

Mrs. Clarence W. Emerson, (Madeline Brown) Married Recently.
Mrs. H.E. Townsend (Florence Towle) Early June Bride.

Mrs. Addison Kilgore (Flora McNevin) Bride of Last Sunday.
Mrs. Harry F. Burton (Sadie Carver) whose Wedding Was a Simple Home Affair.

Mrs. Coe A. McKenna, preceded the bride party. They carried white lilies. Otis Allen, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. Walter Church, son of Mrs. P. L. Campbell of Eugene, and a graduate in the school of architecture at the University of Oregon, was best man. Carl Denton played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served for the bride party at the Benson hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg are now enjoying a trip to the beaches. They will spend part of the summer in Portland and will go to Eugene, October 1, for the opening of the University of Oregon, where Mr. Rosenberg will be professor of architecture.

The bride is the daughter of the late Otis Allen of Helena, Mont., and a granddaughter of Governor and Mrs. S. T. Hauser. She attended the Bennett school in New York and was graduated from the University of Oregon, where she won honors in architecture. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Mr. Rosenberg was instructed in architecture at the University of Oregon before going to France, where he served in the camouflage unit. His drawings and sketches made overseas attracted wide attention on his return to this country. He is a graduate of the Boston Institute of Technology, where he won a traveling scholarship in 1914. The war prevented his going abroad for study at that time, but Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg hope to go to Italy for study next year.

Among the many delightful affairs honoring Mrs. Rosenberg was the tea for which Mrs. Mabel Holmes Parsons was hostess, Saturday, June 21. Mrs. John F. Howard, wife of Dr. Howard of the University of Oregon faculty, was also an honor guest at the affair. Miss Genevieve Thompson and Mrs. Harold Sawyer poured and Miss Camille Bosch, Dorothy Parsons and members of the Alpha Phi sorority assisted.

Riding is again becoming popular for girls and the young horsewomen are showing great interest in the sport. A number took part recently in the junior girls' drill at the Portland Hunt club's recent meet. Those in the drill were: Harry M. Kerron, director; Misses Elise Fleischer, Mary Louise Platt, Margaret Spencer, Jane Talbot, Leslie Kerns, Lee Tevis, Marcia Knight, Clementine Lewis, Marion Bowles, Ann Adams, Delphine Koshland, Katherine Almsworth, Anne Lawrence, Margaret Johnston, Helen West, Dorothy Shea.

Mrs. E. R. Clary and daughter, Solana, will leave this evening for Stockton, Cal., where they will visit Mrs. Clary's son, Halston. From Stockton they will motor to the Yosemite valley and Lake Tahoe.

The Wellesley club will give a picnic Monday evening honoring Amy Rothchild and Arthur Goldsmith of San Francisco.

The Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae club will meet Tuesday at 2:30 with Mrs. Joseph E. Withrow, 705 Davis street.

Congratulations were showered upon Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Albright (Adine Sweet), 851 Bryce avenue, upon the arrival of a daughter, Alina, on Saturday evening, June 21.

One of the pretty teas of the week was that for which Mrs. George M. Strong was hostess Friday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. Frederick Haxton Strong (Ruth Trowbridge), a recent bride. Mrs. Harry Trowbridge and Mrs. Fred Hiram Strong received with them. California poppies and gallardia made effective decorations in the drawing room, bridesmaids wearing white Maman Cochet roses in the dining room and Canterbury Bells in the hall.

Mrs. William J. Wakeman, Mrs. J. Struder and Mrs. Horace Butterfield poured, assisted by Miss Catherine Corbett and Mrs. Nelson Randall. Mrs. L. Ducey and Mrs. O. H. Fithian cut the ices. Mrs. D. Lloyd Painter, Miss Frances Lamberston and Miss Margaret Hawkins assisted. At the punch bowl were Miss Genevieve Butterfield, Miss Katie Schaffer, for the past two years, will pass the summer vacation here with her parents.

Mrs. E. W. Russell, mother of Mrs. William T. Foster, is visiting Mrs. Foster for a few months. Mrs. Russell arrived Tuesday from her home in Auburn, Me. Her visit will be of interest to her many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert V. Hauser and their children, who have been visiting Eric V. Hauser of the Multnomah hotel, left Thursday for St. Paul, stopping at Glacier National park for a few days en route. They will return in the fall to make their home in Portland.

Miss Agnes McBride is now visiting in San Francisco, after motoring south with Mr. and Mrs. C. Riggs. The party plan to go to Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Charles W. Jones was hostess at a luncheon and theater party Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. E. Kamfmuller, who is visiting her for the summer, from Louisville, Ky. The luncheon was informal, for a few close friends of Mrs. Kamfmuller. Mrs. E. Whitney entertained in her honor with a luncheon at the Hotel Portland Friday.

Mrs. Harry Coleman entertained at her home, 365 Overton street, with a tea yesterday in honor of Mr. Coleman's mother, Mrs. Mary L. Coleman, who is visiting them for the summer. Mrs. Frank Wellington Gilbert received with them. Pink snapdragons and Dorothy Perkins roses were effectively used in the drawing room, red ramblers in the hall, and delphinium and snapdragons in the dining room. Assisting in serving were Miss Adele Jones, Miss Charlotte Louise Jones, Miss Mary Gill and Miss Mary Helen Spaulding.

Mrs. Coleman gave a luncheon at the Benson hotel Saturday, June 21, in honor of her mother-in-law. Covers were laid for 12.

Many affairs were given the past week complimenting Mrs. Earl D. Doran (Hazel Kurts) of Seattle, who is the guest of Miss Marjorie Thomas. Mrs. Constance King and Mrs. Elmer Young were hostesses at a tea in her honor yesterday afternoon at the King residence on Morast Tabor. About 50 guests called during the afternoon. Mrs. Ralph M. Hoffman and Mrs. Elwood Waite poured and Miss Helen Jones and Miss Hazel Stashell assisted. Mrs. Elmer Young entertained with an informal luncheon in her apartment at the Imperial Arms Tuesday and Mrs. Ralph Stashell was hostess at her home on Portland heights Wednesday. Mrs. Doran will leave Tuesday on a trip to the beaches and will then go to Rhododendron before returning to Seattle.

Miss Marcella Jane Mathews of San Francisco, who came to Portland for the Victory Rose Festival, probably will remain in Portland visiting friends and relatives until August 1. Part of that time will be spent visiting in Tacoma and Seattle. Miss Mathews formerly lived here. She is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Whalen, 1356 East Madison street.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Freidenrich (Flora Rosenblatt) are being felicitated on the arrival of a daughter whom they have named Jane.

Delightful among the entertainments of the week was the silver tea given Wednesday afternoon by the woman's association of the First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. C. A. Irving, 483 Hasagale Irvington. The house was attractive with marguerites, maidenhair fern and syringa. Hundreds of women called during the afternoon. A splendid program was arranged. Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett read several poems; Mrs. J. Curtis Simmons sang; Mrs. Winifred Norwin played the violin numbers; Albert Gillette, baritone, and J. McMillan Muir, lately of Vancouver, B. C., newly-elected tenor soloist for the First Presbyterian church for the coming season, sang. Accompanists were Mrs. Ella Connell Jesse, Miss Mamie Helen Flynn, Mrs. Marion Nell Giger and Miss Alicia McElroy. Six ex-presidents of the association poured.

Mrs. F. S. Driver and daughter, Edith, have returned from Palo Alto, Cal., where they have been visiting for two months. They also attended the commencement exercises at Stanford university, at which Herchel Driver received his bachelor's degree and a scholarship for an engineer's degree.

Miss Jocelyn Foulkes had as her house guest the past week her cousin, Miss Colleen Foster of Baker, who leaves today for San Francisco.

Mrs. Lloyd Robert Gray (Edith Olds) and little son, Robert Olds Gray, are in Portland to spend the summer with Mrs. Gray's mother, Mrs. J. C. Olds, while Lieutenant-Commander Gray is on a cruise to Alaska. They will return to San Diego in the early fall.

Dr. and Mrs. James B. McChesney are here for the summer as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Fields. They arrived in Portland this morning.

Miss Selma Kumrow of Salem is visiting relatives here. Several affairs have been given in her honor, among them being a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Arthur Mullen and a theater party given by Mrs. William O'Neil Jr. Both are old schoolmates of Miss Kumrow, whose home formerly was in Portland. Miss Kumrow is here to practice in a drill of the department of the United States War Veterans, who will hold their annual encampment in Salem on July 1 and 2.

Of interest to the college set was the announcement Wednesday evening of the engagement of Miss Helen Catton and Dr. Howard J. Gilbert of Seattle. The announcement was made at the wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams Hill and was a complete surprise to Miss Catton's friends, who were present at the reception. Miss Catton is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Catton. She is a former student of the Oregon agricultural college, where she was a popular Chi Omega girl. Dr. Gilbert during the war was first lieutenant in the machine gun service. He is now practicing dentistry in Seattle. He is a graduate of the North Pacific Dental college and a member of Delta Sigma Delta fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilbert of Walla Walla.

The wedding will be an event of the early part of September. Many affairs are being planned complimenting Miss Catton by the college girls, among whom she has a host of friends.

EUGENE, Or., June 28.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Murray, who have been visiting here for the past week, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Murray were married at Eugene, Ore., in 1869. They have six children, all but one of whom were here to celebrate with them.

The children are Mrs. Edna McCoy of Lehigh, Pa.; Mrs. Mattie Pinehart of Puyallup, Wash.; Mrs. C. A. Murray of Vancouver, B. C.; George Murray of Newkirk, Okla.; and Frank Murray of Goshen, Or.

DALLAS, Or., June 28.—(Special.)—Arthur L. Hayes of this city and Miss Josephine W. Luebke were united in marriage Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Luebke, in Eugene. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the near relatives and a few friends. Miss Luebke has been for many years past a teacher in the Dallas public schools, having graduated from the Dallas high school with the first classes leaving that institution. Mr. Hayes is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hayes of this city, and but recently returned from France, where he saw service with the 143d Infantry. After a short honeymoon trip to the beach resorts the couple will return to Dallas. Among the Dallas people who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hayes, Miss Dora Hayes and Miss Myrtle Hayes.

FURS are Purchased With Absolute Confidence In Their Quality Style and Price at the Hudson Bay Fur Co.

Reliable Fur Manufacturers
147 Broadway

Miss von Deston entertained with a luncheon party Wednesday, honoring Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kelly, and Vitz Ramsdell, which took place Thursday evening at 9 o'clock, at St. Stephen's cathedral. Bishop Walter Taylor Summer officiating. Palms and potted plants formed effective decorations. The bride wore a dark blue tulle suit with blue camel's hair hat, trimmed with tiny old rose flowers. She carried yellow roses.

Miss Dorothy Wright, bridesmaid, wore a taupe suit, large lavender hat of georgette, trimmed with flowers and carried pink and lavender sweet peas. Ralph Saw was best man. Carl Denton played the wedding march and a half-hour's organ prelude before the ceremony.

After a two weeks' honeymoon, the couple will be at home at the Tudor Arms apartments.

The bride graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college with the class of 1918. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Ramsdell, a Kappa Sigma man from O. A. C., returned from France about two months ago after service with the 1st division.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin P. Stevens returned this week from a six weeks' trip to New York City, Chicago, Washington and Boston. While in New York they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Roberts at their home at Ossining on the Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zan returned last week from a month's trip to the east, where they visited all the larger cities. While in New York they were entertained by Mrs. Zan's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Z. Mitchell, at their country home on Long Island, overlooking Oyster Bay.

A simple home wedding was that of Miss Kathryn Ridgley and James Willett Oliver of Chicago, solemnized Wednesday evening at 5:30 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Clark, 689 East Twenty-first street North. Rev. George Thompson read the service. Lieutenant Donald Young played the wedding march. The bride chose a traveling suit of navy blue silk tulle and a large picture hat of heavy blue as her wedding costume. She carried orchids. The bride and groom were unattended. The house was decorated with a profusion of roses. Supper followed the ceremony.

(Continued on Page 4.)

Lady White Suggests that you call

Enke's CITY DYE WORKS
Since 1890

East 7300 for your next cleaning or dyeing order

Clark's FLOWERS fresh every day. Morrison st., bet. 4th and 5th. Tel. Main or A 1805.

EMPORIUM

124 to 128 SIXTH ST. JUST OFF WASHINGTON

A Spectacular Sale-Of Crepe de Chine and Georgette Blouses

$5.00 A Sale

We Have No Hope of Repeating

With the constant upward trend of prices in the silk market, due to the world demand, we consider this a sale of phenomenal values.

360 blouses bought at a price concession enables us to make this offer.

Georgettes and crepe de chins, cleverly designed, exquisitely made, of heavy silk, trimmed in lace, embroidery, hemstitching and tucking.

Colors—Victory, maize, flesh, magenta, bisque, black, navy, white.

Nine of these blouses are illustrated, wonderful waists. They will sell so rapidly that you cannot risk delay.

Remember, your choice.. $5.00

Clever White Skirts for Summer

Tub skirts of good quality pre-shrunk gabardines, tricelines and satin finish weaves. Wide girdles, smart pockets, pin tuckings, add to their style. Splendid showing at Others at $2.95 to $9.50

Dressy Georgette Crepe Skirts $17.50, $23.50, $29.50

Exquisite models, in white and flesh, some combined with satin.

Fashionable White Tricotine Skirts $13.95

This material makes wonderfully smart skirts.

Delightful Summer Frocks

Tubbing leaves these pretty dresses of voile, gingham, linene and organdy as fresh as new. Tunics, ruffles and tucking are crisp and airy.

$5.95, $7.95, $10, $13.95, $17.50

Large Summer Hats, Many Modes

A wide array of dainty hats, in white, blue, rose, green and silver gray. Combinations of fine straw with Georgette, horsehair braid and crepe, ribbon and crepe, and all crepe. Trimmings delightfully varied—picot ribbon, velvety flowers, ostrich fancies. A fresh, airy hat to wear with mid-summer costumes is necessary. Choose one of these pretty styles at—Special

$8.50 and $12.00

A Brilliant Success!

We recently had another illustration of the high regard in which Lily of France Corsets are held by women of refinement.

We asked a customer how she liked her Lily of France and her answer was: "It is a brilliant success."

Every wearer of a Lily of France is devoted to it—to its beauty, to its comfort and to the grace and style it gives her.

Gravelle
Silk Underwear, Right-Fitting Corsets, Brassieres, Blouses, Hosiery, Etc.
346 Washington Street Morgan Building

We Are Now Making to Your Order
Fancy Suits, Capes and Coats
in all the latest materials and approved fashions.
Schweitzer & Eagin
LADIES' TAILORS
392 1/2 Washington St. Next to Hazelwood

Where Style Is Inexpensive
The Leader
Cloak and Suit House
343 MORRISON STREET, Near Broadway.

A Woman's Beauty Lies in Her Hair
So take care of your hair by using EKDEE HAIR CERATE. It has proven its worth in baldness, falling hair, dandruff, etc. Write or call.
Ekdee Company
800 Union Avenue North Woodlawn 1365

SUMMER FURS
The Very Latest Creations in Fashionable Furs for Summer.
N. MUNGAR
FURRIER
Manufacturer and Importer,
141 BROADWAY, 340 ALDER, Southwest Corner of Broadway and Alder.