

ELKS PLAN BIG TRIP TO KLAMATH FALLS

"Train de Luxe" Arranged for Oregon Convention.

OTHER CITIES HAVE CARS

Full Accommodations Provided in Plans to Use Cars as Hotel While Session Lasts.

Arrangements for a "train de luxe" to carry the delegates and members of the Oregon State Elks' association to the second annual convention in Klamath Falls, August 14, 15 and 16, have been completed, according to William McGinn, chairman of the transportation committee.

Word that a special rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip had been granted by the United States railroad administration was received yesterday. This means that the fare from Portland and return, including all accommodations for five days, will be only $35, and correspondingly low rates will prevail from other points within the state of Oregon.

Elks of Marshfield and Coos Bay points already have taken at least one car on the Elks' special. Arrangements will be made to pick up the Marshfield delegation's car at Eugene. Elks of Eastern Oregon points, as well as Willamette valley towns, are arranging to make the journey in the special.

The train will be equipped with solid standard dining-room cars and sleeping cars, with a full observation car, as well as a diner and baggage cars. During the three days of the convention the train will serve as the hotel for the members, who are on the special, thus eliminating all need of worry over accommodations.

The committee in charge of the transportation and the special train is composed of William McGinn, chairman; William McMurray and Charles W. Singer, all members of Portland lodge No. 142, R. P. O. Elks.

In addition to the train, many of the Elks are planning on going to Klamath Falls in automobiles. It is probable that a caravan of automobiles loaded with Elks and their families will leave Portland on August 13 and 14.

Plans for the entertainment of the Elks at the convention in Klamath Falls are rapidly taking shape, according to H. R. Hall, chairman of the convention committee. A house-to-house canvass has just been completed to obtain accommodations for the visitors. Klamath Falls will furnish sleeping quarters for the Elks and their families, according to Mr. Hall.

Mayor Baker, who is an enthusiastic Elks man, has consented to go to Klamath Falls as the principal speaker on the opening night of the convention.

ELK TO FLY TO CONVENTION

Salem Plans Big Feature to Attract State Meeting.

SALEM, Or., July 11.—(Special)—Salem Elks are planning to send one of their members to the state convention at Klamath Falls by airplane as a special feature in connection with the campaign to bring the next annual meeting of the lodge to Salem.

Lieutenant P. D. Browne, who is now in Salem, expects to be in Medford for a flying engagement next month, and has expressed his willingness to take the trip to Klamath Falls in this city to the Klamath County hub.

WOMAN HURT IN WRECK

Baby Also Injured, But Not Seriously, When Autos Collide.

Two women and a baby were injured yesterday in a collision between an automobile driven by L. C. Tibbetts, 419 Kelly street, and a car driven by Herman Hurr, 426 East Twenty-second street, north on Front street in South Portland. Mr. Tibbetts' car upset, throwing the passengers on the pavement.

Mr. Tibbetts was driving north on Front street, and turned to avoid collision with a machine which Charles Heit, of the Lillian apartments, was backing out of a garage. The Tibbetts car struck Mr. Hurr's machine and upset. The injured were: Mrs. Tibbetts, whose shoulder was bruised; her baby, Mary, whose injuries are not considered serious; and Mrs. J. Brett, 367 Front street, who has a hurt arm. Mrs. Tibbetts and the baby received medical attention at the Good Samaritan hospital. Mrs. Brett went to the Emergency hospital.

PROJECT ELECTION JULY 23

Jefferson County Irrigation District to Decide Bond Issue.

SALEM, Or., July 12.—(Special)—Attorneys for the Suttles Lake Irrigation district of Jefferson county have informed State Engineer Charles Heit, that residents of that district will hold a special election on July 23 to decide whether an agreement shall be entered into with the state, whereby the state shall guarantee the interest on the proposed bond issue of $395,000 for a period of five years.

It is the plan of the attorneys interested in the project to have a vote on the lands embraced in the district for next summer's crop. The letter indicates that the people do not anticipate that the state will have to pay the interest, but expect that the state's guarantee will have a beneficial effect in disposing of the issue.

ORCHARD VISIT FOREGONE

A. A. Schenck of Omaha Goes to Princeton Reunion Instead.

HOOD RIVER, Or., July 12.—(Special)—A. A. Schenck, owner of a Hood River orchard and city property, who usually comes here from Omaha to spend the summer, writes that he has foregone his annual journey this year because of a trip to Princeton university, where he participated in the 50th reunion of the class of 1865. A silver cup was presented to the class having the largest percentage of living members present.

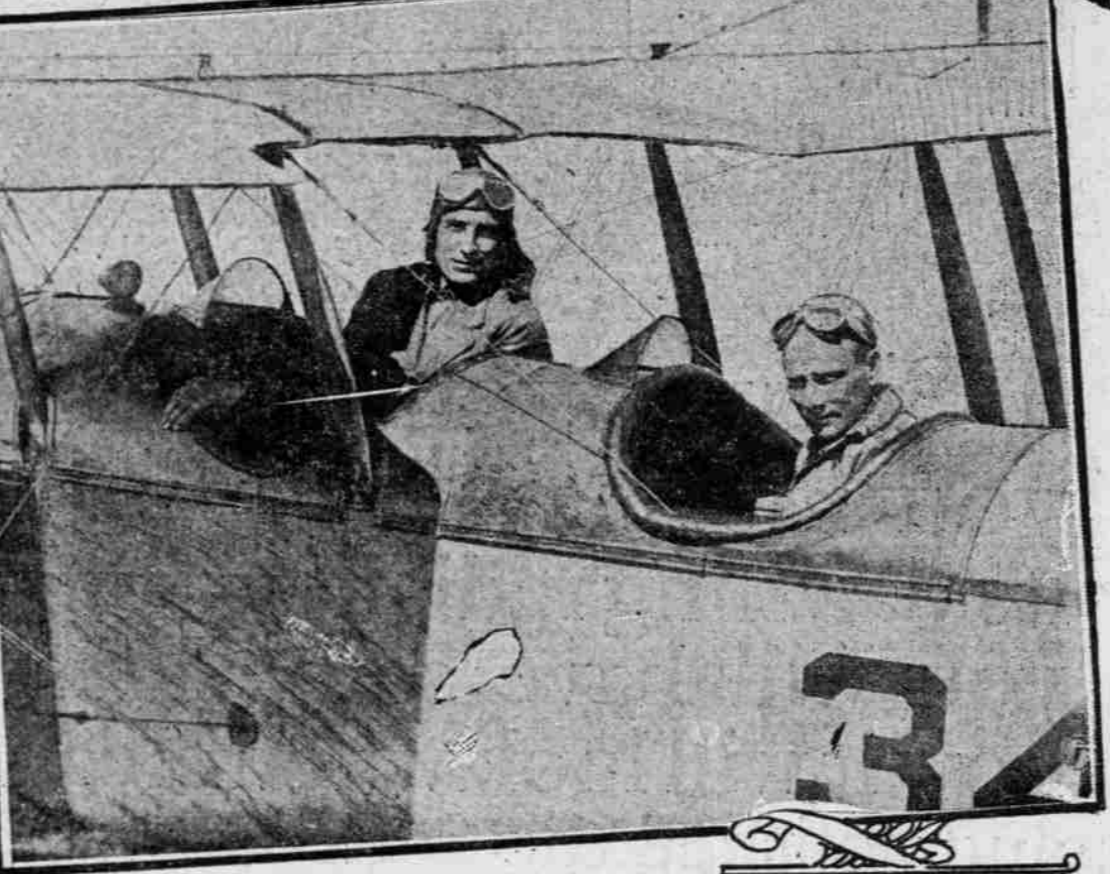

Mr. Schenck, who is now chief engineer of maintenance for the C. & N. W. company, was a pioneer engineer for the old O. R. & N. company. He resided in Portland for a number of years.

Below—Governor Oellett and Lieutenant Crull in plane. SALEM, Or., July 12.—(Special)—Addressed by Milton Klepper of Portland, president of the Aero club of Oregon, Governor Ben Oellett and a few other informal features marked the dedication of OLCOTT field here on July 6. The dedication of the field occurred immediately following the return of Mr. Oellett and army aviators from a flight to southern Oregon. The field is said to be well adapted to the demands of airmen and is the first of its kind dedicated in the United States, as far as Salem officials have been able to learn. The field will be used by commercial as well as pleasure planes.

R-34 PASSES OVER IRELAND

WEATHER CONDITIONS BAD; LANDING IN NORFOLK ADVISED.

Position at 11 A. M. Shows 2675 Miles Traveled in Trans-Atlantic Flight From New York.

LONDON, July 12.—(By the Associated Press).—The British dirigible R-34 passed over CHITON, Ireland, at 20:10 (Greenwich mean time, 4:10 P. M. New York time.

The British dirigible R-34, returning on her cross-Atlantic round trip, reported her position today at 3 P. M. Greenwich mean time (11 A. M. New York) as 53 degrees north latitude and 15 degrees 20 minutes west longitude.

This position showed that the R-34 had traveled approximately 2675 miles in her trans-Atlantic flight from New York and was within about 170 miles of the Irish coast.

Because of adverse weather conditions in Scotland, the R-34 has been advised by the air ministry to land at Fulham, Norfolk. The airship is expected there before noon Sunday.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Completing a night flight from Akron, O., the new army dirigible A-4 arrived in Washington at 9:45 o'clock this morning and left an hour and a half later for Langley field, Hampton, Va.

HEIRESS AIDS OPPONENTS

Claims Against Estate of Father Held Justified.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Miss Alice de Lamar, daughter of Captain Joseph E. de Lamar, sometimes called the "Monte Cristo of Idaho," and heiress to the bulk of his $20,000,000 estate, has come to the assistance of claimants against the estate who say they lost money through following her father's advice in making investments, according to a statement issued today by attorneys for the claimants. Miss De Lamar appeared in court today.

Whatever You Do

Don't Neglect Your Eyes

Says Dr. Lewis, Who Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50 Per Cent In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home. Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. He says neglect causes more eye troubles and poor sight than any other cause, but after using this prescription for 15 days everything seems clear. It is a fine fine print without glasses. It is so good that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and see clearly. It will be able to restore their eyes so as to be spared the trouble

THE FORM OF GODLINESS

And the Power Thereof

Desiring to purchase some electrical appliances, I visited the salesroom of a large establishment, and was gratified and amazed at the splendid display. There were lamps, some plain and others with gorgeous shades for table and desk; there were electric fans, ranging from the simplest pendant to the most massive of hanging clusters; there were call-bells in variety; there were electric irons, heaters and other utensils in attractive diversity.

Having chosen a lamp, I turned the switch to test the distribution of the light; but lo, there was no light. The attendant told me that the lamp was here as an exhibit only, but were not connected up; which meant, of course, that they were not in the circuit of the energizing current, which alone could raise the dark filament to incandescence.

I turned to the bells, but when I pressed a button I listened in vain for any responsive tinkle. And so with everything in the shop—pleasing to look upon, some pieces artistic, all suggestive of usefulness, but as displayed, they were ornaments and nothing more, for they were not connected up.

As I left the shop I mused over the circumstance. A burning candle of talismans is worth more in terms of utility than the most elaborate of electric fans without the current. Then I thought of my musings as a fitting parallel to the scriptural description of minds and souls darkened and deceived by outward appearances while devoid of spirituality.

"Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof," (2 Tim. 3:5).

Men may organize church congregations, and erect church buildings—from humble chapel to stately cathedral—but what are all such but elaborate externals if they are not connected up with the source of Divine wisdom and authority through the circuit of the Holy Priesthood?

There are numerous forms and varieties of outward godliness on display today, any and all of which may be of minor and temporary good, through their appeal to human faculties and emotions, while lacking the vitalizing power of the Holy Ghost, by which alone can revelation come from God to man. Further, there are those who deny the possibility of direct communication from the heavens, perhaps not realizing that thereby they deny the
