PRIZE

ORIENTAL RUGS

NOW BEING OFFERED

At AUCTION

There is a difference in Oriental Rugs just the same as in anything else. It is the better kind of rugs—the kind that have won Grand Prizes for Atiyeh everywhere they have exhibited—the characteristic Atiyeh high-class kind—that for a few days you have an opportunity to buy

AT YOUR OWN PRICE

Examine the stocks at your leisure between sessions and make selections that you would like to bid on at the following session. You also have opportunity to make examinations at the time the rugs are being auctioned.

Lovers of Oriental Rugs everywhere within reach of this event—investors who know that high-grade Oriental Rugs increase in value with age—retailers who know they can buy at this sale for less than they would pay at wholesale—individuals who have long been deprived of Oriental Rugs because of a feeling that prices were out of reach—and collectors who never miss a chance to pick up very rare pieces—all these and various others who are interested are truly appreciative of the most unusual character of this sale and are profiting accordingly.

Mr. A. Atiyeh is retiring from activity in the local store to visit the Oriental Rug markets and renew the Atiyeh connections disrupted by war in the Far East and to establish importing headquarters in New York City. These and other urgent reconstruction problems are what make this Auction necessary.

Most every kind, size and pattern will be found in these immense offerings that comprise the combined Atiyeh stocks. Our well-known reputation for assuring our customers absolute satisfaction will be maintained during this sale.

You will appreciate that early attendance is advisable owing to the fact that it will last for a few days only.
