

START THE NEW YEAR WITH A FEELING OF PROGRESSIVE CONSIDERATION OF THE YEAR OF PEACE

Portland Pastors Will Review Important Events of Old Year, and Deal With Great Problems That Must Be Solved in 1919.

A NEW YEAR of peace and victory will be heralded in by stirring sermons from the pulpits of Portland churches today. A resume of the kaleidoscopic changes that the past year has brought will be interwoven into many sermons, presenting their effect upon the problems of tomorrow. Recognition of the underlying theme of many of the addresses which will forecast the activities of the new year.

New sermon series upon topics of the day will be inaugurated today and new activities and departures in church work will also be begun. Holyday music will be a feature of services, both morning and evening in many of the larger churches.

Watch night services will be held at both the First Presbyterian and First Methodist churches on New Year's eve. Several of the smaller churches in the outlying districts will hold community services, ending with a social hour. Churches of all denominations have been unusually busy this season. No since the war have larger gatherings been held on all occasions attending the holiday season.

The sermons and services of Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church today will reflect the New Year theme. This morning the pastor, Ward W. MacHenry, will preach on "Christ and His Church in the Year of Peace." His subject will be "Stop, Look, Listen."

At Sellwood Methodist Church, of which Rev. W. S. Gordon is pastor, there will be a watch night social Tuesday evening in honor of those members who have left the church within the last year. There will be a reception, a literary programme and a social hour with refreshments. In the upper room Dr. Francis Burgette Short will hold services.

Watch Service Planned at First Methodist.

Quartet to Repeat Cantata, "The Star Divine," This Morning.

At the First Methodist Church this morning the quartet will repeat by request the Christmas cantata "The Star Divine." This beautiful cantata was rendered Sunday evening, December 21. It consists of the following interpretations:

- 1—Introduction and hymn of the Prophets.
  - 2—The watching of the magi for the star.
  - 3—The journey of the magi.
  - 4—The adoration of the magi.
  - 5—Finale.
- Dr. Joshua Stansfield will preach a short sermon on the "Christman King." In the evening the services will open with a pipe organ recital by Mrs. Gladys Morgan. Afterward a congregational sing Dr. Stansfield will take up the happenings of the year in review. The subject of his address being "The Momentous Year."

The Christmas exercises of this church's Sunday school were held last Monday evening. These exercises were unique in that instead of the children receiving their gifts to the Armenian relief, they were given to the Armenian relief. These gifts amounted to $14.75.

First Methodist Church will observe New Year's Eve with a watch night service in the church, beginning with an organ recital at 8:45, followed by 40 voices in choral song and praise service. At 10:30 there will be a social hour. At 11:00 the watch night service will be held in the auditorium of the Multnomah Hotel.

The Christian Science Churches of Portland will hold services at their respective places of worship at 11 o'clock this morning. At the First, Fifth and Seventh Churches repeat the services in the evening at 8 o'clock. The same service is held in all the churches, the subject of the lesson sermon this week being "Christian Science." At the Wednesday evening meeting, held at 8 o'clock, testimonies of Christian Science were given. The sessions of the Sunday school are held by First, Second, Fourth and Seventh Churches at 9:45 and 11 A. M. respectively. Third Church also conducts two sessions, the first at 11 A. M. and the second at 12:10 P. M. and Fifth Church at 9:30 and 11 A. M.

The membership of the Wilbur Methodist Church at 11 o'clock this morning under the leadership of the pastor, Dr. Francis Burgette Short. Last Sunday the auditorium of the Multnomah Hotel was taxed to its capacity. Beautiful services were held in the auditorium of the Multnomah Hotel. Dr. Stuart McGuire will sing the offertory this morning and Dr. Short will take for his subject, "The Sheriff's Request."

Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock this morning at the Norwegian-Danish Methodist Church, preaching services are held at 11 o'clock. At 8 o'clock this evening the Sunday school meets at the First Presbyterian Church. On New Year's day the young people of the church will hold a celebration at 8 P. M.

Warren Vesper Class Proves Popular Organization.

Young Men and Women Away From Family Circle Welcomed.

The Warren Vesper Orchestra of the First Presbyterian Church was organized in November, 1916, when the vesper class was projected as a feasible plan for entertaining lonely young men and women away from the family circle. Dr. John H. Boyd and members of the session most heartily co-operated with the official heads of this proposed orchestra. The orchestra met the expectation of all who have taken an active part in the original plan from the beginning to the present time. The method of work of this class is exceedingly flexible. Constant changes and new features are presented, keeping up the increasing interest. This class meets for a three-hour session every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. There is a song service led by the chorister, Dr. John H. Boyd, and a musical programme given by the orchestra under the leadership of Miss Gertrude Hoerber, assisted by well-known soloists.

After the concert a brief lesson is given by Dr. Angela L. Ford Warren, invariably presenting the salient points of character building for effective service in any chosen field of labor. The most remarkable feature of this class is the every denouncing of the represented in its membership, which now numbers close to 400. The homelike atmosphere adds a charm which brings a longing desire for the next meeting. All mature young people will find a "Friendship Circle" awaiting, and a place in the group. Refreshments are served at 5:45, followed by a "Fireside Social" which is enjoyed by all until time for the closing service. To all who are interested a cordial invitation is extended to visit this vesper service and learn more of the method of work used in helping the individual along all lines of life and service.

Rev. J. F. Gormley, pastor of the Holy Trinity Church, will preach at 11 o'clock this morning on "Man: From Whence and Whither." At 7:30 this evening he will speak on "The World as We See It." On New Year's eve at 8 o'clock the church will hold its annual business meeting which will be a social hour and a watch meeting.

The East Side Christian Church, East Twelfth and Taylor streets, is enjoying an unusual season. On New Year's eve at 8 o'clock the church will hold its annual business meeting which will be a social hour and a watch meeting.
