

ANNA'S ANGEL CHILD

They Were Having A Wonderful Fur Sale As They Do Each Summer You Know And Mother Said "For My Small Daughter To Get Some Furs I'll Go."

So To Her She Called Little Esther And Said "If I Buy You Some Furs Will You Be Just As Careful Of Yours As Your Mother Is Careful Of Hers?"

And Esther Did Promise So Gayly So Down In The Bus They Did Go And Little Miss Starring Came Home With Some Furs Soft And White As The Snow.

She Put Them Away O So Gently For Fear She Might Give Them A Jog.

But She Took Them Right Down For She Wanted To See How They'd Look On The Dog.

Now Prince Had A Coat Of His Own And Besides He Was Hot As Could Be And Also He Didn't Like White Fur Because It Looked Anora-y

So He Fussed And He Fumed But Our Esther Had Made Up Her Little Mind-So Prince Had To Suffer In Silence. The Poor Dog Was Weighed Down With Woe!

But Hark! Hear That Sound Through The Window! Hark! Hark! To That Sound - Listen! Hark! Poor Prince Forgot Furs, Heat And Esther - That Noise Was His Enemy's Bark!

Prince Gave A Loud Yelp, Then He Started Barking Back With All His Might. Presto - He Had Gone Through The Window Presto - There Had Started A Fight!

Presto The Neighbors All Witnessed Something That Seldom Occurs. A Little Black Dog Just Hitting It Up. Arrayed In A Little Girl's Furs!

Ah Well - Fights Can't Last For Ever! Nor Spankings - Tho' Esther Got Hers - And Also A Promise That Winter Would Find Her A Girl Without Furs.