

REPUBLICAN WOMEN'S GOV. COMMITTEE IS NAMED

Three New Members Appointed to Complete Personnel.

ALL PROMINENT WORKERS

Recent Appointees Selected From Rhode Island, Kentucky and District of Columbia.

NEW YORK, March 1.—(Special.)—The appointment of the remaining three members of the republican women's national executive committee was announced today by Chairman Hays of the republican national committee. They are Miss Maude Wetmore of Newport, R. I.; Mrs. Thomas J. Carter, former of Montana, but now of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. John G. South of Frankfort, Ky. Miss Wetmore is the daughter of George Peabody Wetmore, Governor of Rhode Island from 1885 to 1887 and representing his state in the United States senate from 1905 to 1912. She has been actively interested in reform and patriotic organizations, and as chairman of the national league for women's service, she has performed a notable war service. She also is a member of the women's committee of the council of national defense, chairman of the women's department, national civic federation and chairman of the national patriotic relief committee. She has never been identified with any suffrage movement or a worker for suffrage.

War Work Is Done.
Mrs. Carter has been actively identified with war work in Washington and is well known in other lines of public activities, although she has never been connected with any suffrage work. Mrs. Carter's late husband was a leader in the republican party until his death. He was the first representative Montana had in congress after it became a state, and he later represented Montana in the United States senate two terms.

Mrs. South is the daughter of ex-Governor Bradley of Kentucky, and has been active through the war period in State Council of Defense work in Kentucky. She also has held the position of president of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

The addition of these three women to the republican women's national executive committee gives representation to sections of the country which had not been represented on this committee.

Women Are Prominent.
The committee which is appointed to set with the republican national committee in planning ways and means of making certain the fullest possible participation of republican women in party affairs now is constituted of the following members: Mrs. Thomas J. Carter, District of Columbia; Miss Mary Garrett Hay, New York; Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter, Kansas; Mrs. Modell McCormick, Illinois; Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, California; Mrs. Josephine Corlies Freston, Washington; Mrs. Raymond Robins, Chicago; Mrs. John G. South, Kentucky, and Miss Maude Wetmore, Rhode Island.

SEASIDE PLANS BIG PIER

STRUCTURE TO EXTEND 2000 FEET INTO OCEAN.

Cost of Structure to Make Deep Sea Fishing Easy Is Estimated at About $65,000.

An immense pier jutting into the Pacific ocean for 2000 feet is to be built at Seaside. This was decided at a meeting held in Portland Friday night, when a delegation from Seaside met with Representative E. N. Hurd on his return to Salem, Mr. Hurd being mayor of Seaside.

George W. Boschke, who built the famous seawall at Clatsop and who designed the Harriman bridge across the Willamette, was engaged to prepare plans for the pier. Originally the breakwater association was organized in Clatsop county, and it was intended that a breakwater be built at Seaside so that small fishing craft could land. The cost would run into millions, so the idea was abandoned and the pier project substituted.

The pier is to be 100 feet wide. At the outer end there will be a dance pavilion, and along the pier will be amusement devices and places for deep-sea fishing. It will be essentially an amusement pier. The shore end is to be located at Broadway, the hard-surfaced street running from the ocean to the railroad depot in Seaside.

CRATER LAKE PROVIDED FOR

NEGRO SLAIN IN GUN FIGHT

COLORED MAN HELD, CHARGED WITH SHOOTING.

Theo. Sykes Alleged Killed in Attempt to Stop Row Over Woman; One Man Wounded.

One negro was killed and another wounded at 4 P. M. yesterday in a gun fight at 237 North Fifteenth street. Police arrested Bud Scott, another negro, and charged him with the shooting, saying that the prisoner had been jealous of the alleged relations between the wounded negro and his wife, Mrs. Pearl Campbell-Scott.

The dead man is Theo. Sykes, proprietor of the lodgings where the shooting occurred. Sykes is said to have been killed while trying to stop the row between Scott and M. L. Leggins, the wounded negro.

According to the story told police, Mrs. Scott, Mr. Leggins and Mr. and Mrs. Sykes had been living at 237 North Fifteenth street. Scott is said to have gone to the house yesterday and to have shot twice at Leggins after a quarrel over Leggins' alleged relations with Mrs. Scott. Sykes attempted to interfere, whereupon Scott is said to have shot him through the breast. One shot struck Leggins in the arm, breaking the bone, and the other struck his back, inflicting a flesh wound. He is at St. Vincent's hospital, but his condition is not considered serious.
