

Morrow, Judge Gatens, Judge Hunt, H. S. Hudson and other members of the Supreme Assembly will attend. All Artisans are cordially invited to attend.

Gordon Granger Post and Corps, No. 42, installed the following officers for the ensuing year: E. E. Covey, commander; J. Barber, senior vice-president; J. McCollum, junior vice-president; H. Sigwick, chaplain; L. N. Self, patriotic instructor; B. Morgan, officer of the day; C. Clark Hall, surgeon; H. E. Dutton, adjutant; A. C. Capps, quartermaster; M. A. Robinson, sergeant-major; G. J. Johnson, quartermaster-organizer; J. L. Brown, guard; A. Foster, colorbearer; C. Vaughn, musician. Commander Evans was installing officer.

The women installed were: Laura Brophy, president; Harriet McGuire, senior vice-president; Hattie Erickson, junior vice-president; Carrie Covey, chaplain; Emma Putnam, guard; Mary B. Robinson, assistant guard; Elizabeth Conaway, secretary; Clara Rockwell, treasurer; Hilda Slater, patriotic instructor; Nannette Van Horne, conductor; Clara Hall, assistant conductor; Edith Owen, press correspondent; Felsie Thornton, musician; Louise Kramer, Ethel Julian, Hattie Gemmel and Violet Weddie, colorbearers.

Ben Butler Woman's Relief Corps No. 51 met in Dawley's Hall, Thirty-fifth and Yamhill streets, on Thursday, January 2. A joint installation was held with Ben Butler Post, when the newly elected officers were installed, as follows:

Commander of Ben Butler Post, T. Brouillette; president Woman's Relief Corps, Lizzie Lillager; senior vice-president, Olive East; junior vice-president, Carrie Mosier; secretary, Jessie McLaughlin; treasurer, Minnie Hebert; chaplain, Wealtha Brumbaugh; conductor, Jennie Benson; guard, Mary Spear; patriotic instructor, Josephine Claggett; press correspondent, Marion Moerli; musician, Gertrude Snow; assistant conductor, Mary Worden; assistant guard, Adah Walker; first color bearer, Nettie Walker; second color bearer, Diva Rounds; third color bearer, Stella Greer; fourth color bearer, Dora Johnson.

Mrs. W. E. Slater was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends on New Year's night. They presented her with a lovely leather traveling bag, a gift from Gordon Granger Woman's Relief Corps, of which Mrs. Slater has been president for two years. She expects to join Dr. Slater, who is in Honolulu, in the near future.

Mrs. Nora Blaker and Mrs. Ethel Meyers entertained on December 28 for the benefit of Department of Oregon Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans.

COMING EVENTS.

Next Thursday evening marks the beginning of a new term of work for Epsilon Sisters of Orpha Temple, when the following officers will be installed: Past chief, Ida Friedlander; most excellent chief, Beale K. James; excellent senior, Mrs. M. A. Anderson; excellent junior, Sarah Nelson; manager, Ellen Wagner; protector, Martha Spencer; guard, Katie Lenn; mistress of finance, Cora Burrell; mistress of records and correspondence, Florence De Mars.

Several interesting features have been planned to lend an air of festivity to the occasion. Refreshments will be served.

One of the first assemblages of the new year was held Thursday evening at the Irvington Clubhouse by the committee on the "7" prom. About 150 guests were present and made it a notable happy event. The dance ended in a riot of fun, the crickets and horns furnishing all the noise possible and the hall became one mad scene before the last hour. A day this week has been set for the meeting of the committee to make plans for the next prom.

A dance and supper will be given to the members of the American Institute of Electric Engineers Tuesday evening in the ballroom of Multnomah Hotel. Covers will be placed for 75 for the supper and dancing will continue throughout the evening.

Mrs. Rose D. Rittman, High Chief Ranger of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, will be pleased to face the members at a "joint meeting" of the local courts, which will be held in the Foresters Hall, Fifteenth and Davis streets, next Tuesday evening.

The Lonesome Club, a recently organized club will hold its next meeting January 8 at 7:30 o'clock in Alisky Hall, Third and Morrison streets. Elevator to fourth floor. All strangers in the city are cordially invited, whether married or single.

American Railway Express organization will hold a dance and card party in the Multnomah Hotel on Thursday evening, using the assembly hall and tea gardens.

Scout Young Auxiliary, No. 2, U. S. W. V., will hold installation on Tuesday evening. All comrades and their wives are invited.

WEDDINGS.

Habel-Bushman.
A pretty holiday wedding of interest to many was celebrated at the home of Mrs. T. J. Bushman when her only daughter, Irene Marie, was married to Harvey Albert Habel, of Everett, Wash., on New Year's day. The bride, who wore a gown of blue chiffon velvet and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, was given in marriage by her brother, William F. Bushman, her only attendant being her little niece, Evelyn Bushman, who wore white and carried pink carnations. The ceremony was performed by the family pastor, Father Folen, and witnessed by the members of the families. The couple left at once for a short journey north, and they will be at home after January 15 at the Osborn, Eugene, Or., where Mr. Habel is located.

Allan-McAkill.
A quiet wedding took place at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Allan, 515 Yamhill street, on Thursday evening, December 24, when Miss Margaret McAkill was married to John C. Allan.
The bride was charming in a dress of white crepe de chine and satin with silver lace trimmings. Her veil, imported from London, was of embroidered Brussels net and was worn coronet style with wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and bouvardia.
Following the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. William A. Waldo, of the White Temple Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Allan left for a wedding trip through California and the East. They will be at home after February 1, at 29 East Eighteenth street (Special).

Stone-Biles.
FAIRVIEW, Or., Jan. 1.—(Special.)—Miss Frances Biles and C. H. Stone, well known in Eastern Multnomah County, were married New Year's eve at the residence of the bride's parents, near Troutdale. Mr. Stone owns a ranch near Fairview.
About 40 guests were present at the ceremony. Rev. L. B. Self, of the Fairview Presbyterian Church, officiated, using the ring ceremony. Miss Helen Biles and Clyde Stone attended the couple. The decorations were Oregon grape and holly.
Mr. and Mrs. Stone have gone to California, where they will pass several weeks.
Ryan-Fraser.
Miss Genevieve Fraser became the bride of Paul M. Ryan at a simple marriage ceremony Wednesday afternoon. The bride is a popular young musician.
