

"Too Late!"

Sad words those—"Too late"—for they always emphasize what might have been and should have been, but was not—especially in regard to good eyesight. There can be no greater horror than being compelled to go through life—grooping in utter darkness—depending entirely upon others for everything in life.

Scarcely a day passes but someone comes to me for aid in seeing who must be told it is "too late." The cataract has formed, or other complications have affected the delicate mechanism of the eye, making it impossible to improve the vision with glasses.

Untold misery or utter despair may be spared you if you listen to the first warning of nature when your eyes begin to ache, blur or trouble in any way.

1000 COME THIS WEEK

GREAT PARADES TO BE HELD IN STREETS OF PORTLAND.

69th Artillerymen Due Tuesday or Wednesday; Spanish War Veterans to Join in Welcome.

Nearly 1000 overseas troops from the northwest are expected to pass through Portland this week, according to information received by the welcome committee. Most of these men are to parade Portland's streets, be dined and entertained and sent on to Camp Lewis to be mustered out.

The first detachment, that of 500 Oregon and Washington men in the 69th artillery regiment, will arrive either late Tuesday or early Wednesday, according to best obtainable information. The men arrived at Omaha early this morning.

The 102d infantry will arrive in smaller parties about the end of the week. Exact information as to arrival and make-up of the units is not yet available. Men from the 161st infantry and 90th casual company also are expected in Portland the coming week.

An urgent call for plenty of decorations and a hearty welcome for the soldiers has been issued by the welcome committee, of which Frank Hilton is secretary. The parade will go up Sixth street—"Victory Way"—and turn on Morrison as heretofore, on Monday and Tuesday, and a meeting will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The United Spanish War Veterans, through the post commander, Harvey Wells, has offered to co-operate with the welcome committee in receiving the veterans will return in the next two months, according to Mr. Wells. The organization will be given a desk at the Liberty temple headquarters.

AID IS PLEDGED SOLDIERS

CAPTAIN CONVILL WILL HELP COLLECT $60 BONUS.

Extra Force of Clerks Assembled to Care for Allowance of Men in U. S. Army Service.

Services of the soldiers and sailors division of the federal employment bureau have been offered by Captain Convill to discharged soldiers and sailors who want to send their discharge papers to Washington to obtain their $60 bonus. The men will be helped in making out duplicate discharge papers, according to Captain Convill. An extra force of clerks will be put on at the Liberty temple Monday to help soldiers in this work. "Returned service men, in sending their discharges for evidence in getting their bonuses, should be careful to keep a duplicate discharge," said the captain yesterday. "Employers demand discharge papers in hiring men. We will make out these papers and an officer will certify as to their reliability."

Many service men are experiencing difficulty in getting jobs because of having sent their discharge papers to Washington, according to Captain Convill.

The men sent out from the federal bureau last week numbered slightly less than for the previous week, figures compiled yesterday showed. For the past week about 1500 men were directed to jobs, while the previous week showed a record of 1303 men.

More lumber workers are being sent out, however, and the situation should improve steadily, according to Superintendent Conway of the Portland bureau. He expects the lumber employers to take on full crews before the end of March with the result that many thousands of Portland's unemployed will be absorbed.

BORAH MAY FOLLOW TAFT

STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN AGAINST LEAGUE CONTEMPLATED.

Idaho Senator Plans Itinerary to Take Him Over Ground Covered by ex-President.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, D. C., March 1.—Senator Borah of Idaho hopes to speak against the league of nations from the same platform in Portland from which former President Taft advocated the establishment of the league only a short time ago.

The Idaho senator now is working out plans for an itinerary that will take him over the same ground covered by Mr. Taft, and which will mean that he may reach Portland within three or four weeks, provided there is no extra session of congress. He is to speak in New York March 6; Boston, March 8, and Brooklyn, March 9, and then, if present plans carry, he will start west. Since Senator Borah's declination of President Wilson's dinner invitation he is recognized as the spokesman for the opposition to the league, and letters have been pouring into his office from every state, the letters received totaling more than 10,000 this week. It is declared by the senator's secretary that less than 1 per cent of the letters received favor the league.

PUBLIC MARKET IS LAUDED

BENEFITS TO CONSUMERS TOLD AT LEAGUE LUNCHEON.

C. E. Spence, Master of State Grange, Participates in Programme—Armenian Relief Is Urged.

Portland's public market was the theme which the Oregon Civic League discussed yesterday at the luncheon in the crystal room of the Hotel Benson. While there was some criticism, speakers were agreed that it is beneficial to the consumer. J. A. Eastman, market master, appeared on the programme instead of the Bigelow city commissioner, who found it impossible to be present. He told of the development of the market, of the methods that had been introduced for protection alike of producer and consumer, and called attention to the influence of the municipal fish market in holding down the price of sea foods at the time the government was appealing to the public to eat more fish and less meat.

Ray Gill, speaking for the farmer, acquainted the members of the league with some of the troubles with which the tiller of the soil has to contend. C. E. Spence, master of the state grange, participated in the discussion, saying he was attracted to the meeting because he understood there was some thought of closing the public market. He had learned this was unfounded, but other matters brought up invoked his participation.

Mrs. O. G. Lamson made an appeal for the cause of the Armenian people, whom she characterized as having rendered a service of inestimable value to the allied nations in blocking the road between Germany and the near east.
