Mrs. Archie D. Keene (Copia Camp) The Wedding of Whom Has of an Affair of Recent Date

Mrs. Marion A. Bent (Borah Camp) Who Has Just Returned From the East

Miss Edith Camp, Who Accompanied Her Sister on Her Eastern Trip

Nithey, R. H. Noyes, Miss Anna Munty, Captain and Mrs. Cameron Squires, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Coman, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Banks, Mr. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Olmstead, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Swigert, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lothrop, C. W. Reynor, W. D. Pearson and Mrs. Adrian F. McCalm.

Mrs. Andrew P. Porter and daughter, Miss Margaret Porter, will leave early next month for Los Angeles, where Miss Porter will continue her musical studies.

Miss Virginia Menefee, whose wedding will be a charming affair of Monday, December 30, to Varnel D. C. Beach, has been the motif for the greater part of the social functions of the past week. Each day marked some event planned as a courtesy to the charming bride-to-be, luncheons, teas and dinner parties, with an occasional dance and theater party, making the days gala.

Monday Miss Charlotte Breymann entertained for the bride-elect with an informal tea; Tuesday Miss Rhoda Rumelin was a luncheon hostess in her honor; Wednesday Miss Ruth Shull also presided at a luncheon complimentary to Miss Menefee; Thursday she was the guest of honor for a small luncheon at the University Club, presided over by Mrs. Holt Cookingham; Friday Miss Nadine Caswell entertained with a luncheon for Miss Menefee, and last night she was guest of honor with Mr. Beach at one of the many parties at the Waverly Country Club's dinner-dance.

The wedding will be one of the largest and most notable affairs in society. It will be solemnized at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Menefee, Rev. John H. Boyd officiating.

Miss Gladys Ross, fiancée of Captain James Schuyler, U. S. A., who soon will leave for Washington, D. C., where the marriage will be solemnized, was the guest of honor for a charming tea for which Mrs. Carl Wernicke was hostess on Wednesday. About 20 of the closest friends of the bride-elect were asked to share in the gaieties and spend the afternoon.

Miss Helen Teal, of Hood River, has come to Portland to make her home for the rest of the winter. She is domiciled at Alexandra Court.

Miss Marguerite Palitzsch will become the bride of Lieutenant C. H. Siggle, U. S. A., S. P. D., on January 15. It will be a large and notable affair. Mr. Siggle is stationed in the Spruce Production Division at Sedro-Woolley, but will be returned to Vancouver Barracks this week. Miss Palitzsch is a popular young maid, and since the announcement of her engagement last Summer she has been entertained delightfully.

Relatives and friends of the long ago are receiving invitations to the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Anatole Lobe, in San Francisco, January 4. The Lobes lived in Portland for years before moving to San Francisco in the early '90s, and Mr. Lobe is remembered by old residents as one of the few crockery men in the days when Portland was in formation.

A pretty and interesting dancing party, one of the series under the auspices of the War Community Service for the enlisted men, was given by the College Sorority Unit of the National League for Women's Service at the B'nai B'rith Clubhouse Wednesday evening. Mrs. Otto Grice is major of this unit and it entertained about 250, using both the ballroom and the gymnasium for dancing. The beautiful reception room was popular with those who enjoyed card playing, visiting and music. A delightful feature of the evening was the serpentine arranged and directed by M. M. Ringler, assisted by Mrs. Warren Erwin and led by Mayor Baker and Mrs. Grice.

At the close of the evening Warren Erwin, tenor, led the entire assembly in an enthusiastic singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner."

The captains assisting Mrs. Grice were Mary Dunn, Margaret Hawkins, Mildred Broughton, Elsie Lee, Grace

These parties are very popular with the men and the many enthusiastic expressions from them show the appreciation they have for the clean and enjoyable amusement that the War Camp Community Service is providing for them. The parties are given regularly Wednesday and Saturday evenings by different units. Young ladies must either be a member or an invited guest of a member to secure an admittance ticket, but for the men the uniform or discharge papers are the pass.

The War Camp Community Service is making elaborate plans for holiday parties for the enlisted men at their clubhouses on Thirteenth street, near Market. The B'nai B'rith Girls' Club will give a Christmas night party for 200 couples. Today they are giving a hiking party on which they are gathering greens for the decorations of the clubhouse. On their return from the woods they will entertain the entire party with a supper and finish the day in decorating. A huge tree will be erected in the center of the large gymnasium and Christmas night the party will begin with an informal distribution of gifts and playing of games, after which dancing will begin.

The clubrooms, including the reception room, are open every day and evening to the men, and on New Year's night they will be entertained with a dancing party, when Miss Shankland and her Devastated France Unit will again be hostesses.

On Saturday, December 28, Division No. 1, of the Comrades' Club, of which Miss Lottie Hatfield is major, will entertain, assisted by their captains and Miss Alta Inman, commandant of that club.

Albert E. Butterfield, Jr., who has been in the aviation service at Fort Worth, Texas, for the past 18 months, is expected to return to his home tomorrow to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Butterfield.

Coming as a genuine surprise was the marriage of Mrs. Florence W. Pangle and W. H. Pettigrove, which was solemnized Wednesday evening in the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. John H. Boyd officiating. The close
