

NEWS OF WORLD As Seen By CAMERA

James Moore Rickson

JAMES MOORE RICKSON, layman of the Church of England, is said to be curing the sick by prayer and the laying on of hands. His work is sponsored by Rev. William T. Manning, rector of Old Trinity chapel, Twenty-fifth street, New York, where the work has been done.

Princess di Pionbino, famous beauty of Rome, Italy, expects to make a tour of America as soon as peace is proclaimed. Her husband served at the front with distinction.

Madame Sarah Bernhardt has just completed a labor of love in the bust of Edmond Rostand, French dramatist and academician, whose works she has done so much to immortalize.

In a unique disaster at Omaha, a Canadian-Curtiss biplane, during an attempted Denver-Chicago flight, crashed into a Ford Sedan car. The automobile moved away under its own power.

Sergeant Alvin C. York refused $20,000 for appearance in vaudeville to go back to the comfort of his mountain home in Tennessee. The hero of the war, who single-handed killed more than 20 Germans and took 132 prisoners, said to his mother that it was worth more to enjoy the simple dip in the old washpan in water poured by her with the admiring little sister at his side. Sergeant York has claimed as his bride the sweetheart of his young manhood, to whom he offered his heart and hand before going into service, who gave him her troth on his return.

Remarkable ability of the French to make immaculate the streets of ruined towns and cities, is illustrated by the condition of the Rue Chanzay, Rheims.

General Berkhelm, of the French army, accompanied by American and French officers, placed wreaths on the grave of Quentin Roosevelt, in the name of American mothers, on Mothers' day.

Epitacio Pessoa, president-elect of Brazil, was honored by a reception at the Vatican, Rome, on his way to visit the United States. They were entertained by the king and queen of Italy. John Barrett, of the bureau of South American republics, arranged for their entertainment while in this country.

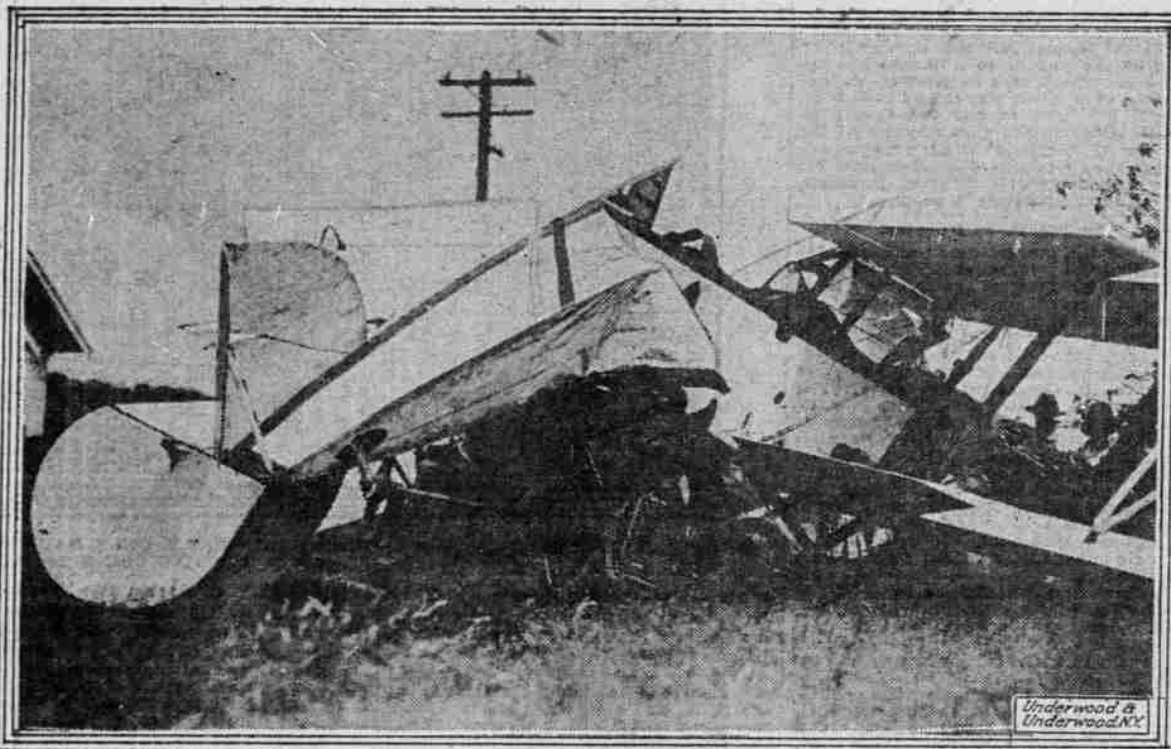

Retribution of tragic character overtook the bomber who attempted to destroy the home of A. Mitchell Palmer, United States attorney-general and former alien property custodian of the government, in Washington, D. C. The home of Max Gold, silk manufacturer of Paterson, N. J., was wrecked by another bomb.

Princess di Pionbino, Who Intends Visiting America

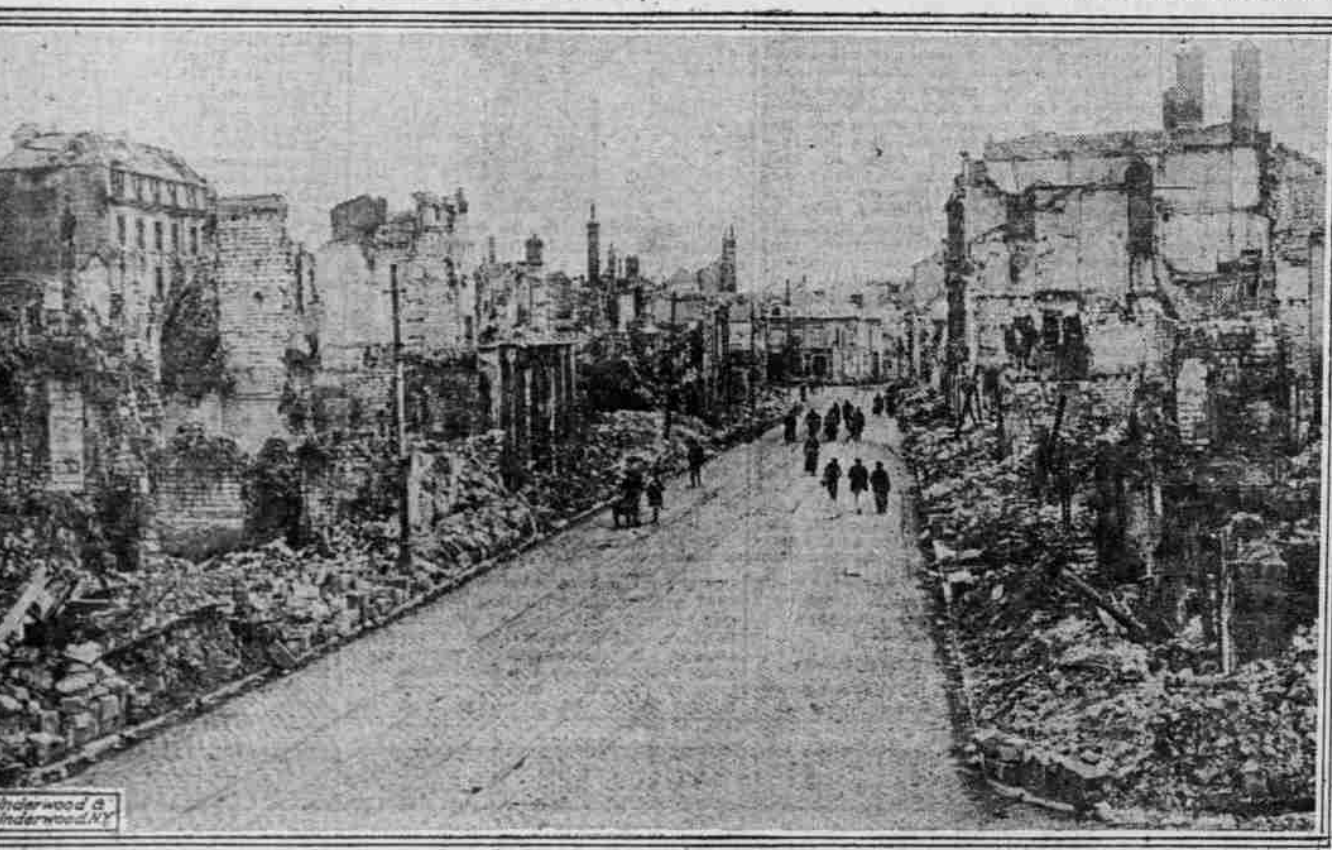

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's Latest Work

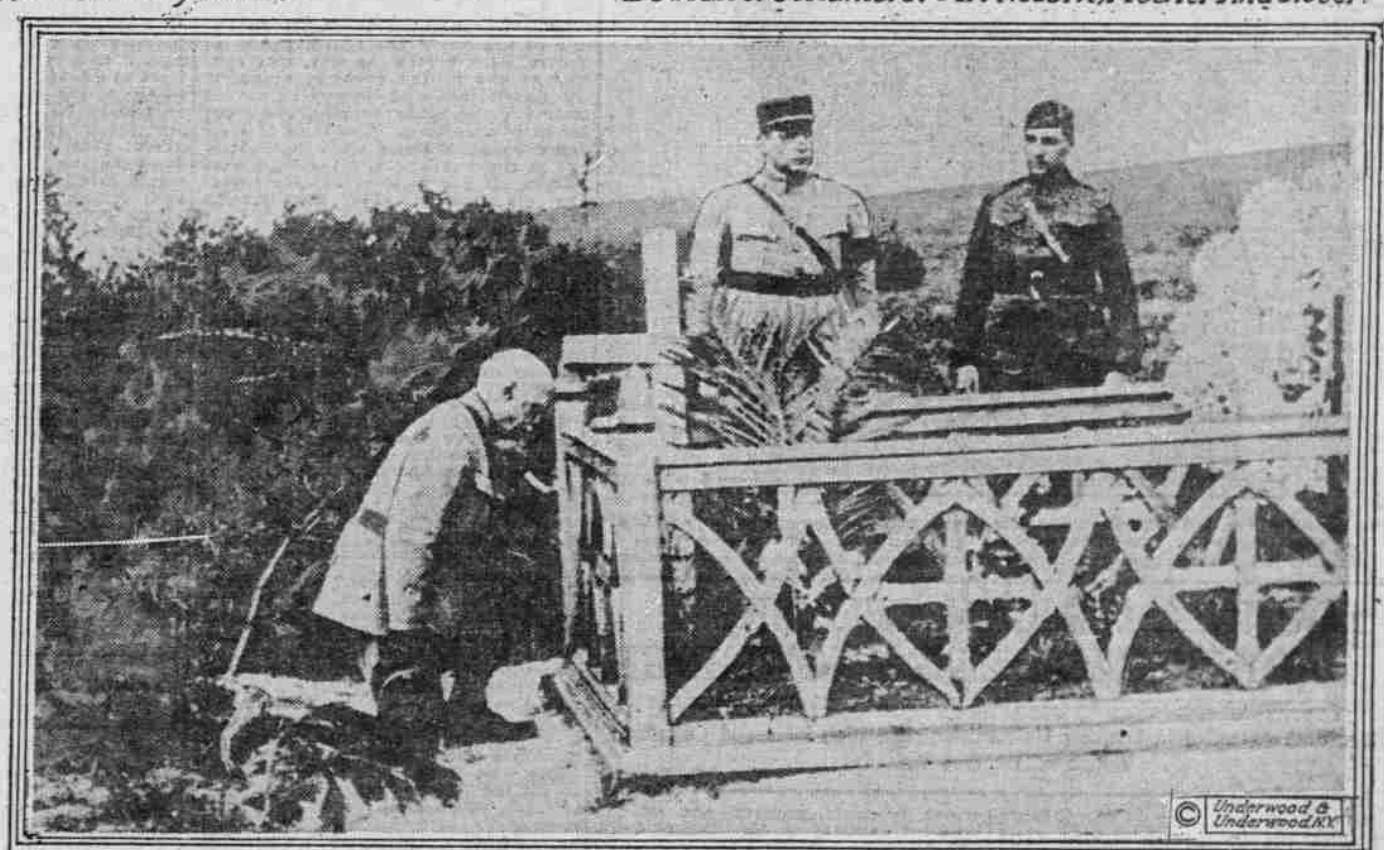

Ford Automobile Wrecks Airplane

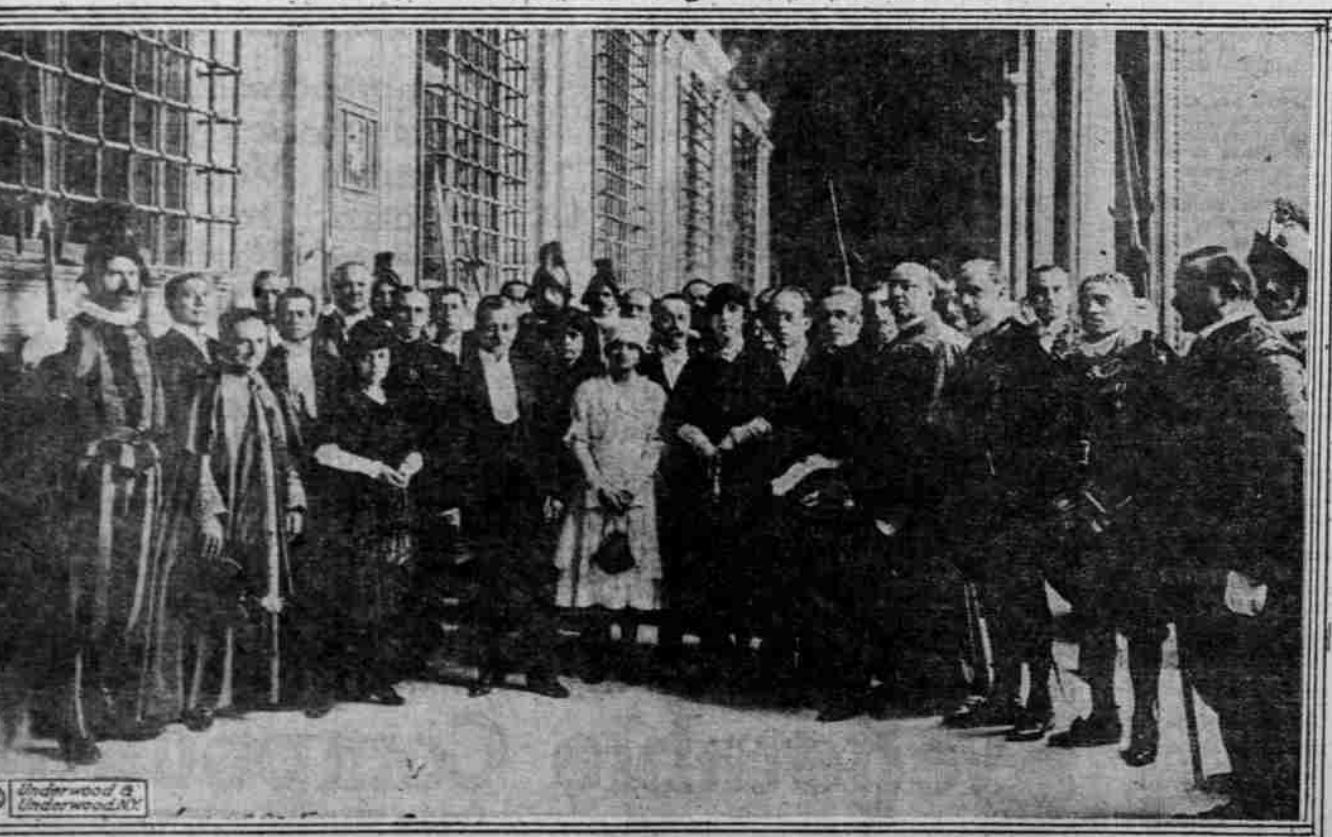

"Be It Ever So Humble." Alvin York, Mother And Sister

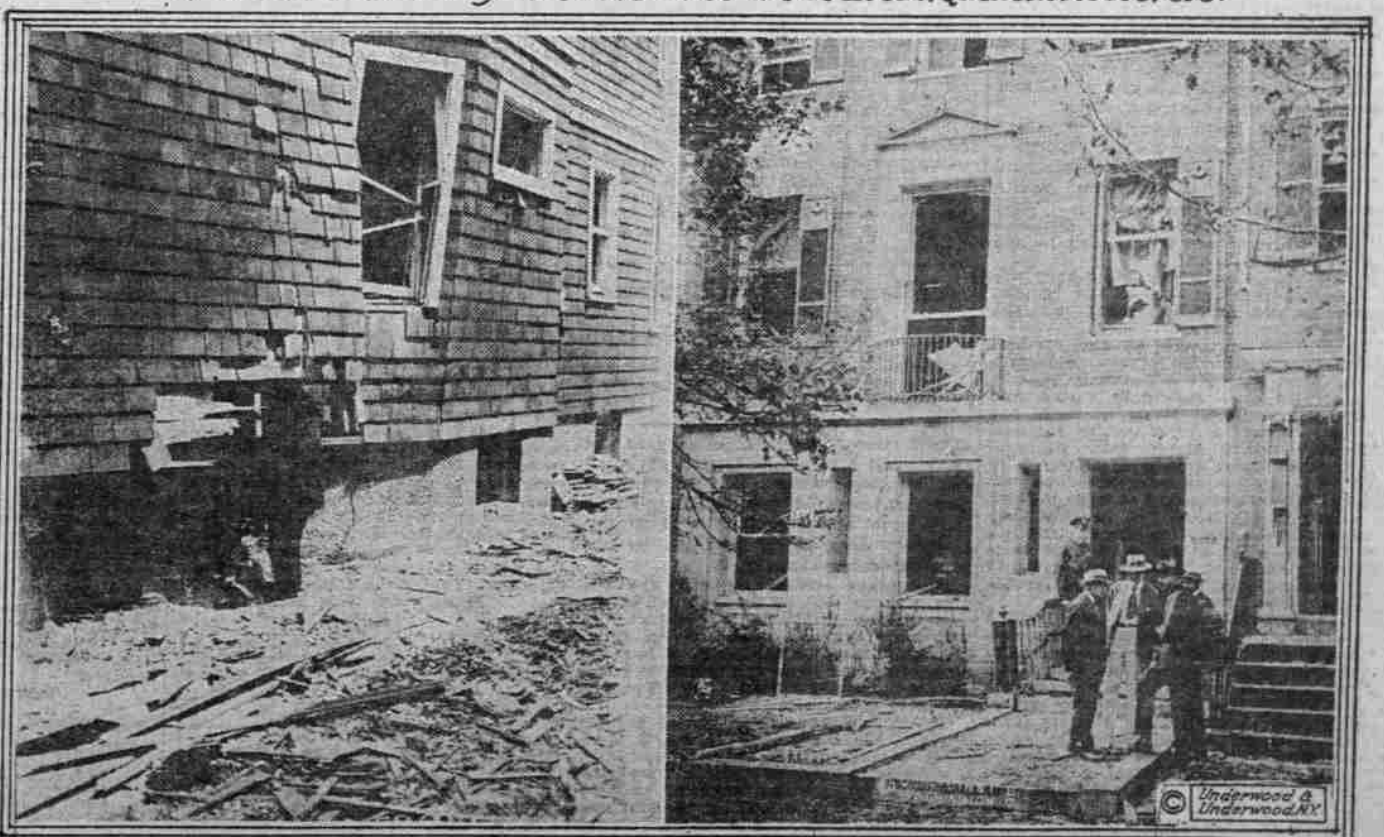

Rheims, France, Destroyed Yet Immaculate

French General Pays Tribute At Grave Of Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt

Epitacio Pessoa, President-Elect Of Brazil And Wife Honored At Vatican

Bomb Damage In Washington, D. C. And Paterson, N. J.