

SOCIETY

Mrs. Ray Sweeney, who was Eva Jacobsen until Wednesday.

Mrs. Frederick Maxton Strong, another charming bride of the week.

Miss Mary Dunn, popular girl whose engagement was announced.

Mrs. John O. Baker (Ruth Farrell), an attractive bride of the week.

(Continued from Page 1.)
brothered in self tones, and she carried a huge arm bouquet of flame-colored anemones.
Garden flowers in all the array of early summertime decked the rooms and also the supper table, over which Mrs. C. O. Richards and Mrs. W. M. Embodenstock presided.
They were assisted in serving by the Misses Lucille Bronaugh, Norma Redman and Helen N. Wheeler.
Following the reception Dr. and Mrs. Sweeney left for a trip to San Francisco. Upon their return they will make their home in Chicago. Dr. Sweeney is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sweeney of Kelso and is a post-graduate of the Northwestern university, at Chicago. His bride is a U. of O. girl and is very popular in Portland. Dr. Sweeney also is a graduate of the U. of O., recently returned from army service.

Cards have been issued by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, for a talk to be given by Dr. Bertha Stuart on the "Work of the Red Cross in France," at the Little Theater Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The talk will be followed by tea at the residence of Mrs. Gerlinger, 777 Flanders street, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Musical numbers will be given by David Campbell, pianist, who also recently returned from overseas.

Complimenting Mrs. Robert A. Sharon, who recently came to this city with her husband to make their home, Miss Genevieve Butterfield yesterday entertained with a charming tea, at which Miss Geraldine Courson also shared honors. Miss Courson's wedding to Maurice Barnes will be an event of Wednesday.
The Butterfield residence was aglow with a charming array of vivid-hued garden flowers, the lovely pink-petaled "Thousand Beauties" being effectively arranged in the drawing room. Baskets and bowls of the pretty blue delphinium and pink Canterbury bells also were used in the drawing room and reception rooms, while the dining room was adorned with Ophelia roses and pink sweet peas. About 100 of the younger matrons and maids called to greet the honor guests. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. Alfred Smith and Mrs. Norris Gregg. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Harold Sanford, Misses V'ona Guthrie, Gretchen Klosserman, Elizabeth Boyd, Louise Caswell and Mary Blossom.
Mrs. Sharon is a charming young matron, and both she and Mr. Sharon are welcomed to Portland society.

Mab Means Cleanliness

Mab means cleanliness to the housewife who knows.

MAB CLEANS

Painted walls and woodwork, linoleum and tile.

DISSOLVES GRIME

From bathtub and wash bowl.

POLISHES

Aluminum and brass.

Your grandmother used soft soap.
Your mother used hard soap.
You have had scouring compounds.
Your daughter will solve the cleaning problems with Mab.

Mab dissolves dirt and grease.
It is the genuine grease foe.

ASK YOUR DEALER ABOUT IT AND FOR IT

Mab Sales Company 234 Worcester Bldg. Phone Main 3308

"SURE AN' IT CLEANS"

Final Sale

We Are Closing Out Children's Clothes

Mothers, this is your opportunity to buy everything for daughter's vacation wear at prices that have been cut so low as to mean many dollars saved. There is everything for girls from 4 to 14 years—dresses, suits and coats. We are discontinuing girls' clothing and must sell at once regardless of our loss. Come in while there is a good assortment to select from.

The Betty Shop

380 Alder Street, Near Tenth

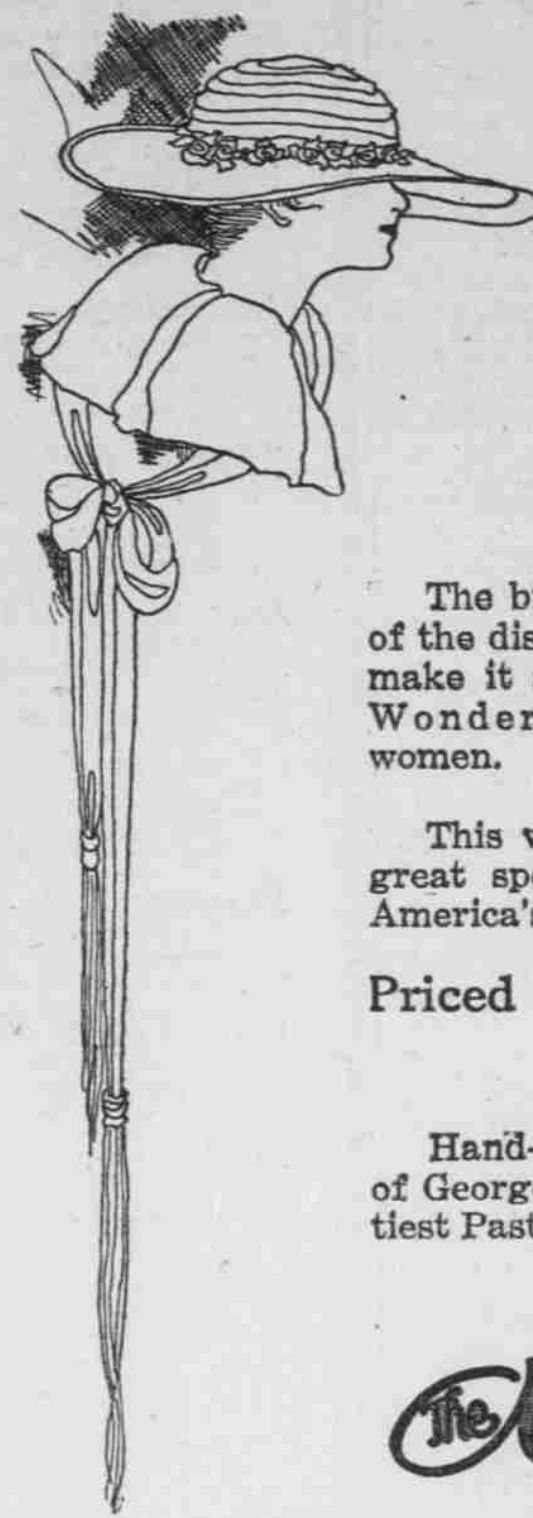

a reception at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robert Porter.

Mrs. Guy Robert Porter will be matron of honor and the bridesmaids will be Misses Helen and Jean Porter of Spokane, cousins of the bride-elect; Miss Isabel Clark and Miss Sara Patrick. James C. Fitzsimmons, a prominent San Franciscan, will be best man, and the guests will be ushered by Eric V. Hauser Jr., George P. Stanley, Oliver B. Huston, Guy R. Porter and Phillip Patterson.

This couple also has been delightfully and extensively entertained, the present week to be repaid with social courtesies in their behalf.

George Lawrence and daughters, the Misses Sophia and Mabel, have moved to their new home, 468 Montgomery drive. Their former residence on Twenty-third and Flanders is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Winch.

The Devil Dog club of Portland, composed of a group of men of the United States marine corps who have been

Hand in Hand With Summer Time Comes the Opening of the Summer Season

Hundreds of new Summer Hats shown for the first time Monday.

The bigness of it all—the immensity of the displays—the number of hats will make it a memorable occasion for the Wonder Millinery and for Portland women.

This wonderful collection of hats, a great special purchase from one of America's foremost milliners.

Priced Special for Monday
$12.50

Hand-made hats, no two alike, made of Georgette crepe and silk in the daintiest Pastelle tints.

The Wonder MILLINERY Sixth at Alder

Welcome to Our City, Members of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association

Liebes Presents Monday
A Radiant Assemblage of

Newest Creations in Lovely Summer Blouses

—So becoming, dainty, fresh and distinctive as to cause an early attendance when the store opens at 9 o'clock Tomorrow Morning

These blouses express the individuality which Liebes style service is so notably successful in obtaining for our patrons, and yet because of the buying ability of the Liebes organization we are able to offer them at prices

—Much less than might be expected

Hand-made Blouses of Voile or Organdie

Exquisitely styled and made with hand embroidery, dainty Val and filet laces. The square neck, collarless and roll collar models offer a splendid variety for choice. $10, $12.50 and $15.

Selling will begin promptly with opening of the doors

Very Charming Blouses at $5.95 and $8.50

Voile and Batiste are so exquisitely fashioned with Venice, Val laces and hand hemstitchings as to give them the appearance of much higher values. Panel fronts and back closings, round neck and rolling collars make them very distinctive. Handsomely tailored models are also shown.

Silk and Lingerie Undergarments unusually low in cost

Envelope Chemises of silks, washable satins, $3.95, $4.95
Philippine Gowns and Envelope Chemises $2.95 & $3.95
Satin or Crepe de Chine Gowns at... $3.95 to $5.95

Camisoles 95c, $2.45 and $3.50
Crepe de Chine, Wash Satin and Georgette in popular slip-over models daintily trimmed with laces, ribbons in contrasting colors, or embroidery.

Suits at $35

Strikingly styled Suits in box and semi-tailored models, in beautiful qualities of

Serge and Tricotine

Enhanced with clever applications of braid, rows of buttons, and broadcloth vests. Plain and fancy silk linings contrast with the navy blue which is greatly favored.

Capes, Dolmans at $29.50

Youthful and charming vogues are they, well tailored of

Serge Velour and Tricotine

with belts, "stitcherie" and fancy buttons to give variety to the designs. Many are with fancy silk linings.

Dresses $31.75

Richly styled of Satin, Foulard, Beaded Georgette, Jersey, Serge with yarn embroidery, beads, and soutache braid trimmings, tunics and vests. You will be surprised at the fine quality of the materials and variety of models; for these Dresses, as marked, are exceptional values.

H. Liebes & Co.

Established 1864 FURS
149-151 BROADWAY

Be sure to plan on bringing your Rose Festival visitors to this beautiful store.

Put your winter Furs in the care of Furriers for summer storage.

Liebes' vaults are maintained at 20 degrees below freezing temperature.