Monday—We Begin A January Mark-Down Sale of 5000 Pairs of Women's Shoes, Pumps, Oxfords at Huge Savings

—Like "gold dollars at a discount" comes this sale of thousands of pairs of women's shoes in the wanted lasts and leathers that not alone offer opportunity to people of all classes and tastes to suit their own shoe ideas, but offers the biggest dollar-saving chance on reliable shoes of known quality standard that this city has seen or will see.

All Our Own Regular Stocks: Chiefly the Famous "Red Cross Shoe": All the Season's Best Lasts: Many Below Present Market Cost

—Every shoe in the sale is from our own regular stock—which in itself is sufficient guarantee of the "merit of the merchandise" included—but for further evidence note that the shoes are chiefly "Red Cross" shoes, nor are they anything but "firsts" and, best of all, the assortments are so large that all sizes and all widths may be chosen from.

—Information from trade channels indicates that shoe prices will be no lower—and may be higher—so people of foresight should look to their shoe requirements for now and for Spring and Summer and buy liberally when "two dollars buy like three." Extra space and additional salespeople will be ready to serve you tomorrow.

Miss Ruth Plummer and Lieutenant Paul Emmett Terry were married last night at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Plummer. Although friends of the couple have been anticipating their wedding for some weeks, the announcement of the wedding comes as a genuine surprise, and only the closest friends of the couple and their relatives were aware of the plans.

The service was read by one of the Army chaplains from Vancouver Barracks, and the couple was unattended. The bride wore a gown of cloth of silver and tulle, made round length, and a full-length veil arranged in a cap of exquisite lace and tulle, wreathed with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of the palest pink blossoms, combined with white bouvardia and freesias.

Following the ceremony, which was read at 9 o'clock, a buffet supper was served, the table being presided over by the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank Barnes, and Miss L. A. Brown. Miss Edna Pence and Miss Marjorie Cameron assisted in serving.

The rooms were decorated with holiday garlands and pink and white blossoms.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Terry left for a fortnight's trip to California, and upon their return will remain in this city until Mr. Terry receives his discharge from the Army. He is stationed at Portland in the spruce production division.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Terry, of San Francisco, and it is probable he and his bride will make their home in that city. Mr. Terry was graduated from the University of California, and he is a Theta Delta Chi man.

Mrs. Terry is one of the most enthusiastic members of the National League for Woman's Service, also being president of the Portland Honor Guard for some time, and last Summer she took charge of the Oregon Woman's Farm Reserve. She is a major of the Comrades' Club, one of the divisions of girls who give dances under the auspices of the War Camp Community Service for soldiers and sailors.

Herbert Johns, Al Weist, Herbert Johnson, Garrie Rebersdorf, the evening Mayor Baker, Judge

Fred Tormoehlen and Walter Blaesing. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing, after which a dainty lunch was served.

One of the prettiest of the holiday parties in which the younger set is interested is the Intermediate Informal dance given by the Multnomah A. A. Club on New Year's eve. It was quite a gay and lovely affair, the younger set attending in merry groups, many of the girls preceding the dance with informal dinners at their homes. The affair was not only a New Year's celebration, but also sufficed as a welcome to the intermediate members who have returned from college, the Army and Navy, to spend the holidays with their families.
