HIBERNIANS TO CELEBRATE JULY 4

Sports of Ireland are to be revived on July 4 by the Ancient Order of Hibernians if present plans for the annual picnic and field day at Council Crest mature. The organization has among its members several first-class athletes, who are willing to meet all comers in such events as hammer throwing, stone casting, hop, step and jump, and pole vaulting.

ITALIANS DISCUSS POLITICS

Over one hundred members of the Italian-American Republican club attended the regular monthly meeting at Uffer's hall, Milwaukee and Earl streets last Sunday afternoon. Plans for participating in the coming presidential campaign were discussed. An address on the political situation was delivered by T. E. Neuhausen, who served during the 1916 campaign as vice-chairman of the Oregon Hughes campaign committee.

TRIBUTE PAID DR. STOKY

A tribute to George B. Storky of Portland, who has been in the service of the navy, is contained in the Wigwag, the official publication of the officers and board aboard the battleship Prince of Wales. Dr. Storky was medical officer aboard the vessel for some time. "Probably there is no one who has left a good ship whose departure is more keenly regretted by officers and men than that of Dr. Storky," says the Wigwag, a copy of which has been received here. The 14th division paid him a splendid tribute, standing at attention to say farewell and wish him bon voyage and adieu.

ALASKANS TO DANCE

The Alaska society will give a "four-day excursion" on the Swan, Tuesday night, leaving Jefferson-street wharf at 8 o'clock. There will be dancing, music and a general good time. The outing is for the benefit of the fund with which Alaskans hope to advertise Portland and its attractions in Alaska. Arrangements are being made for a meeting to be held soon with Judge M. F. Moran of Alaska as the speaker. Judge Moran, who has been here this spring, has not been "outside" Alaska in 26 years.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF PLUMBERS ORGANIZED

The women's auxiliary of the Portland Master Plumbers' association was organized at the Builders' exchange hall Tuesday night. O. G. Hugson, manager of the Builders' exchange, called the meeting to order and explained the objects of the society. The election resulted as follows: President, Luella Signer; vice-president, Beona Burditt; secretary, Rachel Fullman; treasurer, Leona Root.

COLONEL KEPHART TO LEAVE

Colonel Samuel A. Kephart, who has been in charge of recruiting work in this section for some months, has been ordered overseas and will leave shortly to report at Hoboken, N. J. It is probable that he will be given command of a heavy artillery regiment with the army of occupation. Colonel Kephart will be relieved here by Colonel Charles H. Martin.

ELKS ATTENTION

All Elks, their wives and daughters who are willing to work in the Salvation Army home service campaign, beginning Monday, should telephone immediately to Broadway 2086, or leave name at Elks-Salvation Army headquarters, ground floor, Elks' building, Broadway and Stark street.—Adv.

WAR SERVICE PAGEANT IN AUGUST—The historical background of the northwest which resulted in the largest proportionate number of voluntary enlistments and the finest physical records of the nation during the war will be the theme of a pageant being written by Mrs. Adah Rose and Mrs. Norman Christie of the war camp community service. The city park board and Miss Jackson, director of the city at the central library, have agreed to cooperate with the war camp community service in the production of this pageant. In August, a dance illustrative of allegorical parts of the pageant will be taught by supervisors in all the community centers. The pageant will take place on the city parks and will be the closing demonstration of their summer work.

BOY SCOUTS TO LIGHT PEACE BLAZE

The Boy Scouts all over the world are going to light large signal fires on the night following the signing of peace terms. A chain of fires built by the scouts is to signal the glad news. The scouts of Portland have completed arrangements to build a large fire on Healy heights, just south of Council Crest, and all scouts will be in attendance. The programme will include speeches, singing, snake dance, scout yells and one grand fire. The Multnomah Fuel company has donated two cords of fuel to add to the blaze, and Vogan Candy company is furnishing the boys with all treats. The fire will be visible from all parts of the city and throughout the Vancouver area.

EXTENDED VISIT EAST TO BE MADE

Professor E. B. Hughson and family left during the week on an extended visit to various cities. They will be the guests of Professor Hughson's mother in Columbus, O., and will visit Mrs. Hughson's family at Sparta, Wis. E. B. Hughson, who has just received his discharge from the navy, returned home Tuesday. While in the service he was sent to assist in installing the naval station at the Great Lakes naval station. Mrs. Hughson (Mirrah McMillan), who has been east with her husband, returned with him to Portland.

SUMMER SPORTS PLANNED FOR GIRLS

Girls who would care to join free swimming or tennis classes for the summer months are requested to meet at the Soldiers and Sailors' club house, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The classes are being organized by Mrs. Norman Christie and Miss Adele Wapner of the war camp community service. Persons skilled in swimming or tennis are asked to assist the war camp community service by offering their services as instructors. The classes will be held in the Sellwood community house.

PARTY REACHES GOVERNMENT CAMP

The families of M. M. Robinson and E. G. Huxley of Portland composed the first camping party to government camp this season. On June 15, after considerable hard climbing through the melting snow in the timber, which is still six to eight feet deep, they succeeded in reaching the timber line. Guides were in advance, surveying the mountain in the region of the cabin, preparatory to digging out the cabin and to establishing a trail the following day.

POULTRYMEN TO ORGANIZE

The poultrymen of Multnomah county have been working upon the plan of organization. Preliminary for the organization have now been completed and the committee has called a meeting of all poultrymen in Multnomah and eastern Clackamas counties at the Gresham library, June 28, at 8 o'clock P. M. At this meeting steps will be taken to perfect the organization, which will market the products by the first of next month.
