BOWLERS EAGER FOR

Several House Leagues Are Organized Locally and Fans Expect Some Keen Competition.

One week from tomorrow and the forthwest International bowling chamnorthwest international bowling cham-plonships will get away to a flying start in Vancouver, B. C., with the prospects of three Portland teams be-ing entered for titular homors. The tournament will run from March 24 to March 29. To date nearly 60 five-man teams have sent in their entry blanks. The two Portland teams are the M. I. Kille correspondence for the forthand L Kline aggregation and the Portland alleys five. The third team is not composed exclusively of Portland men, but rolls all of its games in this city. It is the Standifer Shipbuilding com-

Although the north-west international tournament opens in Vancouver, B. C., on March 24, the M. L. Kline team will not be called upon to bowl until Friday night, March 27. The team will leave here Wednesday afternoon and take on the Fope-Sibley team Wednesday night, leaving Seattle for Vancouver after the game. The Pope-Sibley team won the five-man championship in the northwest interna-tional bowling tournament in Seattle in 1916. Draw:

. . . The White Pine team of the United States Forestry Service longue is hold-ing first place with a three-game lead.

The Railroad league got away to a nice start last week with four teams ready for a 15 week schedule. The Irvington team is still leading the Victory league bowling on the Oregon alleys. The St. Nicholas Cafeteria team won three games in its series and now is tied for second position with the Bergmann Shoe company.

The Toke Point Oyster Grille and Oregon alleys teams postponed last week's games in the Commercial A league. The Rose City team, captnined by Bob Cole, took Grant Smith-Porter into camp for two out of three games.

The Pacific Paper company and Hon-eyman Hardware teams of the Mer-cantile league each won two games last week and retained their lead.
