interesting talk on the experiences of her son, Lieutenant Kenneth Reed, member of the 51st division in France. He was in the Argonne fight and was one of the first Americans who later entered Belgium. Mrs. Tuttle also spoke of Miss Ada Alice Tuttle's experiences as an entertainer for the troops in Paris and its environs, in Brittany and southern France. After a programme of an hour and a half, tea was served. Mrs. H. C. Wortman and Mrs. J. Claire Montegh pouring, assisted by Mrs. John Pearson and Mesdames C. A. Scott and William Blake.

Harry M. Kerron has scheduled two closed paper chases for the juniors of the Portland Hunt club during March, one to be run next Saturday afternoon, the other on Saturday afternoon March 23.

The juniors enjoy these chases so thoroughly that they always turn out, and their events are among the most interesting to the spectators as the riders are fearless, full of enthusiasm and the keen spirit of competition.

Their last closed chase resulted in first place going to Jack McDougall, second to Miss Clementine Lewis and third to Miss Hortense Bleaker. The trail was laid by Mr. Kerron. Afterward the juniors had their usual fun and frolic at the clubhouse, where they were the guests of Mrs. F. H. Green.

Frances Morgan celebrated her birthday Wednesday with a party for a few little friends. Her guests included: Hanna Lewis, Bettie Lively, Priscilla Pennington, Kathryn Wastell, Harriet Adams, Virginia Hull and Virginia Edwards.

Miss Dorothy Brent and Charles C. Newcastle Jr. were married Thursday evening, February 27, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister,

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Kriba, West-over road. The services were read by Rev. J. J. Staub. Only relatives and close friends were present. The out-of-town guests were Dean John Straub of the University of Oregon and Karl G. Becke of Salem.

The bride wore a gown of rare lace, made on simple lines. She carried an arm bouquet of bride roses, orchids and freesia. She was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Kriba, Margaret Pillsbury Kriba, a niece of the bride, carried the ring in a lily. Miss May Martin, maid of honor, wore a gown of silver cloth. Alfred B. Peacock, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bridal music was played by Mrs. Percy Allen Lewis and Mrs. G. L. Knight. Before the bridal couple entered Owen Lewis sang "O Promise Me." An informal wedding reception followed the ceremony. Receiving with the bridal couple were Mrs. Margaret Brent, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Kriba and Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Newcastle, parents of the bridegroom. Bride roses and lily were used in decorating the dining-room, where a buffet supper was served. Mrs. C. Lewis Meade and Mrs. J. H. Cook presided at the coffee urns.

Mrs. Brent wore a gown of black charmeuse and jet.

Mrs. Kriba was gowned in ivory satin.

Mrs. C. C. Newcastle's gown was of golden yellow satin elaborated with lace.

Mrs. C. Lewis Meade wore a gown of black and gold chiffon.

Mrs. J. H. Look was in a cloth of silver gown.

The bride is one of Portland's well-known younger singers. She was a student of Pacific university, where she lived in Portland with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Brent, for a number of years and is popular among the younger college set.

The bridegroom is a son of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Newcastle of Irvington, is a member of one of Portland's pioneer families and a grandson of the late Judge P. A. Marquam. He is a Stanford man and a graduate of the University of Oregon. He is attending the medical school of the University of Oregon. He is a member of the Sigma Chi and Masonic fraternities. After a brief wedding trip the young couple will make their home in Portland.

Irvington club members are to have an informal party at the clubhouse Friday evening. St. Patrick's-day decorations will be used and the members are requested to wear something green. Mrs. E. G. Lohy, chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. E. M. Irvine, Mrs. Otto Becker and Mrs. F. M. Kirsch.

On Monday evening Dr. and Mrs. Courtland L. oBoth entertained at dinner at their home for members of the Methodist Deaconess home. Those present were: Mrs. Esther Waldfoel, Misses Nellie M. Curtiss, Bernice Adams, Edith Bird, Nellie Johnson, Harriet Kissell, Emma Sundheimer, Della Milligan, Margaret Davies, also Mrs. F. J. Steinmetz, recently returned from California; C. W. DeGraff, president of the board of trustees of the home, and Mrs. DeGraff.

The evening was spent pleasantly with music and games and an old-fashioned maple "sugaring-off."

Mrs. W. H. Daughtrey will leave this evening for Florida for an indefinite visit with her parents and her brother, Captain F. A. Forbes, who is stationed at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Fisher and two children, who have been in California for the past year, have returned to Portland, and they are now making their home in Eastmoreland.

The Rose City Park community Club House Bowling league anticipates a busy night Friday, March 14, when they will meet at a hard winter, according to the committee, these may be won by guests who did not intend to com-
