there will be a supper at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Knight in Irvington.

The bride-elect, who is popular socially and is well known as a writer, has been entertained during the past week at a number of dinner parties.

Mr. Hill is a Yale graduate, a member of the University and Multnomah clubs and is president of the Hill military academy.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Frudholme and children, Frances, Beatrice, William and Edward, are occupying their cottage at Gearhart.

Miss Dorothy Flegel has returned from an extended stay in the East. She visited friends in Washington, D. C., and New York City.

Miss Cornelia Tevis has returned from California with her sister, Miss Virginia, who has just graduated from Miss Barker's school in Palo Alto. Miss Tevis was entertained in San Francisco and other bay cities during her stay.

Portland friends are welcoming Miss Mary Frances Isom, who has returned from several months in France. She visited relatives in the east en route to Portland.

The list of graduates of the University of Washington, Seattle, includes William T. Nightingale of Portland. He

Saturday afternoon, June 14. Thirty-five colleges were represented, Oregon agricultural college, University of Washington, University of Nebraska, University of Michigan, University of Illinois, University of Iowa, and the University of Kansas. An interesting programme of toasts and musical numbers followed the luncheon. Several piano selections were given by Miss Eugenia McNaughton of Kansas; Miss Mary Stuart Erwin, of Iowa, sang a group of songs; Miss Emma Craft of Oregon agricultural college, gave two violin selections.

Officers elected were: Mrs. Harry Wend Hopkins, president; Miss Gertrude Walling, vice-president; Miss Gertrude Manary, secretary and Miss Clara Hedlund, treasurer. The next regular meeting of the sorority will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph E. Withrow, 705 Davis street.

In honor of J. Coulson Hare's birthday anniversary, Mrs. Hare entertained members of the Wednesday Evening card club Sunday at Hollywood, near Hillsboro. The Hares have been members of the club for several years. The day was spent in picnicking at the Hare country place. Twenty-four friends motored out for the day.

A number of the members of the Chi-Omega sorority at O. A. C. spent the week in Portland, coming here for the wedding of Miss Helen Wheeler and Thomas Van Orsdel. The bride is a member of the Corvallis chapter. Among those from out of town were Miss Gene Henderson of Havermont, Wash.; Miss Naomi Beckwith, Salem, and Miss Dierdre Carnes, North Powder.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude V. Bowman (Edna Church) are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, born Monday at the Portland maternity hospital. He has been named Wentworth Alfred, after his two grandfathers.

The Woman's society of the White Temple was delightfully entertained at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. M. Runyon, 537 Main street. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. W. S. Waldo, Mrs. C. C. Pollard, Mrs. William MacGregory, Mrs. D. E. Waste. Songs by Miss Bessie Owen were much enjoyed. The house was pretty with roses and ferns. The regular monthly business meeting was presided over by Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison, president.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Lang, 523 Milwaukee avenue, was the scene of a very attractive wedding Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Marie Antoinette Lang, was given in marriage to Charles E. Raymond, the Rev. J. J. Staub, D. D., of the Sunnyside Congregational church, officiating.

The bride was attired in white satin and silver and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Esther Stump, wore a charming frock of green satin and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The wedding march was played by Miss Leonthina Goehring. Raymond R. Staub acted as best man.

Mrs. Raymond is a graduate of Washington high school and is a popular member of Phi Alpha Kappa sorority. Mr. Raymond is a University of Washington man, and a member of the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left for a tour of the east and south. They will make their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Clarkson will entertain at dinner Tuesday for James Willett Oliver of Chicago, whose marriage to their sister, Miss Kathryn Riddle, will take place Wednesday. Covers were laid for 12.

Miss Mildred McClung has returned from Seattle, where she has been attending the University of Washington. She will resume her studies there in the fall.

Miss Florence Towle became the bride of W. E. Townsend June 8 at a pretty wedding ceremony at the Sunnyside M. E. church. The Rev. Mr. Ineson officiated. The church was decorated with palms and baskets of roses and sweet peas. The wedding march was played by Frank Sanders and Miss Edith Towle, sister of the bride, sang "At Dawning" and "Because."

The bride wore a gown of white beaded Georgette crepe and large white hat. Her bouquet was arranged in a shower of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Olive Towle, a sister of the bride and Miss Bertha Watt, a sorority sister, were her attendants. W. Shattuck was best man.

A dinner followed in the blue room of the Portland hotel. Covers were placed for 30.

The bride formerly attended Oregon Agricultural college where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta. Mr. Townsend is a graduate of the Portland academy and a member of Sigma Gamma Pi. After an extended motor trip through Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Townsend will make their home at an attractive bungalow on the Columbia River highway.

Two weddings in one day was the record of the family of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Brown, of the Washington apartments, whose daughters, Lucile and Madeline, were wed on Tuesday. Lucile chose 8 o'clock in the morning as the time for her wedding, which was at St. Mary's church, with Father Daly officiating, and only the relatives and attendants, Miss Genevieve Hoffman and Harold Maier, present. The bride was attired in a handsome robe of white satin with net overdrapes, a long veil, and she carried white roses and sweet peas arranged in shower effect. Miss Hoffman, bridesmaid, wore Nile green organdie and carried pink sweet peas.

After the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast and a reception at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Maier then went to the pro-cathedral and was an attendant for her sister, Miss Madeline Brown, who became the bride of Clarence W. Emerson. Father E. V. O'Hara officiated.

A bevy of pretty sorority sisters, members of Phi Alpha Kappa, attended the bride. They all wore organdie dresses, but all were of different shades of delicate colors and the hats were of maline to correspond with the frocks. The bride's gown was of Duchess satin trimmed with lace and pearls and she wore a lace-edged veil arranged in graceful fashion and depending from a coronet. The bouquet was of white roses and lilies.

Frederick Goodrich played the wedding march and Mrs. Fred L. Olson sang an appropriate solo.

Virginia Brown was maid of honor and her gown was of cloth of silver draped in Georgette and net, and she carried lavender sweet peas and pink snapdragons. May and Joe Ahern, twin niece and nephew of the bride, were the ringbearer and flower girl. The girls attending were Helene Dorcas, Pauline Granning, Louise Butler, Lina Brown, Edna Ford, May Beaver, Elsie Shirley, Elvira Anderson, Effie Tyrell, Genevieve Hoffman, Louise Teedale, Florence Briggs, Hazel Wieden, Marie Lang, Eva Bosovich and Mrs. Raymond Maier (Lucile Brown).

Both brides are graduates of Jefferson high school. Mr. Maier is connected with the Pacific Grain company and Mr. Emerson is a young business man of Portland.

The marriage of Miss Kathleen Wright and Paul C. Bohn was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 11, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Wright, 733 Patton road, Portland Heights. The Episcopal ring service was
