Cuts Made by Joint Ways and Means Committee.

MATTER UP TO LAWMAKERS

Biggest Slash Made in Case of Industrial Accident Commission. Normal School Warned.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Jan. 25.-(Special.)-The joint ways and mean committee, during its first two weeks of wrestling with the financial problems which confront the Oregon Legislature, has tentatively allowed $2,002,863.44 of the $2,845,176 of the budget requirements to be put up to the law makers for their consideration, having lopped off $542,311.56 so far. These figures are based on a compilation by John Schroe-der, chief clerk of the committee. These slashes leave only a little more than $400,00) more to be cut off to meet the provisions of the 6 per cent limita-tion amendment and there is every in-dication that the committee will make good on this task.

astimated would be its share for stare all during the next two years. The committee is powerless to take such action, unless the entire Legislature makes a change in the law, but since such a change has passed the Senate and is now in the House, where it is admitted to be completely surrounded by its friends, there is little danger of the service of the mouse comaction of the ways and means committee in this regard being defeated. Normal School Warned.

Normal School Warned.

The committee is also on record in establishing an important policy by declaring in regard to the State Normal School that "it is the sense of this committee that no appropriation be granted over and above that provided for by the millage tax and that the institution is to keep within the limitation."

If this holds true with the State Normal School it is likely to in connec-tion with the other higher educational institutions which are supported on the millage tax basis. At least an attempt will be made to hold it good in such

The next heaviest reduction is that of the State Fair, $30,000 being pruned from the estimates of that institution. The Normal is shaved off $24,441.56 to bring it down to the $74,288.44, or miliage tax basis. The Forestry Board is hit by a reduction of $16,000, while the institution for the feeble minded has so far lost only $12,200 of the $345,700 appropriation sought in the budget estimate.

County Division Fights Disliked and Act Is Planned to Put Question Up to Counties.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 25 .- (Special.)the Fifteenth Idaho Legislature is now in full swing, having closed its third week, during which the machinery had been well oiled. No time is to be lost to dispose of party and administration measures. Party leaders are determined that the programme will be adopted. Prospects are excellent for the passage of the administration State Departmen Woman suffrage next received conideration, both houses memoralizing appropriation bill, carrying $150.09% to be used to replace the administration building of the normal, which was ruined by fire, and was given the right of way because of the emergency to get building operations under way.

The proposed plan to create a new county was launched in the House by the introduction of the Nampa County division measure. Nampa is designated the county seat of 'a county to be formed from the southeastern part of Canyon County, the southwestern portion of Ada County and the north-

Morgan of Washington attacked the principle involved in acting separately on institution bills. He said that the new administration was face to face with the extraordinary deficiencies of the past administration, which have to be met and a bigger demand than ever for funds for the new administration.

Representative Moody, of Bonner County, sharply interrupted Morgan to pointedly suggest that he confine his remarks to the bill under consideration and not to the past administration tion. He explained that, under the constitution, insurance money on state constitution, insurance money on state idoka counties with Jerome as the institutions had to be pard back into the general fund and that was why this was done in the case of the Lewiston red flag of revolution and Holshevism in the state of Idaho; passed Senate measure accepting the terms of the Smith-Hughes vocational education act; measure declaring places used for gambling a nuisance, providing for their closing and heavy fines against owners; amending workmen's compenation act so as to exclude rural school

> If there is a real embarrassing question before the Legislature it is to be found in the direct primary. When the members of the two houses took their seats a majority wanted to repeal the law and go back to the old convention system. Lany majority and minority members would have so veted. They are not so keen for repeal now. One reason is that from a party standpoint Direct Primary Embarrasses. are not so keen for repeal now. One reason is that from a party standpoint on both sides it is conceded it would not be good politics. A majority of the electors in Idaho might resent having taken away from them their right to have something to say about who shall be their candidates. The stronger party leaders also are firmly convinced that to go back to the old convention system and its evils would be a step backward and they are not anxious to become retroactive.

The main reason, however, was that Governor Davis made it painfully plain to the most ardent primary repeal advocates that if they parsed a repeal act he promptly and unhesitatingly would veto it. It is likely the amendments would abolish a statewide primary, but leave a primary for county officers and legislative candidates.
