tomorrow in the Northwestern Bank building, room 431. This will be made the headquarters for all livestock men and organizations of Portland territory.

In a few weeks plans for the subscription drive to obtain funds to erect a permanent home for the annual show will be matured. The brunt of the drive, says Mr. Plummer, will fall upon Oregon. The state will be organized with all the necessary machinery of county and town chairmen, managers and solicitors. It is probable that the outer-state districts will be canvassed first.

Recommendations to Wait.

SALEM, Or. Dec. 14.—(Special).—Recommendations as to prospective school legislation will not be made by Superintendent Churchill until after he confers with the county superintendents, who will meet here December 20, Mr. Churchill said today. The superintendents meet here at this time to be in session a week for the purpose of grading papers. He will not only confer with them as to matters of general school administration policy, but also relative to what changes they deem wise and expedient in the school laws.

Sheriff Makes Sale.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 14.—(Special).—The assets of the National Homebuilding Company, which recently went into bankruptcy, were sold by Sheriff Biesecker at Sheriff's sale today, and were bought by Clement Scott, manager of the Red Ash Coal Company, of Vancouver. The assets were valued at $18,000, which included buildings, stock and machinery. The sum of $8000 was the purchase price. What will be done with the plant has not yet been made public.

Lime Board to Investigate.

SALEM, Or. Dec. 14.—(Special).—Before the Legislature is asked for more funds for the State Lime Board an agent will be sent among the farmers to determine whether there is any demand for lime. Chairman A. E. Cordley and E. G. Leedy, of Corvallis, were named as a committee to have charge of the investigation. Warden Stevens was named as secretary of the board.

Every Week For a Dozen Years Past I Have Preached Dentistry to You!

DR. E. G. AUSPUND, MGR.
My Practice is Limited to High-Class Dentistry Only.

DO YOU BELIEVE ME—OR DO YOU THINK IT'S ALL BUNK?

Very few people dispute the gospel, the great majority believe themselves Christians; yet eloquent ministers preach from thousands of pulpits every week to THE SINNERS STILL UNCONVINCED.

The greatest honor we can bestow upon an American is to make him President. We have all read the names of the various men who have filled the Presidential chair, and yet I dare say 50 per cent of the people cannot today name half the Presidents, state their politics or when they served.

Advertising, with rare exceptions, is forgotten quickly, if allowed to lapse. It is much like washing dishes—you must do it over and over if you keep on eating.

There are hundreds who read my advertisements who have never been in my office; some because they have their own dentists; some because they imagine it is wrong to patronize an advertising dentist, and still others who do not believe in my skill or my sincerity.

These are the people I want to reach—these are the people I want to CONVINCED that I can save them time, pain and money; that the service rendered patients in this office is equal to and often superior to that rendered in the higher-priced "ethical" offices; that good judgment and economy beckon them to my office—and only prejudice holds them back.

That is why I am preaching this "lay sermon" every week—it is the only way to prove my faith in myself and the public.

Look, Mother! If Tongue is Coated, cleanse the liver and bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if the tongue is coated; this is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels need attention at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, "stuffy" with cold, throat sore; when the child has tainted breath and doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, or has stomach-ache or diarrhea, remember a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the waste-matter, sour bile and fermenting food clogged in the bowels pass out of the system, and you have a healthy and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "Fruit Laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside cleansing." Directions for babies, children of all ages, and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the first treatment given.

Look for name "California." Accept no Fig Syrup but "California."—Adv.
