THE SUNDAY, OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, MARCH 16, 1919.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES OF CITY MAKE DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Budget of First Church Estimated at $60,000 for the Year, of Which $34,000 Will Be Used in Benevolent Work.

the afternoon of Sunday, March 23. The afternoon of Sunday, March 22, Budgets have been estimated, making amount of lits benevolence. The sub-ject of the morning sermon will be "The New Era of Stewardship." In the evening Dr. Milligan will preach the first of a series of five pre-Easter sermons on the "Trial and Death of Jesus." The subject of the first will be "His Betraval and Arrest."

The budget of the First Presbyterian The budget of the First Presbyterian Church has been estimated at $60,000. Of this amount $25,000 will go for cur-rent expenses and $34,000 for church benevolence. This entire amount will be raised in the one afternoon, accord-ing to the campaign committee, of which D. A. Pattullo is head. Mr. Pat-tullo has appointed two coloneis, James F. Ewing for the west side and H. C. Ewing for the east side church. Under each colonel ten capitains will work. each colonel ten captains will work. The city has been divided into 20 dis-tricts. Each district has been alloted to a captain, who will be assisted by ten lieutenants. Thus it will be possible to visit every member of the church. A flying squadron has been appointed to assist with special work of the campaign. Each Presbyterian church in the city has effected a similar organization, with the same results

Foday, the second Sunday in Lent, will be observed by special sacramental services in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches. Sectarian churches are also observing the lenten weason with rallies, evangelistic work and as a special season of prayer.

Musical Programme at First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Boyd Will Preach Both Morning and Evening.

T the First Presbyterian church, corner Twelfth and Alder streets, the pastor, Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., will preach both morning and evening. In the morning he will continue along the line which was started on last Sun-day with a further discussion of the to the local church. His subject in the morning will be "The Challenge of the Hour." In the evening at 7:30 Dr. Boyd will continue his evangelistic series as prein the evening at 1:30 DF. Hoyd will continue his evening is anthem by the quartet will be maratory to Easter. The subject will be "Why Christ Failed With the Crowd." The evening music will be of special interest. Franck Elchenlaub will lead a string quartet which will play: (a) "impromptu" (Schubert): (b) "Andante Cantabile" (Tschalkow-sky).

This quartet will be composed of Charles E. South (violin), M. Chr'aten-sen (viola), Franck Elchenlaub (vio-lin): Wayland J. Cornish (violin-cello), with Edgar E. Coursen at the organ. Mr. Coursen also will give a neeled. Mr. Coursen also will give a prejude on the organ with the following pro-grammie: (a) "Evening Prayer" (Shel-ley): (b) "Chorus of Angels" (Clark); (c) "Minuet" (Tours).

Rev. Thomas Jenkins, rector of St. David's church, will begin a series of sermons on "Creed and Conduct" this morning. This evening he will preach fourth address of a series. At the opening of the service Professor Tom Taylor will conduct a short hymn

Dr. David Downie of Pasadena and recently of Nellore, South India. is visiting in Portland and speaking at the various Baptist churches. Dr. Downle is known as the veteran mis-sionary of India. He will meet with He will meet with the ministers at the White Temple at 2:50 Monday and will speak on re-ligious work in the Orient.

League of Nations, Topic of Unitarian Debate. H. H. Herdman and Robert Treat "His Betrayal and Arrest.

Episcopal Churches to Hold Sunday School Rally Day. Bishop Sumner Announces Dates of Annual Visitations to Diocese.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY DAY will be observed by the Episcopal churches today when there will be a re-enrollment of pupils. The Sunday schools are also making a special efthe fort during Lent for missions. The been collective offerings will be presented at a service at the pro-cathedral, to be at a service at the pro-cathedral, to be held under the auspices of the dio-cesan board of religious education shortly after Easter. At St. Michael and All Angels' church the Rev.T. F. Bowen is giving a special course fo sermons. His topic Sunday morning will be "The Piace of the Bible in the Religion of Jesus." Bishop Summer has announced the dates of his annual visitations in the ducess for confirmation, the first be-ing at St. Helen's hall, March 25. He will begin the visitation of the churches in southern Oregon March 27. and of those in Portland April 6.

0

Q

churches in southern Oregon March 27, and of those in Portland April 6. The monthly meeting of the Church School Institute will be held at the pro-cathedral Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. An address on "The Attitude of the Sunday School Pupil and How to Regard it" will be given by Pro-fessor James F. Ewing, educational di-rector, First Presbyterian church. A special Sunday evening service is

"How Think of God," Theme of Rev. Mr. Willard.

First Congregational Church Has Programme of Greater Activities.

cumstances, and the women are planning a campaign of church calling. in addition to their weekly meeting creasing in interest and attendance. A take for his theme this morning at campaign of church calling.

The articles, which began in the March I issue of the Post, have been widely read, and Dr. Pence's estimate will prove of intense interest to Portland-during the lenten season:

R EV. JOSHUA STANSFIELD, pastor instructive slides will be used. The programme will be under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary RGANIZATION is practically com-pleted for the united drive of the Presbyterian churches to be held is hoping to more than double the afternoon of Sunday, March 22, gets have been estimated, making the allowance for the increase in the increase in the respective addresses that is more than double the amount of its benevolence. The sub-increase in the respective addresses that is more than double the amount of its benevolence. The sub-its more of the increase in the respective addresses that is more of the increase in the respective addresses that is more of the increase in the respective addresses that is more of the increase in the respective addresses that is more of the increase in the respective addresses that is more of the pre-Easter The theme of the pre-Easter

Evangelistic Drive to Culminate at Easter Time.

First United Brethren Church Obtains Many New Members.

vival campaign at Second United Brethren church (Alberta). There have been a number of conversions. Meetings are held each night of the week. J. H. Mathews has charge of week. the mus

Rev. Mr. Hawley is a pastor evangel ist. His subject for the morning is "Will We Suffer After Death?"and for the evening, "Weighed in the Balance and Found Wanting."

Rev. E. O. Shepherd, pastor of Third Nev. E. O. Snephera, pastor of Initia United Brethren church, is also con-ducting a series of evangelistic meet-ings. Services are held each night of the week. The music is in charge of Mr. Smith. Interest is growing. The

Tremont station, some worthy im provements are being installed. Th The A MEMORIAL service for the four soldiers represented by the gold stars on the service flag of Mount Tabor Methodist Episcopal church will be held at the church today. The service flag of the church has 51 stars in all. Of this number three

Tabor Mathodist Episcopal church will be held at the church today. The service flag of the church has 51 stars in all. Of this number three were killed in action in France, Charles Webster, Clifford Harris and Walter Stearns. *The fourth, Eugene Lewton, died from exposure following the sink. "Understanding the Atonement" is the topic of the lecture by Florence Craw-ford this evening at 8 o'clock in the Comforter center, assembly room, Port-land hotel. There will be special music, vocal solos by Andrew Caughey, violin by M. A. Dunham, and piano by Mrs. Zulime Brown. iled from exposure following the sinking of the Tuscania. His father and younger brother are now with the American forces in France. The service at 11 A. M. will consist

Zulima Brown. "The Shepherd Psalm" is the topic

Take for his storet, ways of Pray-11 o'clock "The Strange Ways of Pray-er." At the evening service at 7.30 o'clock the pastor will give the first of a series of four chalk-talks enti-tied. "Three Years in West Africa." a record of personal experiences. The soloist will be Miss Genevieve Stingman Loop. Selections will be rendered by a masculine quartet. At the morning service of Sunny-the Mission will service at 1.30 the Methodist Episcopal church south. will arrive in Portland tomorrow and will preach at the First Methodist church south this evening. Following the service an informal service will be given honoring the bishop, who is one of the noted men of the denomina-tion. Before his election to the episcopacy he was in charge of one of the largest pastorates in the church. of the largest pastorates in the church. He has served as general secretary of the church and was editor of the Meth-odist Review at the time of his election He is well known as author, iast May. He is we poet and preacher.

Portland Training Institute

Sunday. Harley K. Halgren, state president of the Bapilst Young People's Union, will address the White Temple Baptist Young People's Union at 6:15 Sunday evening. Mr. Halgren is a most inter-esting speaker, and all young people are urged to attend this meeting. Miss Elsie Moon will render a solo. The theme of the worship this morn-ing at II o'clock at the First Christian the therme of the worship this morn-ing at II o'clock at the First Christian the therme of the worship this morn-ing at II o'clock at the First Christian the therme of the practical in human life. Each worshiper will receive a copy of the now creed of American business, recently adopted by 5000 business men assembled from the four corners of the United States. At this morning serv-ice Rey Harold I United States. At this morning serv-ice Rev. Harold H. Griffis will have for his special topic "Christ and Common Sense." In the evening at 7:45 the Rov. Mr. Griffis will speak on "The Camel Question or the Responsibilitie of the Rich," a companion sermon to that of last Sunday night on "Jesus and the In preparation teen-age boys and $\begin{array}{c} \label{eq:spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spectral_spe$ girls for the Easter decision services. Rev. Ira Hawley is in a stirring re-

Unitad St. Patrick's Catholic Parish

to Observe Anniversary. Solemn High Mass and Sermon Will Be Followed by Dinner Served in Parish Hall.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHOLIC PARISH in North Portland will celebrate today the 30th anniversary of the loging of the cornerstone of the church, which occurred March 17, 1885, the an-nual feast of St. Patrick to be com-memorated at the same time. The full membership of the Ancient subjects for Sunday are, morning, "Borrowing Religion." evening, "Re-jected and Crucified." At Fourth United Brethren church, Teamont atotics, subject to the large Order of Hibernians, men and women, will be present at the solemn high mass at 11 o'clock. Most Bev. Archilshop Christie will preside and Father George Thompson of the church of the Madeline will preach the special sermon of After the religious solemnities a din-After the religious solemnities a dia-ner will be aerved in the pariah hall, St. Patrick's being one of the oldest Catholic parishes in Portland, large numbers of former parishioners from every part of the city will participate in the exercises of the day. St. Patrick's church was built by Father Patrick clibnes. The present pastor is Rev.

Rev. Mr. Petterson Home

for the morning service at 11 o'clock. James MacWhorter will sing "A Voice in the Wilderness" by John Prindle Pastor Speaks at Eugene, Marsh-field and North Bend. The healing meeting of the Comforter

REV. WILLIAM PETTERSEN, pastor of Bethlehem Norwegian Lutheran The topic for this week's meeting is "Meeting Evil With Truth." church, will occupy his pulpit today both morning and evening. The morning service will be in English, and the sub-service will be in English, and the sub-service will be in English, and the sub-ject will be "The Dumb Spirit." In the evening he will preach in Nor-wegian on "Gold Tried in the Fire." Rev. Mr. Petterson returned Tuesday from a trip to Coos Bay and Eugene. He preached last Sunday in Marsh-field and North Bend. Monday he vis-lted Cushman, a Lutheran settlement, Tuesday evening he lectured in the Y. M. C. A. hut on the university campus in Eugene, to students of liter-ature, on Ibsen's scaperor and Gailleean," and Wednesday evening he addressed a mass meeting of Luther-ans in Unity Lutheran church at Enans in Unity Lutheran church at Eu-gene, on the national Lutheran council drive.

The present pastor is Rev.

From Southern Trip.

teenth and Schuyler streets, will preach this evening on "Colonel Henry Wat-terson's Great Religious Confession." The articles, which began in the March

A T the First Congregational church, Park and Madison streets, the usual services will be held at 10:30 and 7:45 o'clock, with Rev. Wallace W. Willard in the pulpit with the morning theme, "How to Think of God," and in the evening, "The Power of Fersonality." Bible school meets at 12 with an opening talk by Rev. Mr. Willard on the theme, "The Bible," The Bible, "Endeavor at 5:30 P. M., topic, "Envy and Coveteousness," and leader, Amie Condit. The church has a definite pro-gramme of larger activities and a great deal of interest is being taken in the general welfare of the church. The men's brotherhood has begun active work again under very favorable cir-cumstances, and the women are planning a campaign of church calling the the there woekly meeting

Watterson's Religious Confession, Topic. Rev. E. H. Pence of Westminster Will Discuss "Looking Backward" Viewpoint of Colonel.

"The Great Moral Value of the Bible" will be the subject of the sermon by Rev. W. E. Brinkman this morning at

Rev. W. E. Brinkman this morning at Rev. W. E. Brinkman this morning at I at St. James Lutheran church. This evening at 7:30 he will speak on the topic "The Heart Made New." These subjects are the first in the series of special Lenten sermons to be given by the pastor. The Sunday school session is held at 9:50 A. M. The young peo-ple's Luther league meets at 6:45 each Sunday evening. The Thursday even-ing service is at 8 o'clock. The following programme of special sunday and mid-

ers. At the morning service Dr. Pence will preach on "The Most Significant Fact About Us." The church's Bible school is growing rapidly, with classes for all ages, which every one is invited to join. "Capital and Labor in Bible Prophecy or Industrialism's Drive for Could Its Gold." Sunday, March 30, morning, "Christ Yes-terday, Today and Forever"; evening, "Les-sons From the Withered Fig Tree." Thuraday, April 5, "The Grast Pattern." Sunday, April 6, morning, "The Cristis of a Soul"; evening, "The Christian Crusade." Thuraday, April 10, "The Blood of Christ." Paim Sunday, April 13, morning, "The Day of Triumph"; evening, "The Great Lament."

Military Quartet to Sing at First Methodist Church.

"What God Reguires," Topic of Rev. Joshua Stansfield's Sermon.

The service at 11 A. M. will consist of a sermon by the pastor, Rev. E. O. Eldridge, his subject being "Our Heroic Dead." There will also be read an orig-inal poem by C. C. Miller. At the eve-ning service Fred Lockley, a returned Y. M. C. A. worker, will speak. Rev. Robert Murray Pratt, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church, "will take for his subject this morning at

Mt. Tabor Church to Honor

Memory of Soldiers.

Service Commemorating Heroism of Four Boys Announced.

side Methodist church the pastor will speak. In the evening, Rev. L. B. Jones, a returned missionary from India, will give a stereopticon lecture in which a large number of beautiful and instructive slides will be used. The

I. B. Bredman and Robert Treat
I. B. Bre

Gibney

Charles M. Smith.

PORTLAND PASTOR PAYS TRIBUTE TO KHAKI-CLAD HEROES

Rev. Francis Burgette Short Lauds America as "Big Brother" of Overseas Nations.

pitcher ever thereafter to prove abun-dant in its supply of nourishing milk for the tired and hungry that passed that way that way

The story further relates that Philenon was one day transformed into an ouk tree and that Baucis was changed into a linden tree, it being their wish that they might never see death. Love always becomes glorious in strength

The sympathetic heartbeat of these two countries, with so much in com-soul. Death with honor did she lose her mon, was never so rhythmic in unison nor more capable of asserting their re-spective powers in the interest of each other than now. The maternal hands freedom for the enslaved and life for the dying. This is the spirit that was shown by ter to Appomattor, that glowed from Cavite to Santingo; and now the spirit that possessed Washington, that burned in Lincoln, that fiamed in McKinley has wrote: "The body of all true religion consists, to be sure, in obedience to the sovereign of the world, in a confidence in his perfections." The early settlers on

she distributes balm for the wounded.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

God's Influence Felt.

Nor can the world forget God with-out having the way back to his heart strewn with bitter fruit and sorrowful experiences. America has come back to God. The

In den free, it being their wirst street, it being their wirst wirst street, and radiant in beaut.
American Seldiers Landed.
T would bring you a simple appreciation of the southat wirst with a street, and radiant in beaut.
American Seldiers Landed.
T would bring you a simple appreciation of the southat wirst with a street with bitter fruit and eagerfu time from of the southat wirst with bitter fruit and eagerfu time from of the southat wirst with bitter fruit and eagerfu time has the street with bitter fruit and eagerfu time from of the southat democracy shall have an abiding place of as more benevolent civiliand.
American Will and the street with the union jack are in street with with the union jack are in the wide and the union jack are in the default oppreciation.
American Seldiers Landed.
A would bring you a simple appreciation of the southat wirst with a street with bitter fruit and be southat be with a street with bitter fruit and be wird to assess of gratius (in the wild of the southat be with bitter fruit and eagerfu time from of the southat be wird to assess of gratius (in the wild of the southat be with bitter fruit and eagerfu time from of the southat be wird to assess of gratius (in the southat beat to assess of the southat beat to exist the default and the second time wird the second time from of the southat beat to exist the second time from of the southat beat to exist the second time of the southat beat to exist the second time of the southat beat to exist the second time of the southat beat to exist the southat beat the southat beat the southat beat to exist the southat beat to exist the southat beat to exist the southat beat the southat

Having found God and saved her own soul, America has discovered the secret of immortality. God and immortality are complemental and are necessary to the completion of broken and unre-warded lives. George MacDonald said, 'I came from God, and I'm going back to God, and I won't have any gaps of death in the middle of my life." That's a refresting and fertile onsis in the unselfab service thay have readered.

our Pilgrim Fathers from Lexington to Yorktown, that blazed from Fort Sump-ter to Appomattox, that glowed from