

GIRL, 20, COMPLETES BOOK ON FAIRYLAND

Opal Whiteley Writes Nature's Message to Children.

SCIENTIST PRAISES VOLUME

Charles Fletcher Lummis and David Starr Jordan in Foreword Say Charms Opened to Youth.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Jan. 11.—(Special.)—Opal Whiteley, 20 years old, a sophomore at the university last year, known throughout the state as a nature student, is bringing her message from nature's fairy world to children in "Fairylans Around Us," a book which she has just completed.

own efforts and is the publisher and circulator. The volume has 300 pages, containing 450 illustrations, 214 of them in natural colors. The work will be off the press soon. Miss Whiteley is now in Los Angeles.

David Starr Jordan and Charles Fletcher Lummis, scientific explorer and author of books and poems on nature, have written the forewords for the book, in which they highly endorse the work of this young nature student. In speaking of the "Fairylans Around Us" Mr. Lummis says: "I think there is nothing like it in the English language. Miss Whiteley has kept the child's point of view of nature."

"It is an effort to give our boys and girls a right start in the joys of life," says Dr. Jordan in his foreword. "It opens their eyes to the charms and glories shown all around them. Miss Whiteley understands children, their needs, their principal interests, their joys and sorrows, and she has an infinite sympathy in seeing what is going on in their young minds. Everywhere she radiates joy and this buoyancy in her disposition has occasioned her name of 'Sunshine Fairy,' by which she is known to children and their parents in small and large towns on the Coast."

Miss Whiteley has a host of friends among children all over the state, whom she has met when delivering nature lectures and as superintendent of the Junior Endeavor for two and a half years.

Miss Whiteley has been doing nature work ever since she was a very young child. "One of my earliest recollections," she says, "is of pulling up some wild flowers, when I was 3 years old, and planting them in a bed my mother had prepared for geraniums."

She spent much time in the fields and woods and began early to write nature stories and plays. She told her stories to the children of the lumber camps, whose eyes she opened to the wonders about them.

One of Miss Whiteley's delights is her collection of 29,000 specimens of rocks, minerals, fossils, flowers, ferns, moths, beetles, butterflies, birds, bird homes and shells. She has collected over 1200 of these specimens herself and the others were sent her by people scattered over the United States.

Miss Whiteley has spent the summer in Los Angeles working on her book. She had a class of children on the beach near Venice, whom she taught about shells. Her next book, she says, will be "The Fairies of the Sea."

W. Schultz, Wilapa, vice-president; George A. Nelson, South Bend, secretary; E. W. Lilly, Menlo, treasurer.

The following legislative committee was elected: W. W. Moffitt, Naselle; Victor Monahan, Menlo; E. W. Lilly, Menlo; J. W. Kiebb, South Bend; W. W. Campbell, Francon; W. M. Rounds, Ilwaco; H. B. Setten, Knappton.

The purpose of the congress is to unify the people of the county in their efforts to work for the betterment of the same.

The meeting adopted the resolutions of the Washington State Good Roads Association with the exception of a few sections; pledged to assist Wahkiakum County to secure a highway; favored the adoption of the route of the National Park highway as accepted and approved by the voters of Pacific County when they made this route a condition of the contract in the sum of $80,000 of bonds of Pacific County; favored a legislative appropriation at this session for the early completion of Road No. 15, one of the links in the National highway, and advocated the clearing of the timber 50 feet on each side of the National highway in all tall timber sections.

thor, Roy Graves, of Sheridan, has been operating a plant in Tillamook County for some time. They expect to establish a cannery in this city within the next year, if a suitable location and an assurance from farmers and fruitgrowers that they will raise fruits and vegetables to keep the plant in operation a greater part of the year, can be obtained.

Many thousands of pounds of fruits and vegetables are fed to stock each year because there is no cannery concern in this section. Berries of all kinds are raised in this vicinity and the output each year on the farms exceeds the demands of this city.

At a meeting of the Dallas Commercial Club in the near future ways and means of meeting the demands made by the Graves brothers will be considered.

Following his rule not to admit aliens until they are qualified, Judge Bingham denied two applications for citizenship in the Circuit Court here yesterday.

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—A plan, devised by Circuit Judge George G. Bingham, of Salem, for use in the cases of aliens who apply for naturalization in his district, which includes Linn and Marion Counties, is growing in favor. Under the plan it is proposed that applicants for citizenship secure instruction in civil government from school teachers in the vicinity of their places of residence.

Judge Bingham found many of the applicants lacked the knowledge needed before performing the duties of citizenship. He asked the county school superintendents of the two counties to arrange with the teachers to teach aliens desiring to become citizens.

It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Druggists everywhere.—Adv.
