

SOCIETY

Miss Louise Caswell, Whose Engagement is Announced to Dale Hinkle

JULY, from the indications of the first week, bids fair to almost equal June in the number of weddings. Announcements of engagements have followed one another on rapid succession for the past two weeks and many of the weddings are scheduled for this month, with a few set for the early fall. Society was given a thrill in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Anita Thorne of Tacoma, well known here and throughout all the northwest, to Cadwallader Corse of New York city, and of Miss Elizabeth Amelia Malboeuf to Frederick Lothrop, which came as a complete surprise to their many friends. Miss Louise Caswell's marriage to Dale Hinkle of Hermiston, which will be solemnized Monday, July 14, at the Caswell home, is also drawing the attention of society folk.

Each week has brought Portland prominent visitors, who have been widely entertained, and the past week was marked by the visit of Dr. Aurelia H. Reinhardt, who is the house guest of Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett, Mrs. Frank Wellington Gilbert (Lavelle Young), the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. D. Charlton, is also a much-feted guest. She was the honor guest at a tea Thursday for which Mrs. H. M. Haller and her daughters were the hostesses. Mrs. Gilbert's young son, Charlton, is with her.

Many young people are returning from eastern schools and are being eagerly welcomed by their many friends. Among them is Miss Marion Whiteside, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Whiteside, who has been attending Miss Wheeler's school in Providence, R. I. She will spend the summer here. The younger set have had a gay time the past week at many informal dancing parties and their activities this week will also form much of the entertaining of the week.

The majority of the entertaining throughout the week has been very informal, consisting largely of small affairs complimenting the many visitors in the city, who have come to Portland as the house guests of relatives and friends. Motor trips out the highways, with a picnic luncheon or supper, or tea at the many inns along the way, is the most popular form of entertainment. Week-end motor trips into the mountains and to the beaches, where scenery and fishing are attractive, and many gay little week-end parties are also in vogue.

The Waverley Country club was the mecca for many motorists and society folk Friday evening, when the club entertained with a victory dance. Many dinner parties were given at the club that evening, most of them small and informal. Among those who entertained were: Mrs. C. T. Whitney, Mrs. R. W. Wilbur, Mr. E. C. Cape, M. E. Pearson, Judge Wolverton, Mrs. Sherman Hall and Mrs. Holt Cookingham. Mrs. William D. Wheelwright entertained at the club Friday with a dinner-dance for about 30 of the younger set in honor of her two nephews, C. Hunt Lewis II and Robert W. Lewis, Jr., who have come here for the summer from school in Pottstown, Pa.

Miss Louise Caswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caswell, is one of the most popular of the July brides-elect. Her marriage to Dale Hinkle of Hermiston will be celebrated on Monday.

SUMMER FURS

The Very Latest Creations in Fashionable Furs for Summer.

FURRIER
Manufacturer and Importer,
141 BROADWAY, 340 ALDER,
Southwest Corner of Broadway and Alder.

Mrs. John Bengtson, of Spokane,
Visiting Mrs. Walker Buswell

lston will be an event of Monday evening, July 14, in the beautiful gardens of the Caswell home. Miss Caswell and Mr. Hinkle are both Reed college students. Miss Caswell is a graduate in the class of 1918, but Mr. Hinkle left college before graduation to enter the service.

The bride-elect attended Portland academy and later Miss Wheeler's school in Providence, R. I. She took two years of work at the University of California—specialized in French, and then completed her college work with two years at Reed. She was an enthusiastic war worker and was stationed at the Surgeon-general's nursing camp at Camp Lewis for several months during the war period. The young people will make their home in eastern Oregon.

Several affairs will be given for Miss Caswell this week. Miss Marjorie McGuire and Miss Elizabeth Boyd entertained in her honor with a host shower.

Miss Louise Caswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caswell, is one of the most popular of the July brides-elect. Her marriage to Dale Hinkle of Hermiston will be celebrated on Monday.

VOGUE Remodeling Shop
wishes to announce that all garments made over this month will be subject to summer prices. This is the time to attend remodeling, as labor will be thirty per cent higher than it is now; besides, it requires more time and skill to do this class of work than to make new garments. This place is conducted by a first-class designer and fitter.
CENTRAL BUILDING,
Tenth and Alder, Main 5357.

S. WEISS
THE L. DEES' TAILOR, 125 1/2 Tenth St.

NORMAN BROS.
Tailors to Men and Women,
Northwest Bank Bldg.

Miss Marion Whiteside,
Home for the Summer
From Eastern College.

Malboeuf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Malboeuf, to Frederick Ames Lothrop, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lothrop. The news was told on tiny cards which were handed each of the guests who called Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. M. Haller for tea. The tea was given by Mrs. Haller and her daughters, Mrs. Neagle Sealy (Marie Haller) and Miss Helen Haller complimenting Mrs. Frank Wellington Gilbert, of New Haven, Conn., the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. D. Charlton. The wedding date has not been decided, but it will probably be in the early fall.

Miss Malboeuf is a graduate of Portland academy and one of Portland's most popular and charming maids. She has taken an active part in war service, patriotic and philanthropic work and is an enthusiastic worker in the girls' honor guard and the Red Cross.

Mr. Lothrop is well known among the younger set. He recently returned from overseas service where he was a member of the 51st division. He is a member of Beta Phi Sigma.

Receiving with Mrs. Haller and her daughters and Mrs. Gilbert at Mrs. Haller's tea were Mrs. Charles A. Malboeuf, Mrs. John H. Lothrop, Mrs. Frank Wellington Gilbert and Mrs. A. D. Charlton. Little Patricia Smith and Dorothy McPherson were at the door to hand the guests the cards bearing the announcement. Pink rambler and spring flowers made the rooms attractive, the color scheme being in pink and blue.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Wilbur Reid, Mrs. Bruce D. Stewart, Mrs. Alphonse Aya and Mrs. Stinson Gannett. Miss Helen Joyce, Miss Charlotte Malboeuf and Miss Agnes Black assisted them.

Many affairs will be given in honor of Miss Malboeuf this summer.

A distinguished visitor in the city this week is Dr. Aurelia H. Reinhardt, president of Mills college, Oakland, Cal., the only college of its kind west of the Mississippi river. Dr. Reinhardt, who is the house guest of Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett, will leave the first part of the week for California, probably Tuesday. She arrived Tuesday evening from Seattle, where she delivered an address at the commencement exercises of the University of Washington. She has been traveling in Idaho and Washington giving commencement addresses.

Dr. Reinhardt was the honor guest at a luncheon given by the Mills college club Wednesday. About 30 former graduates and present students of the college were present. Dr. Reinhardt spoke at the luncheon on Mills college, its purposes, growth and place among colleges. Miss Lena Biemel, president of the club, gave the speech of welcome for Dr. Reinhardt and Mrs. Frank Warren, who recently returned from California, where she visited Mills college, spoke of its development. Dorothy Perkins roses and lily were used in the decorations and individual bouquets gay with color were at the places.

Members of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae came out to the Country club in the afternoon to join the Mills college club group and to hear Dr. Reinhardt who spoke on "Education in the Twentieth Century and What It Means for Women."

Many affairs were planned in honor of Dr. Reinhardt. Miss Frances Ewing entertained with a tea in her honor Thursday afternoon and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Torrey with a dinner Thursday evening. Miss Margaret Montague entertained with a tea for Mills College women Saturday and Mrs. Julius Lippett was hostess with a party at the highway Sunday, followed by a picnic supper. Mrs. Lippett's daughter Judith is a student at Mills College.

Of importance to the society world of the northwest is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Anita Thorne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thorne, of Tacoma, to Cadwallader Corse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Corse of New York City. The announcement was made last week at the home of the Thornes, at Thornewood, American Lake, at a tea for which Mrs. Thorne was hostess. A large number of Miss Thorne's friends called during the afternoon and learned the news.

Miss Thorne is well known here, where she has visited many times. She was an active Red Cross worker during the war. Mr. Thorne is also known in Portland, through his business interests here.

Mr. Corse was overseas with the 77th division, was made captain and then reassigned to the 18th division at Camp Lewis last October. He was honorably discharged from the army last May just before returning to his home in New York.

Portlanders will be interested in the marriage of Miss Marguerite Ausias de Turenne of Seattle and Sewall Clark of Philadelphia, which was solemnized Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents in Seattle. The bride will be remembered as one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Hazel Dolph and Edward Clark, brother of Sewall Clark. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ausias de Turenne and one of the most popular of Seattle young people. Mr. Clark has recently been discharged from the service. He is the son of Edward W. Clark of Philadelphia.

About 70 Portland women gathered at the University club for luncheon Wednesday, complimenting Miss Harriet Wood, who will leave Portland July 21 for St. Paul, Minn., where she will be state supervisor in St. Paul. The Association of Collegiate Alumnae were the hostesses. Mrs. William Henry Thomas, president of the Portland branch of the collegiate alumnae, presided. An informal reception for Miss Wood followed the luncheon, after which many motored to the Country club to meet Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt.

Miss Mary Westaway, charming bride-elect of Dr. Ray W. Shannon, has been the inspiration for much entertaining lately. Her marriage will be an event of July 9 at the home of her sister in Butte, Mont. Many regrets are being expressed that Dr. Shannon is to take his bride to Minneapolis to live. Miss Katherine Corbin honored Miss Westaway with a luncheon at her home, 1188 Garfield avenue, on Wednesday. Corsages marked the places for the honor guest, Miss Flora Patrick, Miss Rhoe Lersess, Miss Ruth Engstrom, Mrs. Victor Storde and the hostess, Mrs. E. A. Allen also entertained with a tea in honor of the bride-elect. Seventy-five guests called during the afternoon.

Miss Westaway is a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Westaway. She formerly made her home with her family at Duluth and was graduated from the conservatory of music there. Dr. Shannon is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Shannon of Minneapolis. He was graduated from the University of Minnesota.

Mrs. Reginald Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilbur Reed, has come to Portland from London to make her home here with her parents. In her honor, Mrs. Irving M. Lupton entertained for the past year with Mr. Reed's society club Tuesday. Covers were laid for Mrs. George Wilcox, Mrs. George Wilbur Reed, Mrs. Mann, Mrs. Folger Johnson, Mrs. William Knox, Mrs. Arthur Mears and the hostess.

Captain and Mrs. Harold E. Reed and small son, Donald, left by motor on Wednesday for Los Angeles. Captain Reed has just received his discharge from the army. They have made their home for the past year with Mr. Reed's mother, Rose Cousen Reed. Captain Reed, who is a graduate of Portland Academy and a former member of the Multnomah club, is one of Stanford university's well-known athletes. Both have many friends here.

Miss Adele and Miss Louise Jones were hostesses at a daintily-appointed luncheon Wednesday at their home, 885 Alameda drive, in honor of Miss Mary DeGolyer, of Vermont, Miss Elizabeth Martin of Kentucky and Miss Helen Dearle of San Francisco, who are spending the summer here. Pink rambler roses, snapdragons, delphinium, marigolds, roses and heliotrope formed attractive decorations.

Corsage bouquets were at the places. Covers were laid for Mary Gill, Dorothy Corbett, Eva Versteeg, Bernice Burke, Helen Carlson, Pauline Dick, Ethel Cooper, Dorothy Metchan, Florence Holman, the honor guest and the hostesses. A theater party followed the luncheon.

The Misses Maxine and Hantia Friedenthal were hostesses for a charming dancing party at the Portland Heights

ing the summer here. Pink rambler roses, snapdragons, delphinium, marigolds, roses and heliotrope formed attractive decorations.

Corsage bouquets were at the places. Covers were laid for Mary Gill, Dorothy Corbett, Eva Versteeg, Bernice Burke, Helen Carlson, Pauline Dick, Ethel Cooper, Dorothy Metchan, Florence Holman, the honor guest and the hostesses. A theater party followed the luncheon.

The Misses Maxine and Hantia Friedenthal were hostesses for a charming dancing party at the Portland Heights

ing the summer here. Pink rambler roses, snapdragons, delphinium, marigolds, roses and heliotrope formed attractive decorations.

Corsage bouquets were at the places. Covers were laid for Mary Gill, Dorothy Corbett, Eva Versteeg, Bernice Burke, Helen Carlson, Pauline Dick, Ethel Cooper, Dorothy Metchan, Florence Holman, the honor guest and the hostesses. A theater party followed the luncheon.

The Misses Maxine and Hantia Friedenthal were hostesses for a charming dancing party at the Portland Heights

ing the summer here. Pink rambler roses, snapdragons, delphinium, marigolds, roses and heliotrope formed attractive decorations.

Corsage bouquets were at the places. Covers were laid for Mary Gill, Dorothy Corbett, Eva Versteeg, Bernice Burke, Helen Carlson, Pauline Dick, Ethel Cooper, Dorothy Metchan, Florence Holman, the honor guest and the hostesses. A theater party followed the luncheon.

The Misses Maxine and Hantia Friedenthal were hostesses for a charming dancing party at the Portland Heights

ing the summer here. Pink rambler roses, snapdragons, delphinium, marigolds, roses and heliotrope formed attractive decorations.

Corsage bouquets were at the places. Covers were laid for Mary Gill, Dorothy Corbett, Eva Versteeg, Bernice Burke, Helen Carlson, Pauline Dick, Ethel Cooper, Dorothy Metchan, Florence Holman, the honor guest and the hostesses. A theater party followed the luncheon.

The Misses Maxine and Hantia Friedenthal were hostesses for a charming dancing party at the Portland Heights

ing the summer here. Pink rambler roses, snapdragons, delphinium, marigolds, roses and heliotrope formed attractive decorations.

Corsage bouquets were at the places. Covers were laid for Mary Gill, Dorothy Corbett, Eva Versteeg, Bernice Burke, Helen Carlson, Pauline Dick, Ethel Cooper, Dorothy Metchan, Florence Holman, the honor guest and the hostesses. A theater party followed the luncheon.

The Misses Maxine and Hantia Friedenthal were hostesses for a charming dancing party at the Portland Heights

ing the summer here. Pink rambler roses, snapdragons, delphinium, marigolds, roses and heliotrope formed attractive decorations.

Corsage bouquets were at the places. Covers were laid for Mary Gill, Dorothy Corbett, Eva Versteeg, Bernice Burke, Helen Carlson, Pauline Dick, Ethel Cooper, Dorothy Metchan, Florence Holman, the honor guest and the hostesses. A theater party followed the luncheon.

Mrs. Frank
Wellington
Gilbert and Son Charlton, Guests of Mrs. A. D. Charlton.

To Fashion-Lovers

We take pleasure in announcing the

OPENING

of the new

BRANCH OFFICE AND SHOW ROOM

of THE ELITE PATTERN SERVICE, Inc.

260 MORGAN BUILDING

Washington Street

PORTLAND, OREGON

Here will be shown for our readers' inspection our latest designs in Creative Models, also a full line of Tissue Patterns and current issues of

ELITE STYLES

The Magazine of Sartorial Delights

25 CENTS PER COPY

August, 1919, Issue NOW for sale at all Newsdealers.

F. W. PATT & CO.

Ladies' Tailor—Suits, Gowns, Waists.

NOW IN NEW LOCATION,

506-7 Broadway Bldg. Marshall 488.

Clark's

fresh every day.

Morrison st., bet.

4th and 5th. Tel.

Main or A 1805.

M. PATT

LADIES' TAILORING,

511 Bush & Lane bldg., Broadway and Alder.

Modish New Suits

Just Arrived—A few advance models in tailored suits. New and clever creations of the designer's art—their trim lines will inspire every woman who sees them with the desire for possession.

—Featuring the ever-popular navy blue, these chic models show a variety of novel effects. Buttons and more buttons—they are used in every conceivable fashion. The coats are longer, the skirts a little wider (following the dictates of Paris), belts are used, bindings of military braid give a tailored finish, small box pleats are trig.

A few of these are on display. You are invited to inspect them.

Crisp Tub Frocks

New voiles and ginghams in dainty patterns—cool organdies—so very desirable for warm weather wear. Flesh, pink and pale blue are especially appealing in the soft voiles. Also darker flowered shades.

$7.50 $11.50
$18.50

Capes and Dolmans Greatly Reduced

There is no indication of waning popularity for capes and dolmans. Their graceful lines are universally pleasing. For motor-ing and early fall they are particularly useful. Suede, tricotine, duvetyn, serge, in a number of desirable colors. Many are half price, and all are priced very attractively.

Eastern Outfitting Co.
Washington St., at 10th.

Use Our Convenient
Credit Plan.