Walter Miller, Middleweight Champion, Meets Thy.

Los Angeles Man Says Scotchmen Have Developed Greatest Game for Building Up Body.

Walter Miller, world's middleweight wrestling king, and wrestling instructor at the Los Angeles Athletic club, will arrive in Portland today to complete training for his finish match with Ted Thye at the Hellig theater Wednesday night.

Golf Benefits Reited. "Golf made me arise early in the morning to get advantage of the early morning air. It has helped me keep my weight down and improved my wind and all around condition. Take it from me, the best game ever invented. The professional here (Los Angeles) had a hard task with me at first, but of late I have been playing right along with him."

Ted Thye, the Spokane boy whom Mike H. Butler believes is the greatest middleweight in the world, has been whipping himself into the proverbial "pink" for the past three months, and is confident that he can defeat the champion, who would have wrestled twice before. They went to a lengthy draw on one occasion, with the champion receiving a decision in the second encounter, which took place in San Francisco.

Good Preliminaries, Too. There will be two good preliminaries Wednesday night, the first one commencing at 8:30 P. M. The men will weigh in at 155 pounds at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, which will give Thye the advantage, as he is heavier than the champion. The grapplers will tangle for the best two out of three falls, catch-as-catch-can style.

Jimmy Duffy and Frankie Burns will scrap four rounds at Emeryville, Cal. July 4. Duffy has fired Frank Pascual as his manager and has a right to make for "Traveling Tommy" Simpson. When Burns was training for his last few contests before entering the service, which carried him to the battlefields of France, Duffy was his sparring partner and pupil.

Battling Ortega seems to have lost his old popularity around San Francisco, and through no fault of his own, the curb on the market maker for feeding the battler a pair of set-ups in Salinas, Jack Robinson and Joe Coughlan.

Jim London, who has resided in Canton, O., for the past three years, defeated Pete Visser of Ogdon at the latter city the other night in what reports say was an interesting wrestling match. Visser won the first fall in 25 minutes and 5 seconds, and London the second in 25 minutes and 15 seconds, but refused to allow Visser to finish.

Reports from Boise, Idaho last Monday night told of Konstantine Romanoff of Omaha, heavyweight wrestler, defeating Nick Decourt of Los Angeles in two straight falls. Decourt is none other than Nick Daviscourt, who wrestled as an amateur boy for the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club.

Eddie J. O'Connell, wrestling instructor at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, is of the opinion that Walter Miller will defeat Ted Thye when they meet at the Hellig theater Wednesday night, although the predictions that Thye will give Miller a hard run for his money.

STREAMS LURE FISHERMEN MANY PORTLAND ANGLERS GO TO FAVORITE HAUNTS.

Reports from Almost All Sections of Northwest Indicate Conditions Are Favorable.

Fishing in all streams throughout Washington and Oregon shows much improvement over last week, although heavy rain for a day or two raised some of the streams, with consequent set-back to good fishing conditions.

A flock of local anglers left for their favorite haunts yesterday with more going today and early tomorrow morning.

Following is a summary of reports received from agents of the Southern Pacific company and incorporated in a bulletin issued yesterday:

Gales creek, Forest Grove—Water conditions good. Coachman fly used. Some fair catches reported during past week.

Willamette, Jasper—Water clear. Several small catches made. Hotel at Springfield.

Willamette, Junction City—Water high at this point. Flies and chub bait. Occasional catches made during past week.

Willamette, Clatsop—River clear at this point. Gopher fish, flying caddis and spoon used. Several fine catches reported.

ported with salmon eggs and flies being used. Good catches of rainbow and Dolly Varden trout are reported near Fort Klamath in the Wood river. It is best reached by automobile.

Small Streams Restocked. FOREST GROVE, Or., May 31.—(Special).—Seventy-five thousand trout have been planted in the small streams tributary to Gales creek in this locality, the fish coming from the hatchery at Bonneville. These fish are intended to replenish the streams for next year's fishing. The Forest Grove Commercial club is making an effort to secure the location of a hatchery at or near Gales creek to supply the fish for all streams in this section of the state. Application will be made to Governor Olcott to recommend to the Fish commission that a hatchery be located in this vicinity, as there are many fishing streams in this section of Oregon.

Tommy Simpson has been offered a match with "Speedball" Hayden for his fighter, Battling Ortega, to take place at Columbus, N. M., June 17. If the terms are satisfactory, he will accept.

PROMOTERS' SQUABBLE HAS HAD SOME GOOD RESULTS

Captain of Police Dan O'Brien of San Francisco Inaugurates Some Boxing Reforms.

BY HARRY B. SMITH. SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—The squabble of the promoters—that incident row between Louis Parente of the Coliseum on the one hand and the allies of Dreamland rink on the other—has resulted in some good, at least. Captain of Police Dan O'Brien called the rivals into conference last week and when he had finished with them they certainly had a clearer idea of what's what and just what is expected of them.

The four-round fight before the law regarding medals has been regarded more or less as a joke. In the future, however, they must see to it that every winner is given a trophy.

winners to get medals. O'Brien instructed the matchmakers that there must be a medal for the winner of each contest. This medal must be suitably engraved, bearing the date of the fight and the name of the winner. To make this binding it will serve as a passport for the scrapper in the very next fight following in which he wishes to appear.

Unless he can produce the trophy Mr. Scrapper is going to be in hard luck, for he will be refused the right to fight.

In addition there is to be a strict regulation as regards the boxing gloves. Boys who weigh 145 pounds or more must wear eight-ounce gloves. Those under that weight can put on six-ounce gloves, if they so desire.

Contracts Must Be Kept. Further it is stipulated in the bond there is to be no stealing of fighters in the future. If a chap signs a contract with one fight club he will have to live up to it. And if he doesn't he will be barred from future engagements.

The one loser in all the wrangle seems to be Johnny Ray, the Pittsburgh lightweight. Both sets of promoters insisted that he had signed Ray for last week. O'Brien decided the best thing to do would be to bar Ray. He was allowed to meet Earl Baird last Thursday night for Louis Parente and was told that after that match he would have to leave for other parts.

New Featherweight Champion. We have a new featherweight in our midst and a champion at that. Jimmy Hill, featherweight champion of Australia, and still further recommended by the fact that he is a brother-in-law pers, is that Pinkman refused to fight; that he wanted to run from punches, refused to lead and clinched whenever the opportunity offered.

This doubtless means the finale as far as his California boxing engagements are concerned. Matchmakers sign up boys who are liked by the fans, and Eddie has a standing of anything but that.

Battling Ortega in Oakland. Being barred out of San Francisco by action of the police doesn't seem to bother Battling Ortega very much. For three weeks hand running he has been the main event in the Oakland municipal auditorium shows held under the management of Tommy Simpson, who is likewise the manager of Ortega.

Trus enough, Ortega has had nothing difficult to tackle in the way of opponents. However, he is quite a popular idol with the Oakland fans and as long as he wins they are satisfied. His Butte, Mont. engagement fell by the wayside and the Battler is contented to pick up what coin he can with the small chaps of the ring game.

Martin Denny, one-time Australian featherweight, who made his home for so long in Portland and more recently came to California, has finally settled in Napa. Martin went to Princeton-by-the-sea, which is not far from Half Moon Bay in San Mateo county, and conducted a hotel there. Also he had training quarters for fighters.

But Martin had an opportunity to dispose of that property at a profit to himself. In consequence he sold out and is now located in the hotel game in Napa, where he plans to remain.

ONE-DAY TOURNEYS PROPOSED Suggestion Made That Wednesday Matches Be Thrown Open.

In the events scheduled for 1919, golf clubs should consider giving a one-day open tournament a place of their program. The custom of golfers taking a mid-week holiday for a round or two of golf, preferably Wednesday, insures a big entry list. On these mid-week holidays four-ball matches are very popular. Why not once a year bring together at each club a large field in an 18-hole medal play handicap. Clubs should be invited to play in tournaments should welcome a one-day open tournament.

Whilst medal play competition is usually a two-ball match, for this tournament it could be played in four-ball matches. The many trade associations in their one-day medal play tournaments should welcome a one-day open tournament.

Men of affairs who enjoy golf, but cannot afford the time and energy for three-day tournament play, would welcome a mid-week competition limited to 18 holes. Each club would schedule a one-day handicap sometime between May and October so there could be one every week, Wednesday being preferable.

The additional daylight hour extends the playing time so that all could finish, in fact, most players could get in two rounds. Clubs should give this one-day tournament a trial, as all golfers will enjoy the pleasure of visiting centers other than their own and the zest that open competition gives to the game.

TRACK ENTRIES INCREASE

PACIFIC COAST STARS SLATED FOR NORTHWEST CLASSIC.

Neither Vere Windnagle Nor "Mose" Payne Will Be Able to Attend Inter-Allied Events.

As the date of the Pacific Northwest association championship track meet on Multnomah field, June 14, draws near, interest in the events increases.

Among the colleges and universities to be represented are the University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural college, Washington State college, the University of Washington, Whitman college, University of Idaho and the University of Montana. Cities that will be represented by club teams are Seattle, Spokane, Vancouver, B. C., and Portland with probable entries from San Francisco.

George Philbrook is now in touch with the Spokane Athletic club and is endeavoring to get the inland empire institution to line up one of the strongest teams in the country to send to the P. N. A. meet. With the University of Idaho, the University of Montana, Whitman college, Gonzaga college and its local talent to draw from the Spokane Athletic club could muster one of the best teams on the coast.

H. Williams, sensational sprinter of the Spokane Athletic club who ran the 100 yards in 9 4-5 seconds at the far western championships in San Diego on August 20, 1916, has written Philbrook that he is conditioning himself and intends to enter the P. N. A. championships. He did not say in the letter what organization he would represent, but it is likely that he will compete under the colors of the Spokane Athletic club.

While all of the colleges and universities mentioned may not have full teams entered because of the lateness of the date the best of the athletes of each will be on hand for championship honors. Some great marks are being set in both track and field events throughout the northwest this season, which stimulates interest in the coming meet. With such men as H. Williams of Spokane, Foster of Oregon, Carter and Snook of Oregon Agricultural college, Arthur Tuck of Redmond, Ralph Thayer of Multnomah club, Richmond of Idaho, Dalley of Washington available for the sprints there should be some events worth traveling miles to see. Tuck, Richmond, Carter and Williams have marks of 10 flat or less in the 100 while Dalley, Snook and Foster have turned the distance in 10 1-5.

Neither Vere Windnagle nor "Mose" Payne, the two Multnomah Amateur Athletic athletes named by the championship committee of the American Athletic Union to make the trip to France to compete in the inter-allied games next month, will be able to cross the pond for the event. As the team is scheduled to leave the United States on June 3 they could hardly make arrangements in time to enter. Both will be on hand for the P. N. A. meet on June 14 and the Pacific coast championships in Tacoma in July. Windnagle and Payne are both in good condition after several months of consistent training and if they do not set some new marks their specialties it will be a surprise.

A five-mile run will be one of the features of the P. N. A. and it is likely that both Windnagle and Payne will enter. If Windnagle runs the 440, 880 and mile he may not take on the five-mile event. Payne is an assured entry in the five-mile grind and is out to break the Pacific coast record.

As an added attraction at the P. N. A. meet Philbrook is arranging to hold a set of relay races for grammar and high school teams. A handsome cup will be up for each winning team.

Ralph Underwood Returns. Ralph Underwood, the 125-pound Pacific coast amateur boxing champion, who fought under the colors of the Multnomah club before the war, has been mustered out of the service and is working out at the club the past week. Underwood was to have appeared in the recent A. E. P. tournament in Paris, but his company was ordered home before the event took place. Underwood was with the signal corps overseas.

Gordon to Meet Edwards or Ridley. Sammy Gordon, Portland bantamweight, has signed for a match with either Danny Edwards or Bud Ridley at Seattle on June 10. Sammy has been training for several weeks and is in good condition. He should give either Edwards or Ridley a tough battle.
