Mrs. William Raymond Shannon, (Mary Westaway) Married Wednesday.

Miss Sarah Patrick, Maid of Honor at Shannon-Westaway Wedding.

Miss Marjorie Voorhies, Who Has Returned After Serving in the Red Cross at Camp Lewis.

Mrs. Thomas Kerr, of Tulsa, Okla., and Daughter, Jean Josephine, Who Are Visiting Here.

THE warm weather has brought on a gradual exodus of society folk to the beaches and mountains, or at least to country homes, away from the noise and heat of the city. Many who delayed going before, hurried away the first of the week, taking their house guests with them. Nearly all the entertainings in the past two weeks have been informal and will continue to be so. Most of the parties are those for which the younger set are hosts or honor guests, for summer seems to be above all seasons the young people's time for frolicking, and many are the gay weekend parties and motor trips, as well as informal teas, luncheons and dinner parties which they enjoy.

Weddings are fewer than in June, but the July calendar, nevertheless, shows a goodly number of them. Most of the weddings this month will be quiet ones. One of the lovely brides of this month will be Miss Louise Caswell, whose marriage to Dale Hinkle, of Hermiston, will be an event of tomorrow evening. Mrs. William Raymond Shannon (Mary Westaway) was married Wednesday evening.

Motor trips to country clubs, where tea or dinners are enjoyed, is still a popular form of entertainment. Waverley Country club was the scene of several charming parties last night. One of the largest was that for which Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alvord were hosts in honor of Miss Katherine Wheeler, Miss Wheeler, a niece of Mrs. Alvord's, has recently returned from attending Miss Harker's school in Palo Alto, Cal. She is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Wheeler, who have taken a home near the country club for the summer.

Presiding at the coffee-urns in the dining room were Mrs. M. Haller, Mrs. Myron Woodard, Mrs. James Ambrose, Mrs. Don Mulvane, Mrs. Lewis Meade, Mrs. J. J. Reynolds, Mrs. A. E. Allen and Mrs. V. K. Strode.

Mr. and Mrs. Shannon left for Seattle. From there they will go to Spokane and then over the Canadian Pacific east, stopping at Lake Louise and at Butte to visit the bride's sister. They will spend several weeks at a Minnesota summer resort before going to Minneapolis, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Shannon has been the inspiration for much entertaining since the announcement of her engagement. Mrs. William Kaiser entertained in her honor with a luncheon Monday and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robert Porter were hosts for a delightful trip over the highway Tuesday, followed by dinner at Forest Hall.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Westaway, formerly lived in Duluth, where she was graduated from the conservatory of music. She is popular socially and is an accomplished musician. Dr. Shannon is a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

Dr. Aurelia H. Reinhardt, president of Mills college, Oakland, Cal., who has been in Portland for the past two weeks as the house guest of Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett, left Friday evening for California. Dr. Reinhardt has been widely entertained during her stay here and has been in demand as a speaker.

Mrs. Wilson Johnston opened the week of entertaining in honor of Dr. Reinhardt with a luncheon at the Hotel Benson. Covers were laid for Dr. Reinhardt, Miss Ruth Catlin, Mrs. Charles Edwin Sears, Mrs. Max Lundemann, Mrs. J. B. Bilderback, Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett, Mrs. Frank Gilbert, Mrs. Julius Lippett, Mrs. Robert C. Coffey, Mrs. Charles Feldenhelm, Mrs. Noble Wiley Jones and the hostess. In the afternoon Dr. Reinhardt went to drive with Mrs. Frank Warren.

Mrs. Starrett was hostess for an informal luncheon party at her home on Tuesday. Miss Mary Frances Ison, Miss Harriet Wood and Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, were invited to meet Dr. Reinhardt. Wednesday was occupied with addresses, in the afternoon at the Gladstone Chautauqua and in the evening at dinner at the Hotel Benson at the Credit Men's association. On Thursday Mrs. Max Houser entertained informally in honor of Dr. Reinhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Fisher gave an informal dancing party last Wednesday evening in honor of the Misses Louise and Elizabeth Boyd, whose near departure for their future home in Chicago is causing general regret among a host of friends. About 50 of their young friends enjoyed the hospitable Fisher home and picturesque grounds. Many charming affairs are being planned in honor of these two lovely young women, who will be greatly missed from Portland society.

A reception was tendered Dr. Boyd and his family at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday night. More than 500 people called during the evening. Dr. Boyd has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church for eight years and is widely known, not only in Portland, but throughout Oregon and the northwest. The Boyds will leave July 17 by motor for Chicago, planning to take about six weeks on the trip, stopping at the Yellowstone and other points of interest.

The announcement of a marriage which came as a surprise to Portlanders was that of Miss Lucille Margaret Fenton to Captain Elbridge Geary Watkins, United States army. The marriage took place early this spring in Seattle, but had not been announced until last week. Mrs. Watkins is the daughter of Dr. J. D. Fenton. She attended St. Helen's hall and later the University of Oregon. For the past year she has made Seattle her home, devoting her time to war work.

Captain Watkins is a native of Georgia. At the beginning of the war he entered the officers' training camp at Fort MacPherson and later was sent with the 1st division to France. Since his return to this country a year and a half ago, he has been stationed at Camp Lewis. He was with headquarters company, 75th infantry, at Camp Lewis. At present he is associated with the commission of athletic activities in the northwest.

Jackson has extensive lumber interests in the east and was greatly interested in the big timbers of the west. The Jacksons are making a tour of the west and are accompanied on their trip by Mrs. Jackson's attractive niece, the Misses Tindie, recent Vassar college graduates. The party left the latter part of the week for California where they will spend several weeks before returning to their summer home on the Niagara river. Mr. Jackson is a cousin of Mr. Homer A. Nelson of this city.

Another engagement of interest is that of Miss Helen McCusker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCusker, and Omer Mills, of South Dakota. No formal announcement has been made, but the news has been told to a few intimate friends. No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will take place some time in August.

Miss McCusker is a graduate of Portland academy and an enthusiastic worker in the Junior League, War Camp Community Service, the Red Cross and all patriotic and philanthropic work. She took the training for motor driving in the Red Cross motor squad and was ready to sail for duty overseas when the armistice was signed. She has done a large amount of work in the victory and liberty loan drives.

Mr. Mills' parents are ranch owners in South Dakota, near Wall. Mr. Mills is a college man, a specialist in agriculture. He was a lieutenant in the machine-gun battalion at Camp Lewis. The young couple will make their home in South Dakota, living on the Mills ranch for the summer months.

Miss Marjorie Voorhies, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, has received her discharge from service in the Red Cross at Camp Lewis and has returned to her home in Portland for the summer.

Miss Elizabeth L. Murlison of San Francisco and her cousin, Mrs. McKee, who were visitors in Portland for about ten days, left Tuesday for Victoria, B. C. They will visit the Canadian Rockies on their way east. They were the inspiration for much informal entertaining during their visit here. Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Miss Genevieve Thompson were hostesses at the Teal home on Monday, honoring them. Covers were laid for 12. Mrs. Folger Johnson entertained in their honor with an informal tea on Tuesday, asking a few friends to meet them. Miss Murlison is head of a fashionable girls' school in San Francisco and has many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Jackson, prominent residents of Buffalo, N. Y., were visitors in Portland last week. Mr.

The marriage of Miss Louise Caswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caswell, and Dale Hinkle of Hermiston will be an event of tomorrow. The wedding will be solemnized at 8 o'clock in the beautiful gardens of the Caswell home, Dr. John H. Boyd officiating. The wedding will be a smart affair, but the guest list is limited to about 175 of the relatives and close friends of the bridal couple, who are widely known in Portland society. Miss Frances Hinkle will be maid of honor, Mrs. Harold Sanford, matron of honor; Miss Elizabeth Boyd, Miss Lenore McGregor and Miss continues unabated. So modish are these coats, coatees, scarfs and chokers, in the most popular peltries, that every woman will want to sink her fingers into their soft depths and claim at least one as her own.

Brown Is the Newest Whim of Fashion

—One of these trim models is shown in brown-and-blue-checks, with a distinctive vest of mocha-colored broadcloth, offset at the edge with bands of the velour.

It is unnecessary to go without the pretty clothes every woman loves, for lack of money to pay for them. By establishing a credit account with us any article of wearing apparel may be purchased on liberal terms.

Your Personality

should be reflected in the clothes that you wear. That is why a tailor or sport costume carefully fitted to your measurements is infinitely better than a ready-made one.

VOGUE Remodeling Shop

wishes to announce that all garments made over this month will be subject to summer prices. This is the time to attend to remodeling, as labor will be 30 per cent higher than it is now; besides, it requires more time and skill to do this class of work than to make new garments. This place is conducted by a first-class designer and fitter.
