PORTLAND CHURCHES ARE MAINTAINING UNUSUAL ACTIVITY

Services Held Every Sunday During Summer Months in Majarity of Churches-Visiting Ministers Occupy Pulpits.

ingion and Idaho was the inter-church world movement, which was in conference in Portland Wednesday and Thursday in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. In charge of the conference were not only local but national officials.

A conference which in its own deomination promises to be as successful is the central convocation of the Episcopal church which will be held at Newport July 27. St. Stephen's church will be the headquarters of the conference although one of the large meetings will be in the open at Nye beach. Among those who will attend from Portland and take a prominent place on the programme will be Bishop Wal-tar T. Sumner, the Venerable H. D.

washington Baptist convention; O. C. Wright, Portland, superintendent Oregon Baptist and Rev. John D. Rice.

A number of Portland pastorates are being temporarily filled with out-of-town pastors. Among these is the First Congregational church in whose pulpit Dr. William T. McElveen of the Manhattan Presbyterian church, New York eity, will preach this morning. Whether of Dr. McElveen will come to Portland to remain will not be announced until his return to his New York home according to announcement made by him hast Thursday. Rev. Henry E. Giles of the Prospect Presbyterian church of Aghtabula, O. will preach today and during the three following Sundays at the Hope Presbyterian church this city. In the First Presbyterian pulpit this morning will be Dr. Edgar P. Hill, pastor of that church during the years to 1996 inclusive. Dr. Hill, pastor of that church during the years to 1996 inclusive. Dr. Hill is now Y. M. C. A. Postiand assistant gentor of that church during the years 1825 to 1906 inclusive. Dr. Hill is now visiting in the city. He is the secretary of the general board of education of the Presbyterian church at the present time in the evening Dr. W. R. King of St. Louis, associate secretary of the board of home missions, will of the board of home missions, will Dr. E. H. Pence of Westminster Presbyterian church will leave on his vaca-tion after next Sunday.

Aid Pledged Inter-Church World Movement.

Eight Denominations Promise Cooperation in Making Survey of Portland.

RIFTY-SIX men representing eight denominations pledged themselves to co-operate with the inter-church forces that are to carry it to the constitut accomplishment.

Sixth, We also extend to the Y. M. C. A. of the city of Porliand our hearty thanks for the use of their rooms as a place of meeting and conference and for the courtenate and considerate treatment which we ment; Nathan M. Fiske, Spokane, Wash., speak.

First Baptist church, vice-president Oregon Baptist state convention; Rev. W. J. Beaven, Portland, pastor Third Baptist church; Rev. J. C. Austin, Spohappist church; Rev. J. C. Austin, Spo-kane, Washington, Baptist field mis-sionary; Rev. A. H. Bailey, Spokane, Washington; Rev. Joseph H. Beaven, Seattle, Washington; Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison, Portland, home missions vicepresident of Columbia river district of the Women's Baptist Home Mission so-ciety and the Women's Baptist Home Mission society; A. B. Minaker, Boise, Idaho, superintendent of state missions, Idaho and Utah; Rev. Alonzo M. Petty, D. D., Portland, joint district secretary.
American Baptist home and foreign mission, Oregon-Washington-Idaho;
Rev. J. F. Watson, Seattle, Washington, superintendent missions, Western Washington Baptist convention: O.

Christian enurch of Oregon,
Christian organizations—H. C. Melby, Y. M. C. A., Portland, assistant general secretary. F. J. Meyer, Y. M. C. A., Portland, membership secretary. Miss
Ida V. Jontz, Y. W. C. A., Portland, general secretary Y. W. C. A.
Congregational—Rev. Oliver P.

R. Idaa V. Jontz, Y. W. C. A., Portland, general secretary Y. W. C. A.

Congregational — Rev. Oliver P. Avery, Portland, Waverly Heights council of church. Rev. Jonathan Edwards, D.D., Spokane, Wash., president of Home Missions council of eastern Washington and northern Idaho. Rev. M. O. Evans. Ph. D., D. Portland, Congregational minister vand editor. Rev. L. O. Baird, Plymouth church, Seattle, Wash., superintendent Congregational conference of Washington. Mrs. Alice M. Handsaker, Portland, pastor Laurelwood Congregational church. Rev. J. J. Handsaker, Portland, state secretary Armenian relief. Mrs. Belle T. Hoge, Portland, president of Oregon branch of foreign missions, member of Oregon branch members of Oregon branch of foreign missions, member of Oregon branch members of Oregon branch of foreign missions, members of Oregon branch home missionary board. Rev. J. E. South, S. Presbyterian, S. United Presb

Cunsingham, Boise, Idaho, president, superintendent of missions of Idaho this canterence our sincere appreciation of the spirit, efficiency and democracy they our maintained and importance of the source them that this constitute and importance of the source them that it is constituted and importance of the magnitude and importance of the magnitude and importance of the spirit, which world movement.

Fifth, We wish to state our desire that a this day, when democracy is emblazoned at the gateway of entrance into every great a the gateway of entrance into every great as every sort of campaign, that in the great early of the interchurve world movement of urge our national leaders, with us, to sep it in the channels of the broadest emicracy and the frankest confidence, escapilla accompilishment.

Buth, We also extend to the Y M C.

Sunth, We also extend to the Y M C.

Sunth, We also extend to the Y M C.

Sunth, We also extend to the Y M C.

Sunth, We also extend to the Y M C.

Sunth, We also extend to the Y M C.

Sunth, We also extend to the Y M C. cific Presbyterian board of foreign mis- Olive Saiz and Ward Foster.

Left to right—Roy B. Guild, New York City, executive secretary federation division, federal council of churches; Rev. W. P. Shriver. New York City, superintendent city survey section, inter-church world movement; Rev. Ed S. Brunner, New York City, superintendent survey section, inter-church world movement; Rev. John R. Varis, San Francisco, divisional secretary, Pacific coast division, inter-church world movement.

tendent of home missions, synod of Idaho.

Idaho.

United Presbyterian—Rev. George Cunningham, Bolse, Idaho, president, superintendent of missions of Idaho U. P. church. Mrs. Sherman L. Divine. Spokane, Wash., representative from Synodical society of Washington, president of Presbyterial, Spokane; W. O. Forbes, Seattle, Wash., district superintendent Washington, Oregon and northern Idaho; Mrs. John W. Gogs, Portland, president women's north Pacific Presbyterian board of foreign missolies and Ward Foster.

Rev. S. M. Connors will deliver the morning sermon at Rodney Avenue Christian church at 11 o'clock. Chrisian Endeavor will have services at

At the Arleta Baptist church, Rev. Owen T. Day, pastor, has announced the following services: 11 A. M., "The Church's Emphasis in Reconstruction": 8:00 P. M., Rev. J. Franklin Day to simple of the conference worked with the state of the conference worked worked correctly and initials and titles should be given.

It is possible to use 250 to 300 words each Monday morning on the sermons delivered the preceding day. Copy for this must be at The Oregonian office by 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. If possible, the copy should come in with the regular church notices on Wednesday.

Photoplay to Be Shown at Sunnyside Church.

Stirring Pictures Used to Illustrate Sunday Evening Sermons.

66 UNDER the Stars" is the title of a stirring photoplay, depicting the private and public life of Abraham Lincoln and revealing through problem after problem, in crisis after crisis, the martyred president's undeviating purpose of right and truth and justice. Dr. J. Staub, pastor of the Sunnyside Congregational church, will use these inspiring pictures to illustrate his Sunday evening sermon on "Life's Strange Mixture of Bitter and Sweet." Dr. Staub's subject for the morning service will be "The Mainspring of the Christian Life."

At the University Park Congrega-tional church there will be a combina-tion service of the Sunday school and congregation today at 11 o'clock. The parents and all who are interested in Jesus to Our Friends," led by Erma Griswold. At 8 o'clock there will be a musical service consisting of vocal solos, duets and quartets and instrumental music. The pastor will give a ten-minute talk on music.

To the services of this church all are welcome. Strangers and those this change are invited to be present. The Sunday school will assemble at

Perry Avery, minister, has made the ing at 11 o'clock from the subject

"The Gospel for a Disordered World" will be the subject of the sermon this morning by the Rev. Edward Constant at the Highland Congregational church. He will conduct another summer vesper service at $ o'clock and speak on "The Voice in the Garden."

At Our Savior's Lutheran church, at the corner of East Grant and Tenth streets, the pastor, Rev. M. A. Christensen, will lead at services at 11 A. M., in Norwegian, with the theme, Luke V — "Fishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

At the Swedish tabernacle, Glisan and North Seventeenth street, the subject for the sermon this forenoon will be "Pishers of Men."

The Sunday school meets at 3:30 and there are classes for all ages.

The B. Y. P. U., both senior and there are classes for all ages.

The B. Y. P. U., both senior and there are classes for all ages.

The B. Y. P. U., both senior and there are classes for all ages.

At Calvary Baptist church, East Eighth and Grant streets, of which sevening at So'clock "A Startling Question."

At Calvary Baptist

hold. In the primary department Miss Elizabeth Carothers will present to the little ones in an interesting manner descriptions of life in Siam, showing many pictures of people and places in that little known Asiatic kingdom.

The appropriment Miss PROMINENT eastern minister young people, 7 P. M. At the Third Baptist ing, August while Rev. E. H. Pence, pastor, is on his vacation, which this year will be spent in the Newport, Or.

The appropriment of covices in the control of the probability will fill the pulpit of the young people, 7 P. M. At the Third Baptist ing, August while Rev. E. H. Pence, pastor, is on his vacation, which this year will be spent in the Newport, Or.

Bible school, 2 45 A. M.,

many pictures of people and places in that little known Asiatic kingdom.

The announcement of services in the Christian Science churches for today is as follows: Subject of lesson-sermon, "Life." The same service is held by the seven Christian Science churches at 11 o'clock, and Second and Sixth repeat the service Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, and Second and Fifth churches the Sunday school is held for the older children in all the churches except Third and Fifth churches the Sunday school sensions are at 9:36 and 11 A. M.

Services will be held at Universal today. The subject for this morning will be "Spiritual Healing." Study classes meet Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock. Wednesday school sension church at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.

Services will be held at Universal today. The subject for this morning will be "Spiritual Healing." Study classes meet Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock. All services are held in room 218 Abington building.

This Sunday Rev. Monroe G. Everett.

the Woodlawn Methodist church, will day. This Sunday Rev. Monroe G. Everett be in the Woodnawn methods tenurch, will be in the pulpit of that church during of the Fourth Presbyterian church will today's services and those of next Suntante of the Episcopal church in Orebe at Eugene attending the synod of day. Rev. W. E. Kloster, minister, is (Concluded on Page 11.)

this evening on "How to Get There."

At the Church of Christ, East Seventy-ninth and Glisan streets, services will be held today at 11 A. M. and 7:20 P. M.

Rev. Elbert E. Flint, pastor of Atkinson Memorial Congregational church, will tell his people about "Christian Co-operation" this morning. He will show the difference between Christian co-operation and church co-operation. This evening he will speak upon the question, "Murder a Popular Pastime."

meets at 9:45 A. M.

Hope Presbyterian church, East Seventy-night and Everett, will have for its minister for the next four Sundays Rev. Henry E. Glies, pastor of Frospect Presbyterian church at Ashtabula, O. Rev. Mr. Glies will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. Friday evening, July 25, the caurch will hold a reception for her returned boys.

Mispan Presbyterian church will hold regular services at 11 o'clock this morning. There well be no evening services, Rev. T. W. Hughes will preach and good music is scheduled.

music is scheduled.

The return of the Rev. Levi Johnson will be the feature of the Men's Resort service today at 4 P. M. A fine programme has been prepared for this occasion, with orchestral music and singing of favorite gospel songs by the men. Miss Alice Johnson will be at the plane.

The paster of the Central Methodist church, Rev. Alexander R. Maclean, will be in his pulpit morning and evening, having returned from his vaca-

At the Woodstock Methodist Epis-copal church, Woodstock avenue at Forty-fourth street, Rev. Henry Blake will preach at 21 A. M. The evening services omitted.

At Grace Baptist church, Montavilla, of which Rev. Fred Berry is acting pastor, the subject at 11 A. M. will be "The Holy Spirit" and in the evening at 8 o'clock evangelistic service, with haptisms, will be held.

"Four Cheering Facts" Set Forth by Dr. Hinson.

Regular Services to Be Maintained Throughout the Summer

At the Waverly Heights Congrega-tional church, corner East Thirty-third and Woodward avenue. Rev. Oliver Dr. W. B. Hinson will preach this morn-Sixty-first streets of which E. Olia Eldridge is pastor, services will be held today as follows: Preaching at 11 A. M. M. The subject for the morning. "Sunday School Programme." with address by laymen of the church and in the evening "Christian Patriotism." Sunday school will be $:45 A. M.

Perry Avery, minister, has made the following announcements:

"Four Cheering Facts," and in the evening his theme will be "What You Must Do, and What you Ought to Do." Dr. Hinson has just completed a series of Bible lectures in Gladstone Chautau-qua, where he has spoken every morning for the past 11 days to a large assembly.

dness of God;" 8 P. M.

At the Third Baptist church, Knott er avenue, Rev

FOLLOW CONSCIENCE UNTO DEATH IS PREACHER'S ADVICE

To LAVE bravely one's own life with the politics of the continues of the spinion of the contin Dr. O. C. Wright Recommends Living One's Life Bravely Yet With Due Regard to the Opinions of Others are welcome. Strangers and those having no church home are most cor-dially invited.

At the Mount Tabor Methodist Epis-opal church, corner of East Stark and exty-first streets of which E. Olin