Ellers Music House and demanding an accounting.

The action is filed by Ernest W. Hardy, trustee in bankruptcy of Ellers Music House, against the Oregon Ellers Music House. The latter was the latest to be organized and a large part of its assets belong to the former company, which went into bankruptcy in 1918. The plaintiff asserts that as trustee he is in possession of $47,500 worth of stock in the Oregon Ellers Music House and fears its value is being dissipated through alleged action of Ellers, who is said to control $159. of Ellers, who is said to control $150,- 00 of the remaining $200,000 worth f stock. The suit alleges that in transactions by the Oregon Ellers Music House in February, 1913, funds of the Ellers Music House were taken and converted by the officers in sundry amounts to a brother, father, sisters and aunt of Mr. Ellers. The officers are Hy Ellers, A. H. Ellers and S. J. McCormick. This was all within four months of the adjudication of bankruptcy in the Ellers company, it is asserted.

A further allegation is that Mr. Ellers created pretended obligations in favor of relatives and his private secretary in large amounts, which were by the Oregon Etlers Music House in favor of relatives and his private secretary in large amounts, which were carried on the books of the company as "hills payable," all "for the purpose of hindering, delaying and defrauding creditors." The "hills payable" account approximates $45,000, says Hardy, who declares he does not know what part of it is true and what is false. He alleges the fact to be that the property of the Oregon Ellers Music House at a fair valuation will not be more than sufficient to pay all its debts, and that if the present state of affairs continues there will be nothing for the stockholders. r the stockholders.

For Constipation! Physic Purge or Laxative?_

Everyone now and then becomes constipated, and millions are chronically in that condition. The perplexing question arises—what to use.

Purgatives and cathertics are drastic and usually cause a reaction. Saline waters are rapid in action but do no more than empty the bowels.

Just as certain an effect, and certainly a much more ment one, can be obtained by the use of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It acts gently, without griping. It is an especially ideal medicine for children; women, old people and others who find purges too powerful.

Only a teaspoonful is required, and by morning the movement is free and complete. A bottle in the house is insurance for the whole family against constipation, indigestion, headaches, flatulency and other digestive illa.
