

NEWS OF WORLD

AS SEEN BY CAMERA

Beautiful Girl Sent by Aerial Post at San Diego, Cal.

POSTAGE stamps affixed to a helmet worn by a beautiful girl, the stamps duly canceled, served for transportation of the most valuable "parcel" yet sent by aerial post. This charming parcel was dispatched from the postoffice at San Diego and safely delivered at destination.

"The Fountain of Youth," was posed by Madeline Gildersleeve, the beautiful model, by Feurhyn Stanlawa, the famous artist, at a ball given by New York artists of note on Washington's birthday. The water fantasy was staged in the big tank of the Hotel des Artistes.

Society of the winter colonies gathered at southern resorts flocked to Miami for the fifth annual power boat regatta at Miami, Fla., the water classic of the season. Seaplanes hovered over the crowd, furnishing diversion. Speediest craft of the express-boat type participated in the race over a ten-mile course.

Over the entrance to the great hall in which the Bolsheviki meets in Moscow for discussion and conference is a great red banner which is translated as reading: "Peace and Brotherhood of the People." It is declared to be the insignia of Bolshevism.

Some of the colored boys of the 159th, better known as the New York 15th, who were awarded the French Croix de Guerre for extreme bravery in action returned home on the Stockholm. They are Private "Eagle Eye" Edward Williams, Private "Lamp-Light" Herb Taylor, Private Leon Frator, Private "Kid Hawk" Ralph Hawkins, Sergeant H. D. Prinas, Sergeant Daniel Storms, Private "Kid Wolf" Joe Williams, Private "Kid Buck" Alfred Hily and Corporal T. W. Taylor.

Meeting at Paris February 12, the commission for international legislation on labor brought together the leading labor representatives of many countries. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor was a distinguished figure in the conference. The United States, England, France, Belgium, Italy, Japan, and the Czecho-Slovak nation were represented.

The Czecho-Slovak Republic was accorded recognition by the United States, when President Wilson cabled from Paris asking that due provision be made for ministers to that country, while trade relations were established by the United States war board. Although most of the wealth in Czechoslovakia is German controlled, the country has been and is entirely pro-ally. Troops of the Army Nationale took the oath of allegiance and fidelity to the government at Prague.

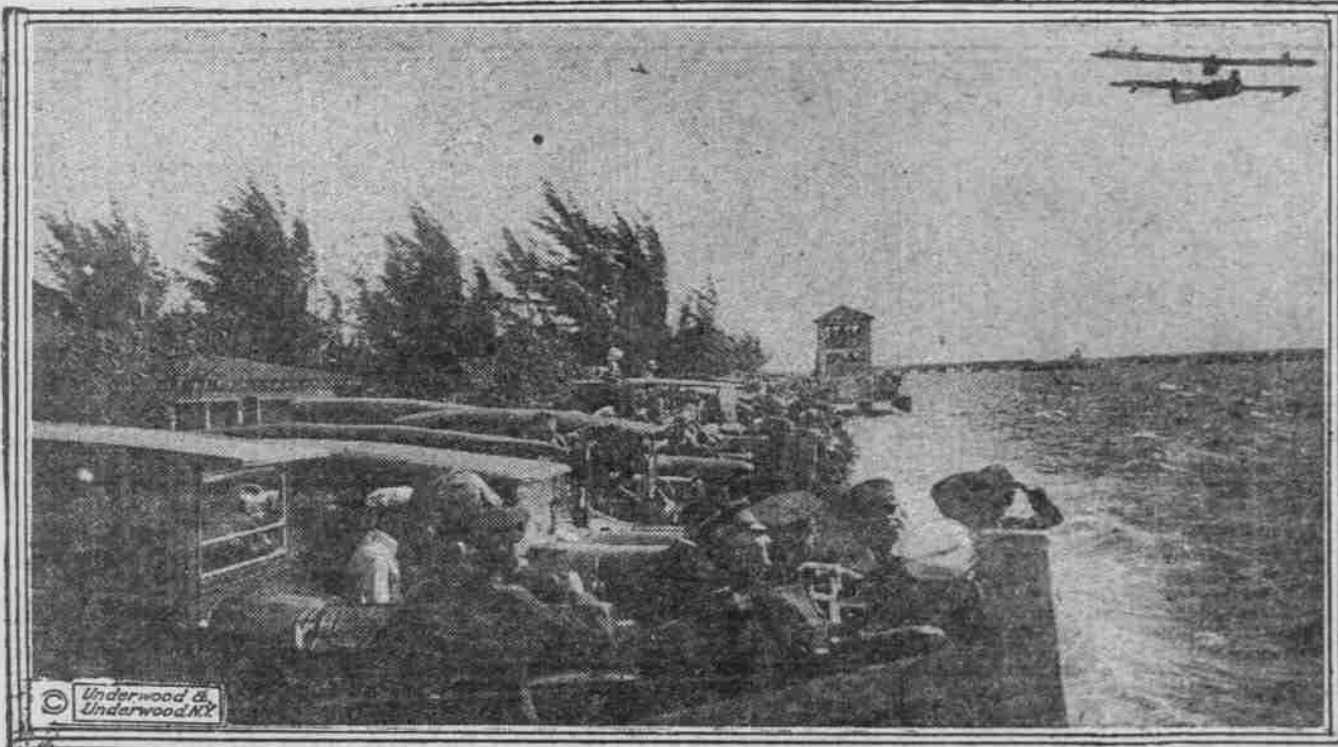

Signing of the contract by which four of the world's greatest screen artists joined in forming the United Artists' corporation was a significant episode in filmdom. D. W. Griffith, Mary Pickford, Charley Chaplin and Douglas Fairbanks are the principals. W. G. McAdoo has been retained as chief counsel of the new concern, which will finance and release their own productions.

Feurhyn Stanlawa, Artist, and His Beautiful Model, Madeline Gildersleeve.

Meeting Place of the Bolsheviki at Moscow.

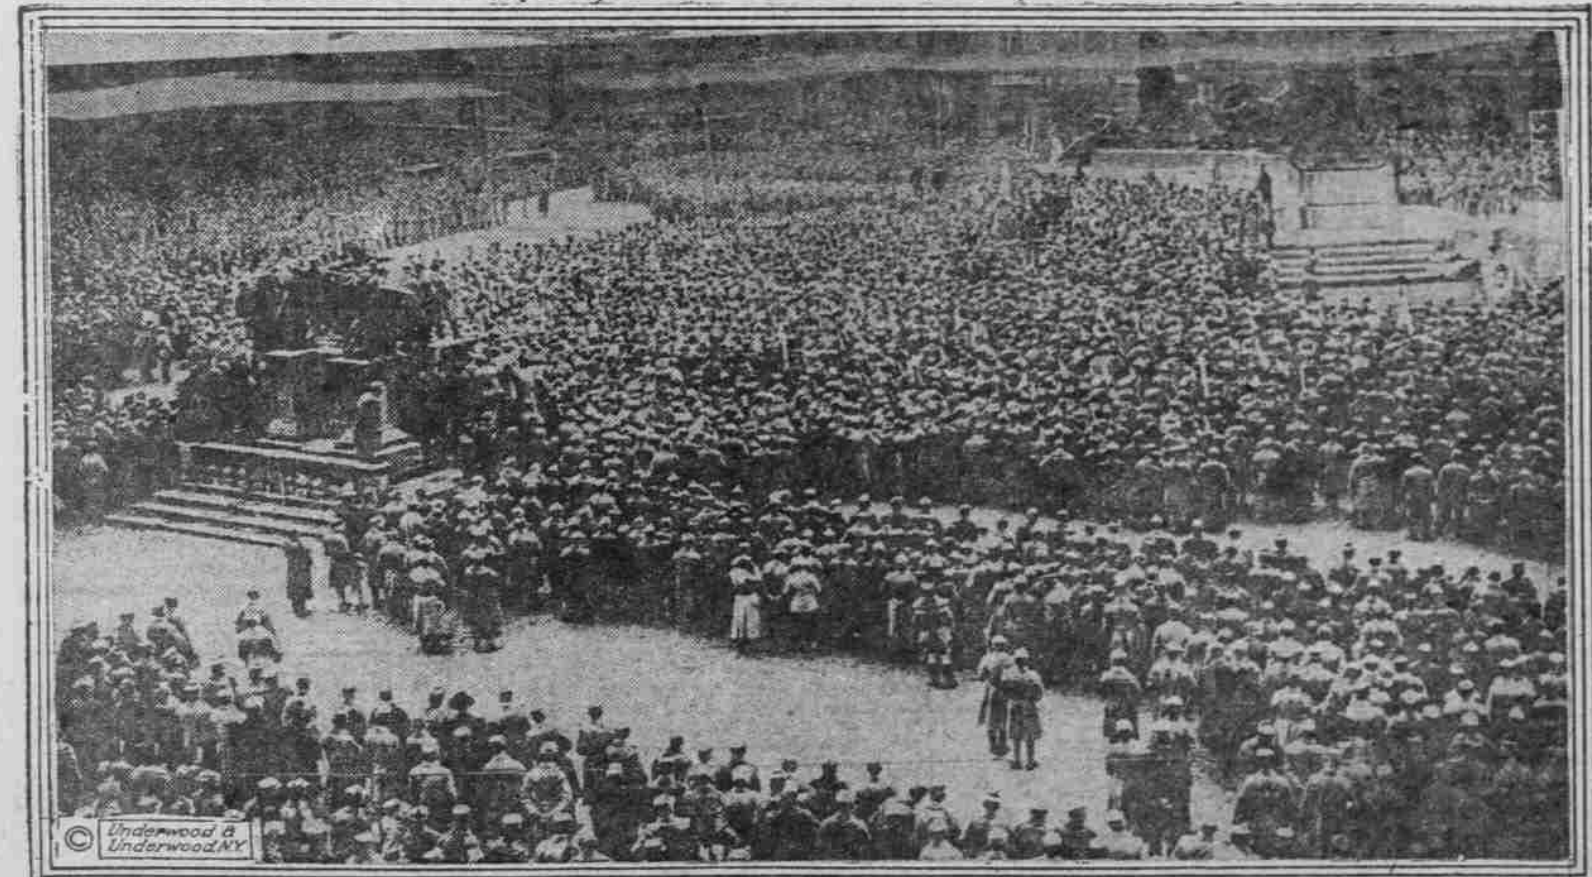

Scene at Opening of Annual Regatta, Miami, Fla.

Colored Heroes of the 15th, Won the Croix De Guerre.

Commission International Legislation on Labor, Which Met at Paris, Feb. 12th.

Czecho-Slovak National Army Troops Making Oath of Allegiance at Prague.

The Big Four of Filmdom Signing Contract Forming The Artists' Combine.