TEAMS IN LEAGUE Title at Detroit, Michigan,

Cody will accompany Miss Payne. It is very likely that Mr. Cody will make

The 1913 interscholastic baseball the trip. Harry Fischer, secretary and swimschedule will be drawn up by the high marry riscner, secretary and swim-ming trustee of the winged "M" insti-tution, telegraphed the Michigan or-ganization yesterday formally advising them that the pride of the women's annex of the local club will defend her school coaches at a meeting at Multnomah ciub next Thursday afternoon. Nine achools will play baseball this year, Christian Brothers, dropping out the league. The schools to have of the league. The schools to have teams again this season will be Jef-ferson, Washington, Lincoln, Frank-lin, Benson, Columbia, Commerce, James John and Hill. By the middle of this week all of the coaches will have neveral teams limbering up and by next week prac-tice will be well under way. Several of the schools already have turned out for indoor work in the zimmaalum, but won from her teammate, Constance Meyer.

4 HOCKEY TEAMS MAY PLAY

Seattle and Vancouver May Meet

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 15 -Four for indoor work in the gymnaslum, but little or no outside work has been done yet. ockey clubs. Montreal Ottawa, Van-ouver and Scattle, may meet in a series n Seattle and Vancouver next week or the world's hockey championship. all of the schools are well supplied with letter men and some fast teams should take the field this season.

Franklin win the championship last ear but will lose its pitcher, Ed hompson. Thompson worked like a has suggested that the coming east and west series be made a four-club affair, as Montreal, the eastern champions, and Ottawa, the runners up, are on their big leaguer on the mound for the Quakers last year and fanned an average of about 12 men per game. Tucker, last year's Franklin catcher, also will missing. Both Thompson and Tucker training corps at Oregon Agricoltural College last year and played on the Aggle football squad. Both are now in Portland, but are through as far as high schools are concerned.

New Talent to Be Used.

Coach White will have to work hard to make up for the loss of Thompson and Tucker, but hopes to fill the breach from the following who have signified their intentions of turning signified their intentions of turning cut: "Skin" Reynolds, Hallier, Jones, Zehrung, "Babe" Hobson, Harry Thomas, Charley Thomas, Blake, Knight, Bennett and Whetstone, Harry Thomas, Reynolds, Jones and Zehrung played baseball at Franklin last season and will form the medians of this year's and will form the nucleus of this year's

George Dewey will coach the Lincoln team and will have four letter men in Irve Cole, Gallo, Helmke and Enkelis to build this year's nine around. Others at Lincoln who are out for positions are Beck, Stien, Barton, Wright, Leo-petta, Kingsley, Harris Clow and Berry. As yet a coach has not been named as yet a coach has not been handed belaring themselves ready for base-ball and will turn out next week. The last year men back at Jefferson are Andrews, Laird, Gray, Julian, Anderson and Hammett. Youmans and Coulter, both crack baseball players, are eligible season and will strengthen the Jeff lineup.

Washington Outlook Bright.

Dr. W. A. Fenstermacher again will in charge of the diamond game at be in charge of the diamond game at Washington, and with his star pitcher Scott back in company with several other letter men, the outlook for this coach baseball. Cricket is to be played coach base called, but some sort of light inc. coach base or heen called, but some sort of light first time. Among those who have signed up for baseball at Washington so far are Ritchie, Edlund. Ragenovich, Scott, Pelerson, Irvine, Clark, Rowley, Mc-Cardy, Hayden, Haak and Dolph. Dolph Is captain of this year's Washington

Couch Murphy is not enthusiastic over his prespects at Commerce, but is ready to make the best of them. Those who will answer first call for baseball at Commerce will be Anderson, Grider, Paulbach, Oliver, Mock, Wagner, Rich-ardson, Masters, Stringham and Bastian Harman Cook, who will look after the destining of the Columbia University team, is very optimistic for this season and hopes to have his aggregation well up in the running. First he will have Tony Dwyer, inst years all-star third-basemati back. Other speedy letter men who are ready for another season are Bert Jacubberger, Ray Keating. Pete Sweeney, Johnson, Murphy and Dris-coll. Among the new men out who look promising are Cook, Manning, Walker, McKiel, Schacker, Nettleton and Dunn-lingan. Herman Cook, who will look afte SHARM.

Benson Prospects Good.

Coach Campbell at James John has rothing to comptain about. He will have John Wulf, Dick Girt, Johnson, Hiatt, Toole and a number of others to mold a team this season. Wulf pitched fair ball last year and should show vast improvement this season. Benson had a presty mond hall com

Benson had a pretty good ball club last season and should have even a better one this year. Young Baker, brother of Del Baker, crack Portland calcher, is the first string schools for eatcher, is the first string pitcher for Benson. He worked like a veterar in several of last scason's games, but in other contests was inclined to be a little wild. With a scason's experi-gues he should be just right. Other ballplayers at Bennon are Scott, Len-nox, Campbell, Ferguson, Durham, Palmer, Etchels, Lind, Connolly, Cooper, and Sherritt. About .6 others are expected to turn out for the team at
