The news of the engagement of Miss Blanche Lillian Kaplan, of San Francisco, to N. Mosesohn, formerly of this city, now of New York, came as a delightful surprise to their friends in this city. Miss Kaplan is a daughter of Rev. Dr. B. M. Kaplan and the late Mrs. Kaplan, and she is considered one of the most brilliant young pianists in this section.

Mr. Mosesohn is the youngest son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. N. Mosesohn, and while in this city he was prominent in Jewish and civic affairs. He is a graduate of the law department of the University of Oregon and a Phi Delta Phi man. He left here early last January to become executive director and counsel of the United Waist League of America, with headquarters in New York. He also is a National counselor of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and he is secretary of the war service committee of the War Industries Board. The wedding probably will be an event of the early part of 1919.

Miss Joan Hardcastle Harrison has just returned from an extended period of study at Denishawn School of Dancing in Los Angeles, and she has been made Northwestern representative for Ruth St. Denis, the well-known exponent of interpretative and classic dancing.

Miss Virginia Menefee, much feted bride-elect, will be the honoree for a tea to be given tomorrow by Miss Charlotte Breyman and Miss Ruth Shall. The wedding probably will be a luncheon on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Edwards were dinner hosts Friday evening in honor of M. Shigemitsu, of the Japanese consular service. Last night Mrs. J. B. Montgomery also entertained the distinguished visitor with dinner.

Celebrating their wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dougherty entertained with an informal dance Saturday evening at the Multnomah Hotel. Twenty of the younger married set and a number of Army men were included in the guest list.

Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Whitley, in Salt Lake City, is expected to return to Portland about the middle of this week.

Mrs. Ray W. Matson and Miss Louise Poulsen left the latter part of last week for New York, where they will spend several months. Mrs. Matson has been appointed on the staff of canteen workers on the docks and railroads at New York and she will assume her duties in that capacity upon her arrival in the East. Her husband, Major Matson, is at present in France and upon his return to Portland she will accompany him.

Lieutenant and Mrs. MacCormac snow, who have been making their home in Camp Lewis since their marriage, have returned to Portland and are at present visiting Mrs. Snow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lambert. Lieutenant Snow is one of the recent group of officers to be released from service.

The girls who comprise Unit No. 1 of the American Committee for Devastated France have adopted the plan of giving a series of dances to make their unit self-supporting. The first dance of this series was held Saturday night at Cottillon hall, and the unit cleared $399, a fifth of which was used to purchase materials to carry on the making of garments for the Belgian and French people, and a check for $150 was sent direct to France to the committee there which is carrying on the work with the assistance of the United States.

Miss Marian Schafer is chairman of Unit 1, and the girls meet once a week to sew for the French and Belgian refugees at the University Club. Their next dance will be on January 5, in Cottillon hall, and they plan to give one each month thereafter.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jack Slater, who soon will leave for Klamath Falls, where the former will be connected with the Klamath Falls Packing Company, Miss Lulu Hagen, sister of Mrs. Slater, entertained with a supper-dance at her home in Irvington on Saturday evening. The 2d Regiment Transportation Band played for the dancers and a buffet supper was served. The guest list included: Captain and Mrs. Paul Coker, Captain and Mrs. J. Dorn, Lieutenant and Mrs. Thomas Burley, Lieutenant and Mrs. T. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rollinson, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Roe, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tardiff, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Yelding, Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Young, Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Warren, Lieutenant and Mrs. Thomas Forman, Misses Mae Blackman, Katherine and Louise Daughtrey, Louise Daughtrey, Ruth

One of the most recent duties assumed by the National League for Women's Service is the City of Portland's Christmas celebration which will be held at the Liberty Temple on Christmas eve. Beginning with Tuesday, the league will have members on hand at the Temple to receive the gifts that the philanthropic Portland folk wish to donate for the big tree for the children in the city who will not otherwise be visited by good old Santa Claus. Everyone is urged to send at least one gift to the Temple for the children.

The league assisted materially in the sale of tickets for the shipyard workers' benefit put on at the Heilig Thursday night for the benefit of the Salvation Army Christmas fund. The league members sold tickets all day

Thursday in the hotels, shops, and office buildings for the benefit. Mrs. C. E. Simmons was chairman of the group of workers, and the following captains with their teams worked very efficiently: Mrs. Alvin Richards, Mrs. Robert Farrell, Mrs. S. M. Unander, Mrs. Florence Sturdevant, Mrs. Ralph Tomlinson, and Mrs. George McLeod.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Geer were delightfully surprised Saturday evening by a number of their old time friends who called, supplied with well laden baskets of supper. The table was soon made ready for 17 self-invited guests. This was the second annual surprise given Mr. and Mrs. Geer by the same old friends.

The evening was delightfully passed with reminiscences of "Auld Lang Syne," as most of those present have been life-long friends. The writings of Sam Simpson were discussed and several of his poems read by Colonel Robert Miller. J. D. Lee gave Indian lore
