WEDDINGS.

Robinson-Harding. A pretty wedding was that of Miss Cora Marie Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harding, and LeRoy Robinson, which took place Wednesday evening, July 9, at 8 o'clock at the bride's home in Irvington. John E. Pee officiated in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. A delightful musical program was chosen for the occasion. Marion Moore gave several cornet selections of old-fashioned songs. Mrs. Frederick Bolch gave some violin numbers and Miss Elizabeth Phelps sang "Beloved, It Is Morn." Mr. John E. Pee played several piano solos and Mrs. W. F. Edwards Jr. played the wedding march.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in summer flowers and palms. The bride was wearing a white gown, elaborated with silver lace. Her long veil was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas. Miss Jessamine Harding was maid of honor. She wore a gown of shell pink tulle and carried a large bouquet of pink sweet peas. Horton Robinson, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Following the wedding a buffet supper was served. The Misses Faye Robinson, Mary Klepfenstein and Mrs. Ray Stanton assisted in the dining room. Miss Margaret Harding presided at the punch bowl.

After an extended trip, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will make their home in this city.

Whitmore-Hamlin. Miss Lucile Anna Hamlin and Rodney Maurice Whitmore were married at 8 o'clock Thursday, July 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hamlin, in Corvallis. Dr. J. R. N. Bell officiated, using the ring service. Only immediate members of the family of the bride couple were present. Sprays and ferns formed the decorations in the living room where the ceremony was performed, and red ramblers were used in the dining room. The bride was gowned in a suit of olive and cloth and wore a large hat that. Her flowers were a corsage of Cecil Brunner roses. A buffet supper was served following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore left at once by automobile, en route to Yellowstone park, where they will pass two months. They will return to Corvallis for a short time. The bride was graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college school of music in 1918. Mr. Whitmore is a son of E. C. Whitmore, of Mayfield, Pa., and is a graduate of an eastern college. He was taking special work at Oregon Agricultural college at the time of his enlistment in the navy.

Hollenbeck-German. Miss Rose Helen German and Owen P. Hollenbeck were married Saturday evening, July 12, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. German. The ceremony was performed on the veranda under a bower of roses. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, embellished with silver lace. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and white sweet peas. Mrs. Gouly attended her as bridesmaid and Charles Curtin was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Hollenbeck left for a short trip to Washington and British Columbia and will be at home to their friends after August 1 at 437 East Thirty-fourth street.

Moore-Anderson. Miss Betsy Jeanette Anderson of Willow River, Minn., and Ramon W. Moore of this city were married June 12 in Willow River and arrived here the past week in Portland, where they will make their home. Rev. J. E. Wilson of Hockley, Minn., read the service in the Episcopal church. Miss Martha Schmidt was bridesmaid and Jack Wadley was best man. The young Carty-Fitzpatrick. At a quiet wedding Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, Miss Mary Fitzpatrick became the bride of William E. Carty at St. Cecilia's church in Beaverton. Rev. Father O'Neil officiated. The bride was gowned in white tulle and carried Ophelia roses and white sweet peas. Miss Jennie Fitzpatrick, bridesmaid, wore a frock of pale green tulle, with georgette and carried pink sweet peas. Vincent Fitzpatrick was best man. A wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fitzpatrick, followed the ceremony. The young couple left immediately on a trip to Seattle. They will make their home in Ridgefield, Wash., Mr. Carty's home.

Novak-Little. Miss Leona Little of 317 East Forty-seventh street was married to Walter T. Novak at the home of the bridegroom's parents, on Capitol hill, Thursday evening, July 10, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Byron J. Clark of the First United Brethren church officiated. A dinner followed the ceremony.

Gatchell-Benton. A simple and quiet wedding was that of Miss Laura Benton and Dr. Leslie W. Gatchell, solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Wilma Waggoner, in Lebanon, on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 16. Dr. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis, who officiated at the marriage of the bride's parents, read the service in the presence of relatives and a few close friends, Mrs. Charles Adams of Cottage Grove played the wedding march. The bride wore her going-away gown of dark blue tulle with a modish hat of the same shade. She carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Wilma Waggoner and the late George A. Waggoner, and is a well-known teacher. She is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college. Dr. Gatchell is a graduate of the Los Angeles Medical School of Optometry and Ophthalmology. Dr. and Mrs. Gatchell will make their home in Bend.

Herbert-Highland. On July 18 at 10 A. M., at the residence of Mrs. Frances M. Harvey, Rose City Park, Clara Mae Highland and Walter J. Herbert were united in marriage by Rev. John Boyd. Mrs. Herbert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Highland and a former Oregon Agricultural college student and member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Herbert is a graduate of Stanford university and a young business man of North Yakima. Only a few close relatives and friends were present at the wedding ceremony. After luncheon at the Multnomah hotel the couple left on the following 1 o'clock train for Victoria, B. C., thence motoring to Bainier park, spending several days in Paradise valley and Lake Chelan, returning to North Yakima, which will be their permanent home. Mrs. B. Wardall, sister of the groom, came from Seattle to attend the wedding.

Canton-O'Neill. Miss Ella O'Neill of Mill, Nev., and William R. Canton of Medford, were married Saturday, June 12. The wedding took place at St. Mary's cathedral at 1 o'clock mass. Rev. Father Campbell officiated. Inez Atkinson and
