Mrs. Lynn's McCreedy (Madys Colton Wilkins) of Eugene Who became bride of Army Officer Recently

Mrs. Howard Grotzke (Jeanette Scholberg) Another of the Season's Arrives

Friends of the couple have known for some time of their engagement, but no plans for the marriage had been divulged. Mrs. Pettigrove, who has been advance agent for the Chicago Grand Opera Company, returned Sunday to Portland, and plans for the simple wedding were made. The couple, both of whom are well known in Portland, will make their home at the Multnomah Hotel.

Mrs. Pettigrove has hosts of friends in and around Portland. Mr. Pettigrove is an old-time resident of this city and is connected with the Monarch Mills in North Portland, as manager. He also is popular in citizenship, being a member of a number of the leading social and civic organizations.

Mrs. E. F. Mully has been called to Spokane by the illness of her son, J. W. Mully, who is suffering from an attack of influenza. Mrs. Mully will remain with him until after the holidays. Mrs. Mully's daughter, Mrs. Edgar Anderson, only recently recovered from an illness. Mrs. Anderson is an influential clubwoman, being a member of the board of directors of the Portland Woman's Club and a member of several committees of various organizations.

A merry holiday festivity was the Christmas dance given Friday night at Hill Military Academy, with the faculty and cadet officers as hosts. The ballroom was bright with garlands of evergreen, holly and Christmas decorations. After the dance a pleasant and delightful surprise was given the guests when a Christmas tree was wheeled into the room and dainties were distributed to all the girls, numbering about 60, of the sub-debutante set. Supper was served in the billiard room.

Patrons and patronesses for the occasion were General and Mrs. Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill, Mrs. Edith Knight Holmes, Miss Failing, Miss Mary Failing, Joseph W. Hill, and John W. Daniels. Major W. H. Burton, commander, was assisted by the cadet commissioned officers in welcoming the guests.

Among those present were: Hortense Blecker, Gladys Cronkite, Helen Carmon, Pauline Dick, Frances Effinger, Joyce Hillworth, Frances Fridenthal, Leah Fridenthal, Dorothy Mitchell, Margaret Foster, Ruth Ferguson, Hyiah Frayley, Mary Greenlee, Elizabeth Goddard, Harriet Griffith, Corinne Hutchinson, Mary Hughes, Frances Baker, Dorothy Hall, Louise Hattone, Hazel Haines, Lillian Mitchell, Doris Hemmings, Louise Irving, Helen Hilde, Rose Irving, Margaret Johnson, Katherine Kubil, Eleanor Kilham, Laura Kilham, Elizabeth Kelly, Francis Lounsbury, Mabel McKibbin, Dorothy Metcalf, Marie McGowan, Estelle Modlin, Virginia Pearson, Anne O'Reilly, John O'Reilly, James O'Reilly, Julia Opp, Helen Parkers, Sazona Clary, Frances Page, Altha Rogers, Dorothy Reed, Virginia Thacker, Martha Shattuck, Evelyn Thatcher, Louise Smith, Helen Tubbill, Mary Helen Spaulding, Anne Wheeler, Lusia Watson, Gertrude Otto, Elizabeth Eitinger, Janet Eitinger, Mary Holmes, Virginia Keating, Elizabeth Wiggin, George Crandall, Ernest Knight, Anne Lawrence, Marion Peacock, Jean Przel, Harriet O'Reilly, Joan Hall, Alton Anderson, Donald Dutton, George Austin, Harry Baker, Richard Hall, Philip Boyd, Dan Habbitt, Lyle Brown, McDonald Brown, Eugene Blaker, Lewis Bernstein, Alexander Berger, Howard Boardman, Harold Churchill, George Crandall, Maria Coleman, Royal Conley, Albert Cavanaugh, Perry Davis, Harold Dagg, Irving Day, Cecil Doak, Ora Doak, Donald Dutton, George Daugherty, Harold Dooly, Joseph Dodd, Lynn Ferguson, Charles Flagg, Jack Foster, Frank Friese, Thomas Forrest, Emerson Fromm, John Flynn, James Flynn, Gael Green, George Gardner, Mahlon Gillette, Jerry George, Frederick Gifford, Ernest Hayden, Adolph Hayden, Harold Halton, Raymond Hooper, Stuart Hopkins, Bert Hathaway, Wilbur Haines, Frederick Hartley, Guy Hafferty, Mason Hall, Richard Jacobson, Robert Fern, Maurice Kinney, Horace Kilham, Milburn Knight, Richard Klopfer, Elmer Knight, Leroy Livermore, Percy Livermore, Donald Miss, Robert Math, Melvin Mattingly, Rufus Mallory, An-

John N. Joyce, their commanding officer, made a gala night for his men by allowing a dance after the concert. This will be the last week for the squadron to be together, as most of the men are to be mustered out this coming week.

Miss Frances Dooley, a violinist, opened the programme. J. Ross Fargo sang; Miss Aileen Brong gave a series of Italian readings. Mrs. Leslie Scott closed the programme with a number of songs. After the concert Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. David entertained the officers and artists at a supper.

The Intermediates, of Multnomah Club, will give their first hop of the season on New Year's eve, in the social rooms of the club. An excellent jazz orchestra has been obtained and no expense will be spared to make it one of the best dances of the year. The committee in charge consists of Byron W. Thomas, Walter B. Cofold, James H. Malarkey, William C. McBride, Jr., Thomas B. Malarkey, Louis H. Kuehn, Russell M. Drinker, Francis R. Keara, Warner J. Fuller and Harry Riddas. Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cofold, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Malarkey and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Thomas. The club will be open to outsiders and the plan is to dance the old year out and the new year in.

The Phi Delta Theta Alumni Association of Portland held its annual banquet in the Oregon Hotel Saturday evening. The attendance numbered 37 and the evening was most interesting and pleasant.

Many members from different sections of the country were present, including the military personnel stationed in and around the city. The evening was spent in reminiscences and the transaction of routine business. Brother Wallace McCannan, Pennsylvania Alpha, was toastmaster for the evening. Among those present were: First Lieutenant Medical Corps, R. T. Paice, Kansas Beta; Captain William J. Conroy, Alabama Alpha; First Lieutenant Thomas M. Strubling, Nebraska Alpha; First Lieutenant John J. Joyce, Ohio Theta; Second Lieutenant Brewer Billie, Oregon Beta; First Lieutenant H. B. McGill, Ohio Theta; Privates John O. Baker, Oregon Beta; John Goodwin, Indiana Alpha; Palmer Rogers, Missouri Gamma; S. W. Smith, Oregon Beta; Sergeant C. E. Smith, Oregon Beta; Flying Cadet Robert E. Morton, Oregon Alpha. Among the citizens present were: Messrs.

William Berke, Frank Molander, Mr. Caldwell, Joseph M. Ascenso and Joe Rolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Fuegy entertained in honor of Miss Velma Johnson, of Bickleton, Wash., on December 14, at their home. The evening was spent in dancing and singing, and a Chinese supper was served later in the evening. Prizes were given for the most adept chopstick artists, Ray Lyon and Miss Othelia Busch winning them. The guests were: Phil Adams, Lawrence Kuntz, Milton A. Fuegy, Harry Monish, Mrs. Ray Lyon, George F. Fuegy, Walter W. Fuegy, Velma Johnson, Othelia Busch, Ester Beach, Mary Tavelli, Helene Seiner, Elizabeth Tavelli, Mr. and Mrs. Gay Bybee and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Fuegy.
