

Society

Mrs. John Fitzpatrick (Young Army Nurse) Bride of Harry Army Nurse - June

Mrs. Nathan Lakatish (Leah Norman) Married July 6. - June

Mrs. Anne Reed, Member of State Teachers' Examining Board Who Is Spending Summer in East.

Mrs. Charles S. Tippett, Who Has Returned to Her Home in New Brunswick, Canada.

E. W. Russell of Auburn, Me., Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. Arthur Ely, Mrs. William C. Morgan, Mrs. Harry Beale Torry, Mrs. Frederick A. Kiehl, Miss Clara Cross of Minneapolis, Miss Constance King and the hostess.

Mrs. Charles L. Boss entertained a line party Wednesday afternoon at the matinee in honor of Mrs. R. O. Gentry of Seattle, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. William Jessup.

Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Kinney (Lillian Morgan) of Astoria and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Cramer of Portland have recently returned from an automobile tour through California, spending two weeks in San Francisco, making several stops on the return at Crater Lake, Foley Springs and other points of interest.

Mrs. M. A. Yates entertained Wednesday with a charmingly appointed luncheon at the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for nine. The table was decked in pink and green.

A trip up the Columbia highway was enjoyed Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Denton of Los Angeles and Miss Dorothy Fox of Portland and Norman Campbell of Mississippi. The party stopped at Bonnevill for a salmon dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Denton are stopping at the Benson hotel en route for Alaska and Mr. Campbell has been the guest of Mrs. E. J. Fox at his Williams avenue for the past two weeks. He left Saturday for San Francisco, where he will locate permanently.

Mrs. Leroy Fields entertained at luncheon Wednesday at the Waverley Country club. Her guests were Mrs. Arthur Fields, Mrs. Peter, Mrs. M. Oulvane, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Goodell, Mrs. Stoy and her daughters, Miss Monica and Miss Eleanor, of San Francisco, and Mrs. James MacVane, who is her house guest. Mrs. Fields went to San Francisco Thursday to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Edwards of Irvington have had as their guests during the past week Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Glako Gibbs of Troy, N. Y., who are returning east after a tour of California by way of British Columbia. Mr. Gibbs recently returned from service overseas and is now in the U. S. Army. Mrs. Gibbs gave a pretty appointed luncheon at the Waverley club for Mrs. Gibbs and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jaeger were hosts at a dinner party given at the Hotel Portland.

Miss Jean McKay Skene, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Skene, has returned from the east, where she attended the Westover school, and will spend the summer in Portland.

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger is in Portland for a brief visit and will be here until Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Hemminghouse has just returned from California, where she spent the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Hemminghouse are now at the Mallory.

Miss Naomi Coffield was hostess at a delightful luncheon yesterday, followed by a week-end party at the Coffield's summer home near Vancouver, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Dart, whose engagement was recently announced. Oscar C. Edlund, Luncheon guests were Miss Imogene Seton, Miss Dart, Mrs. Leroy Long, Mrs. Will Hurn and Isora Greenall, guests of the hostess. The house party were Bruce Shumway, Leroy Long, Will Hurn, Carlton Dart, Harrison Blake and Oscar Edlund.

Miss Lucile Langerman was hostess at a delightful dancing party at her home on Portland Heights last Thursday evening, complementing her sister, Dorothy Brown, of Seattle, the house guest of Miss Hanita and Miss Maxine Friedenthal, and Miss Arline Rosenblatt, of San Francisco.

Mrs. Stuart Zimmerman was hostess for a delightful tea at her home on Melrose drive Tuesday, honoring her sister, Mrs. Hal Davis, who is in Portland from Nashville, Tenn.

Howard C. Charlton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. Charlton, has returned from a trip to China and Japan and will spend the summer months in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall Stoner Lusk are now in their home in Riviera for the summer.

George Seaton Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, arrived in Camp Lewis Tuesday, having just returned from a trip to China and Japan and will be at home soon. He is a casual in the quartermaster's corps.

Mrs. W. M. Barker and daughter, Miss Anna, are now in San Francisco, where Miss Anna will study with Wager Swayne during the summer.

Dr. Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie and Miss Jean Mackenzie have returned after an extended trip to Del Monte and the Yosemite valley.

Hazel McKay Fasset left last week to take a six weeks' course in aesthetic dancing at Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn's school, "Denishawn," in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens was hostess recently at a delightful rose luncheon, honoring Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett. Dorothy Perkins roses and jasmine formed an attractive centerpiece and beautiful roses filled the rooms. The sage bouquets marked the places for Mrs. Starrett, Miss Helene Desmond, Mrs. Thomas B. Carroll, Mrs. Alexander Thompson, Mrs. A. R. Mattingly, Mrs. E. G. Leiby, Mrs. Thomas G. Greene, Mrs. Roy Peterson, Mrs. P. G. Nealson, Mrs. E. J. Steele and the hostess.

Mrs. Margaret Mansfield has returned from Chicago, where she represented the University of Oregon chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, national musical sorority. Miss Mansfield is a senior at the university and a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Gertrude Wilson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. S. Gould in Honolulu for the past eight months, has returned to Portland. While in Honolulu she adventurously entertained. Mrs. Gould was hostess at a farewell tea in her honor at her beautiful Mauna home the latter part of May, just before Miss Wilson sailed. Many guests called during the afternoon.

The date of the wedding of Miss Mary

THE NAME OF Enke's
CITY DYE WORKS
SINCE 1890
H. Enke Owner
D. Levine Manager
Stands for Quality Service and Reliability

New Suits or Riding Habits
Tailored to Order.
Riding Habits $40 to $60.
Girls' Misses' Women's Suits $60 to $75.

Betty Shop
330 ALDER STREET, BETWEEN WEST PARK AND TENTH.

Where Style Is Inexpensive The Leader
Cloak and Suit House
343 MORRISON STREET, Near Broadway.

Summer Finery for the Fastidious Woman
Just the sheerest, daintiest dresses to freshen up the summer wardrobe. Fashioned of Georgette, tricolette, crepe de chine, satin, foulard, in plain and flowered patterns. Colors so varied that every woman will surely find her favorite—blue, cerise, gray, wistaria, henna, beige, navy, black, white. Tunics, tucks, ruffles, sashes are featured in various interesting ways. An unusual assortment of attractive gowns at $19.50 to $45.00.

Chic Silken Skirts
A smart skirt will often "save the day" for the busy woman. Extensive array of handsome Georgette, crepe de chine, Paulette, Baronette, tricolette and poplin skirts. Dainty shades of rose, blue, gray, flesh, salmon and white are pleasing. Prices extraordinarily low—$11.95, $13.50, $15.00, $17.50, $22.50, $25.00, $29.50.
—Tub skirts of pique, gabardine, linene, satin finish—$11.50, $8.95, $7.50, $6.50, $5.00, $2.95.
DAINTY SILK UNDERWEAR—A new addition to our lines—up-to-date chemise, bloomers, camisoles, gowns—attractive models in white and flesh.

Middies and Smocks for Outings
Saratoga middies of Lonsdale, jean and linene—$1.95, $2.95, $3.25.
SMOCKS of cool voile—plain or figured—in white, blue, green, rose and tan—$4.50, $5.00, $5.95.
EMPORIUM
124 to 128 SIXTH ST. JUST OFF WASHINGTON

Mrs. S. D. Langton (Flora Miller) and Miss Clara Cross, niece of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Teal, who is the house guest of the Teals at their home on Westover Terrace. Covers were laid for six.
Little Miss Caroline Berg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Berg, was hostess at a charming garden party Monday afternoon to which 25 of her young friends were invited. The party was in celebration of Caroline's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon in games for which attractive prizes were given and later enjoyed dainty refreshments at little tables on the lawn.
Delta Gamma's active and alumni, held a get-together party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, 217 East Sixth street.

At a small home wedding Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Mildred Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fox, Woodruff, became the bride of Lynn Parr. Rev. Arthur L. Hutchison read the service in the presence of the relatives and a few of the intimate friends of the young couple. Leah Perkins Wyatt sang "At Dawning." The bride was crowned in white georgette with lace overdrape. Elvira Thurlow was maid of honor and Fred Packwood was best man. The house was attractively decorated with roses. Mr. and Mrs. Parr will spend their honeymoon at Mount Hood and in September will go to Elma, Washington, where Mr. Parr will be principal of the high school. Both the bride and her husband are graduates of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Parr in the class of 1918 and Mr. Parr in that of 1917. The bride is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and her husband of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. The bride, who is an attractive girl and popular in the college set, was the inspiration for much entertaining after the formal announcement of her engagement several weeks ago. Miss Inez Atkinson entertained in her honor with a party Tuesday evening at her home, Twenty-fourth and Hoyt streets.
B. E. Lippincott has just returned from Los Angeles, where he went to be present at the wedding of his elder granddaughter, Frances Lippincott Flint to Stephen W. Cunningham, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Flint, on June 14. Only the immediate friends and members of the families of the bride and groom were present. After their honeymoon trip through the Yosemite they will be at home to their friends.
(Continued on Page 4.)

Corsets for Hot Weather
They are designed for summer wear. Sitting, standing, walking, running, dancing or golfing, you'll enjoy perfect support from these corsets, as well as cool comfort. They are light weight and flexible and yet they hold their shape.
Come in and let our expert corsetiers give you a personal fitting. There will be no extra charge for alterations.
Silk Underwear, Right-Fitting Corsets, Brassieres, Bloomers, Hosiery, Etc.
Gravelle
346 Washington Street

The Joy Of A Perfect Skin
Know the joy and happiness that comes to one thru possessing a skin of purity and beauty. The soft, distinguished appearance it lends brings out your natural beauty to its fullest. In use over 70 years.
Gouraud's Oriental Cream
fresh every day. Morrison st., bet. 4th and 6th. Tel. Main or A 1895.
Clarke's FLOWERS

ies at the front with the 11th field artillery, is now studying at Oregon Agricultural college.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Taylor announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Lenore, to Floyd W. Jernigan, formerly of The Dalles. They will be married at the Methodist church in Woodlawn July 29 and will make their home in Portland. The bride-elect is a graduate of High school and later was a student at the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth.

Miss Beatrice Thurston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thurston of Eugene, was married to Lowell Paget, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Lee Paget of Portland, Monday evening in Eugene. Rev. F. G. Jennings read the service at 8 o'clock at the Episcopal church. Clusters of ocean spray and pink roses and ferns made the church attractive. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Lucille Yoran sang "For You Alone," accompanied by Miss Alberta Potter on the violin. The bride was wearing a gown of white satin embellished with lace. Her veil was fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower of bride's flowers. Mrs. Alfred Skel, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was gowned in white marquisette and wore a large hat of white georgette. Her bouquet was of yellow roses and white sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, Miss Frances Wiles, Miss Dorothy Lowrey and Miss Marian Ady of Eugene, Miss Jean Murdoch and Miss Carrie Blissard, both of Portland, and Miss Ann Appel of Emmett, Idaho, wore dainty organdie frocks, and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas. Alfred Skel was best man. The ushers were James Thurston, Charles Allen, Carlston Spencer, E. B. Ellison, J. D. Dyche and Jack Haggas of Salem. Little Betty Skel, niece of the bride, was flower girl. After the ceremony, an informal reception and dance was held in the ballroom of the Osburn hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Paget are now in London and after a brief visit will make their home in Portland. Mrs. Paget attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Delta Gamma sorority. She has been advance agent for the Ellison-White Chautauqua and has traveled in the United States, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

Miss Gertrude Morrison of Bryn Mawr, Pa., is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Donald M. Kirby, who has taken the Stanford Smith house at 600 Mountain boulevard, Portland Heights. Miss Morrison is an artist who has studied widely in Europe and has lectured frequently on art in New York. She is now teaching art in Miss Baldwin's school at Bryn Mawr, Pa. She will be here for the summer.

Miss Marion Citron has chosen July 23 as the date of her wedding to Dr. Falk, prominent physician of Boise, Idaho. The wedding will be solemnized at 7 o'clock in the rose room of the Benson hotel. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise will officiate. Miss Carol Citron will be maid of honor and Lee Falk, brother of Dr. Falk, will be best man. Following the wedding a dinner will be served. The wedding will be a small one, only relatives and a very few intimate friends being invited. Dr. Falk plans to be here about July 16 and much entertaining will be given the week preceding the wedding.

The bride-elect is a charming girl, who has a wide circle of friends. She took an active part in patriotic and philanthropic work in Europe and has visited Portland several times and has many friends here. He recently received his discharge from the army, where he was a captain in the medical corps. The young couple will make their home in Boise.

Miss Mary Frances Isom will give an informal dancing party at the Portland Heights club tomorrow evening in honor of her niece, Miss Etienne Langton, and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Langton, who are here from the south. About 75 of the younger set have been invited.

Miss Ruth Teal is in Seattle for the week-end as the house guest of Miss Catherine Collins. She will return to Portland Tuesday.

Miss Sally Hart is home for the summer. She received her discharge last week as reconstruction aide at Camp Lewis. All the aides will be released soon.

Mrs. George S. Whiteside entertained in honor of her daughter Marian, who has recently returned from school in the east, with a small dinner party at the Whiteside home Wednesday evening, followed by a line party at the Hotel. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Whiteside's hospitality were Miss Louise Linnholm, Miss Florence Holman, Miss Katherine Wheeler, Thomas Mills, William Mackenzie, Abbott Mills and James Platt.

Elizabeth Ann, infant daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner, was christened by the Right Rev. W. T. Sumner with a simple ceremony in the oratory at Bishopcroft Thursday. William Whitfield and Rogers MacVane were presented as godfathers to the little girl. Miss Katherine Ainsworth acted as proxy for Miss Ruth Kellogg of Los Angeles and Miss Ruth Jenkins for Mrs. Raymond Anderson of Chicago, the godmothers. Only a few friends were present.

Mrs. Robert Sablin entertained with a tea Monday in honor of Miss Mary Frances Isom and her friends, Miss Caroline Welch, of Cleveland, who is spending the summer with Miss Isom.

Mrs. J. F. Dickson was hostess at an informal tea at the Waverley Country club Thursday afternoon in honor of the wives of visiting doctors.

Mrs. Allan C. Balch of Los Angeles came this morning to Portland to spend a few days as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dickson. Mrs. Balch will join her on the sound. The Balchs formerly lived in Portland.

Mrs. David Hindman and Mrs. C. L. Wernicke were hostesses at a dinner dance at the Waverley Country club Wednesday evening. The occasion was a surprise for Mr. Hindman and Mr. Wernicke, the occasion being Mr. Hindman's birthday. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. William Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Vachon, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ehrhorn, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ehrhorn, Mr. and Mrs. Hindman and Mr. and Mrs. Wernicke.

Delightful among the informal dances of the season was that for which Miss Helen Page was hostess Friday evening at her home, 614 Jackson street. About 40 young people enjoyed Miss Page's hospitality.

Miss Helen McCormack and Ensign George Colton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Colton of this city, were married in Spokane last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McCormack, 1021 Eighth avenue. The attendants were Miss Marian Grebel and Miss Gretchen Colton, both of this city, as bridesmaids; Mrs. Phillip Brooks of Spokane as matron of honor, and Phillip Brooks, head of the McCormacks are members of an old Scotch family who settled in Salem, Or., and who now make their home in Spokane. Both of the young people are University of Oregon students. Miss McCormack is a member of Gamma Phi Beta and Mr. Colton of Phi Gamma Delta.

Mrs. Frederick A. Barber has gone to Vancouver to meet her husband, Major Barker, who has just arrived from France. He has gone to Vancouver to be with his father's people.

Mrs. W. W. Cotton and Misses Vida and Marguerite Marshall and Mrs. S. R. Johnson motored to White Salmon for the week-end.

Miss Elizabeth Irvine of Albany is visiting Mrs. E. W. Langdon.

Miss Kathryn Thomas of Oakland, Cal., who has been associated with Miss Agnes Beach on the hostess house staff for Camp Lewis, has come to Portland to be Miss Beach's house guest. Miss Thomas has many friends here among the college set.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Larimore celebrated their wedding anniversary Saturday evening by entertaining a few friends at dinner at the Hotel Portland.

Mrs. J. C. Elliott King entertained with a luncheon in honor of Dr. Aurelia H. Reinhardt, president of Mills college, Saturday, July 6, at her home, 27 East Sixth street. Covers were placed for Dr. Reinhardt, Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett, Mrs. William T. Foster, Mrs.

A. G. Spalding & Bros.
Genuine Reductions
on
SUITS COATS SWEATERS
SKIRTS HATS
To Make Room for Our New Imported Numbers
An early selection suggested.
Some numbers marked at half price.
A. G. Spalding & Bros.
Broadway at Alder Portland, Or.

We Are Now Making to Your Order
Fancy Suits, Capes and Coats
in all the latest materials and approved fashions.
Schweitzer & Eagin
LADIES TAILORS
392 1/2 Washington St.
Next to Hazelwood