if you wish to touch your fair lady's heart and vanity.

Of course, you must draw the distinction between so-called furs and FURS that will give her the pleasure and that air of ease and satisfaction.

Our label in a garment carries a prestige with it, which bespeaks distinction and subdued elegance, and yet they cost no more than the inferior kind.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. C. Sorenson, of Oregon City, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, Friday, at the home of their youngest daughter, Mrs. Alzona Moore, at Multnomah, Or.

The house was beautifully decorated in a yellow color scheme. Yellow chrysanthemums were the flowers which were used. During the evening a number of friends and relatives called to offer their congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson were married 50 years ago in Denmark, coming to this country 20 years ago. They have lived in Oregon City for the last 19 years.

There are nine children living, six of whom were present at the celebration. Mrs. John Kure, of Lyle, Wash.; Mrs. O. Torjussen, of Oregon City; George Sorenson, of Astoria; V. Sorenson, of Lyle; Mrs. J. B. Clark, of Lyle, and Mrs. A. Moore were the children present. Friday was also the 15th wedding anniversary of the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson, George Sorenson, of Astoria.

Mrs. Harrison M. Ogden entertained the sisters of the Eastern Star on Wednesday in the "Woodland" cottage at Seaside, where a pleasant afternoon was spent in Red Cross sewing and Christmas work. Refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mesdames O. F. Godfrey, W. H. Moore, Fred Moore, Thomas A. McKay, Ed Rollins, David Henshaw, E. J. Hurd, R. A. Price, Brownrig, McArdus, Carter, F. A. Leighton, Noble Chamberlin and Gladys, besides the hostess and brothers, W. H. Moore and Harrison M. Ogden. Both of whom are past masters of Washington Lodge No. 46, A. F. and A. M. of Portland.

Liberty Assembly, No. 524, United Artisans, gave its annual masquerade ball in the East Side Woodmen Hall, Wednesday. The hall was crowded and the members of the youngest assembly of the Artisans are highly elated at the success of their first venture.

Misses Dorothy Dyer and Irene Raub entertained Saturday evening at the home of the latter on Wasco street. The
