Welfare Workers Confer at Luncheon at Y. W. C. A.
A luncheon Friday at the Y. W. C. A., at which representatives of various welfare organizations met to consider plans for a new programme of readjustment, a new committee was formed which will outline a definite co-operative work for the betterment of conditions among the girls and women of the city during the coming period of readjustment after the war.

Welfare Workers Confer at Luncheon at Y. W. C. A.
The Woodlawn Red Cross unit will meet Monday from 7 o'clock until 8. A full attendance is desired as there is a great deal of work to be completed before the holiday season.

The local association has five workers now in the city who are in daily touch with almost every other welfare organization in the city some of which are: the Women's Protective Bureau, the Public Welfare Department, Rescue Homes, Salvation Army, Home of the Good Shepherd, Florence Critchden Home, the baby home, Juvenile Court, Boys' and Girls' Aid Society and schools of all kinds. New plans for active work in doing definite follow-up service to keep in touch with girls who have been properly placed by the Y. W. C. A., are under consideration.

Others giving their time at Liberty Temple are: Mrs. A. R. Innes, assistant city manager; Mrs. M. R. Whitehead, in charge of supplies; Mrs. Fred Doss, assistant; Miss Hazel Carnes, supervisor of clerical work; Mrs. Ella M. Travers, stenographer; Mrs. E. Slater, stenographer; Miss Marie C. Dooley, stenographer. Several girls from the commercial schools are also giving their time. Mrs. Frank I. Jones will check up receipts from the solicitors each day. Mrs. F. J. Jones, assistant.

The Navy and Marine Club will meet at the East Side Business Men's Club Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock to sew on hospital garments.

The Red Cross Auxiliary, of the First Methodist Church, has undertaken a large amount of sewing and knitting for American soldiers and French and Belgian refugees. This auxiliary also maintains a dormitory for soldiers who wish to stay in town Saturday nights.

The regular meeting of the War Auxiliaries central committee will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in room 201, Courthouse.

The auxiliary to Company B, 162d Infantry, will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in room 301, Courthouse.

Girls of the E. T. C. Club who did some worthy relief work at Thanksgiving in providing for needy persons are expecting to do the same work at Christmas time and will appreciate donations of food and clothing for this work. Anyone wishing to assist may telephone Miss Mitchell at Main 7876.

Miss Helen Pearce, of Salem, Or., who has been in the Portland association for some time taking the secretarial training course, will take charge of the employment department.

Miss Elinor Ewing, a Reed College girl, and Miss Carrie Reynolds, of Walla Walla, are taking the training course in the association for secretarial work.

Members of Harmony Red Cross unit are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Stephens, 1427 Knowles street, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Schilke, of La Grande, Those in attendance at the luncheon state president of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, spent several days in Portland last week conferring with representatives of the State Teachers' Association, making final arrangements for the joint conference of the Mothers' Congress and the Teachers' Association, which will be held December 27 and 28.

Holman Parent-Teacher circle will meet Tuesday at 3:15. Miss Loebberg, of the South Portland Branch Library, will talk on Christmas books for children and Miss Aileen Brong will speak on the food situation.

COL. LEADER TO REMAIN
Member of University Faculty to Instruct Military Classes.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Colonel John Leader, late of the Royal Irish Rifles, former commandant of the state officers' training camp, will remain as a member of the university faculty next term. He will instruct in military history, military science and will assist in the foreign trade course on commercial relations with the Orient and the life and history of their people. He will also devote some time to extension work, filling the requests that come to him from all over the state for lectures.

The remainder of his time he will give to the promotion of intra-mural athletics.

School Publication Resumed.
ALBANY, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Students of the Albany High School have resumed the publication of The Whirlwind, a monthly paper published at the school the past few years. Miss Adena Perfect is editor of the paper this year and Miss Gertrude Braden, assistant. The business manager is Harold Irvine and the subscription manager is Miss Lucille Longbottom.

H. B. Cusick Holds Many Honors.
ALBANY, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Harry B. Cusick, City Treasurer of Albany and cashier of the bank of J. W. Cusick & Co., in this city, is probably treasurer of more organizations than any man in the state. Besides having handled the city funds for many years, he is treasurer of Laurel lodge, No. 7, Knights of Pythias; Temple Commandery, No. 3, Knights Templar; Bayley Chapter, No. 8, Royal Arch Masons; the Albany lodge of Elks, the Albany Rod and Gun Club, the Albany Round-up Association, the Pheasants, a local club, and other lesser local organizations. In addition, he has served as treasurer in some of the patriotic drives, being at this time treasurer of the Red Cross Christmas rollcall drive in this county.

KLAMATH HAS INQUIRIES
Influx of Settlers to Agricultural Lands Seems Assured.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—A large number of eyes now are turned in the direction of Klamath Falls and Klamath County and more inquiries are being received regarding a future location here than ever before, according to Captain C. C. Applegate, in charge of the correspondence for the Klamath Commercial Club.

Captain Applegate is of the opinion that there will be a tremendous influx of settlers to Klamath. The big irrigation projects now started assure big agricultural development because low-priced lands and assured crops are bound to attract farmers. The woodwork industry has a payroll in the county which exceeds $250,000.

Silverton Soldier Funeral Today.
SILVERTON, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—The body of Ben Tokstad, who died at Fort McPherson December 4, reached here last evening, and the funeral will be held from the United Lutheran Church Sunday afternoon. Ben Tokstad enlisted in the Army at Vancouver, Wash., in November, 1917, and was almost immediately sent to Augusta, Ga. He has been sick most of the time since he entered the service. He was 23 years old.

Lebanon Drive Opens Monday.
LEBANON, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—The membership drive for the Red Cross will start in Lebanon Monday. Mrs. A. H. Ross is chairman of the district. She has appointed an assistant in every community and they expect to close the drive in a week.
