

UNION MEN DALLY TO FOIL REDS' PLAN

Labor Council on Thursday to Determine Policy.

RADICALS DESIRE PRESS

Ten Delegates, Scattered by Report, Decide to Back Conservative for Next President.

Threatened capture of the Portland Central Labor Council by the "reds" of the Council of Workers, Sailors and Soldiers has stirred up the conservative union men. The election next Thursday will determine the policy of the central body and a large attendance of delegates is predicted.

Following the declaration by C. M. Thompson, editor of the Oregon Labor Press, that the radicals were plotting to seize control of the Central Labor Council and obtain the Oregon Labor Press for propaganda purposes, came activity on the part of the conservative element.

Usually the conservative delegates are not regular attendants, but the delegates who are known to be radical are promptly on hand and ready to spread propaganda. The conservative leader yesterday. The conservatives are largely in the majority, but unless they participate in the election the "reds" may muster enough votes to put through their programme.

Strike Caused in Labor Circles.

The charge made by Mr. Ryerson, general labor agitator, that the Oregon Labor Press had called a special meeting to direct its group of delegates to vote against the "red" ticket, C. A. Strickland of the shipbuilders, a prominent candidate of the radicals for president of the Central Labor Council against Harry Anderson of the bricklayers, who is serving his second year, and Joe Thornton, now of the retail clerks, is slated to oppose William Kimsey of the typographical union, for vice president.

Election of Strickland and Thornton, it is pointed out, would enable the radicals to obtain control of the Oregon Labor Press. All members of unions receive this paper, and control of the official organ by the "reds" would enable them to plant their propaganda in the home of every union member. Floyd Hyde, official lecturer of the soviet, is said to be slated for editor of the paper if the radicals capture the Portland Central Labor Council next Thursday night.

Anderson Gains Support.

When the announcement was made of the programme of the Council of Workers, Sailors and Soldiers, the conservative element in organized labor was shocked. In action, ten delegates who have been opposed to Harry Anderson held a meeting Friday night and decided to give him their support, contending that the issue is one of principles rather than personalities. It has been the custom of some delegates to neglect meetings of the central body. All delegates will be advised to be in attendance at the coming election.

As one labor leader explained, the end desired by the radicals and the conservatives is identical, but the two groups differ as to the best method of attaining the result. The conservatives favor an orderly process, while the "reds," according to a letter purporting to be signed by Charles Saunders, as secretary-treasurer of the soviet, is revolutionary, but hopes that unnecessary bloodshed will be avoided.

NEGRESS BITES OFFICERS

ROSIE RANDALL RUNS AMUCK AND DEFIES POLICE.

Charge of Drunkenness and Disorderly Conduct is Made Against Colored Prisoner.

Three policemen were bitten about the hands and arms late yesterday while they were arresting Rosie Randall, a negress, who had run amuck with a butcher knife at Fourteenth and Gilliam streets. The casualties occurred after police had seized the woman and were disarming her.

Mrs. Randall's neighbors complained that she had obtained a revolver and had threatened to kill two other negroes who she suspected of intimacy with her husband. When police arrived on the scene Mrs. Randall had barred herself in her house and threatened to kill anyone who entered.

Patrolmen unlocked a back door and got into the building while the mother of the party kept Mrs. Randall's attention. The woman behaved like a maniac, running around the house with the knife in her hand and threatening to commit suicide if anyone touched her.

Seizing a favorable opportunity, police grabbed her. Unable to stab, she fastened her teeth in the arm of Patrolman Nelson, who kept his grip until the woman had been manacled. Meantime she had also bitten Patrolmen Therpe and Abbott. Police carried her bodily to the patrol automobile and took her to police headquarters. She is charged with being drunk and disorderly. Internes at the Emergency hospital sterilized the wounds on the policemen. No fingerprints were found in the woman's house.

AUTO DRIVERS CAUTIOUS

Seattle Begins "Safety Week" to Reduce Motor Accidents.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 26.—Automobile drivers in Seattle tonight were "watching their step" with special caution, as today marked the beginning of "safety week" here, inaugurated by the careful drivers' club and backed by the city authorities and all organizations having to do with traffic problems.

Red and white stickers attached to windshields of automobiles bore the message, "let's drive carefully." Similar placards had been widely posted on thoroughfares.

Motion picture films and various other arrangements have been made to bring the lesson of "safety first" home to automobile drivers during the week and also to the public forced to walk.

Horse Is Killed by Lightning.

SALEM, Or., July 26.—(Special).—During a storm near Oak creek Thursday night a horse on the Theodore Etoll farm was killed by lightning. The lightning also hit several trees, as well as resulting in other damage.

The problem solved by a modern kerosene oil burner. Before ordering your winter's supply of fuel see this burner being demonstrated at 145 Grand ave. (near Morrison). Can be installed in any furnace, range or stove without alterations to above appliances. Agents wanted.—Adv.

PICTURE OF PORTLAND BABY INSPIRES FRIEND AND FOE.

THREE-YEAR-OLD EDRA MORTON AND SKETCH MADE OF HER BY GERMAN PRISONER IN FRANCE. France and Germany have found a point in common in their admiration for the beautiful face of a Portland baby. Little Edra Morton, aged 3 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Morton, 463 Marguerite avenue. When George F. Gardiner, a friend of the family, went overseas with the 22d engineers he carried in his pocket a picture of this charming tot. A French artist happened to see it and obtained permission to use it as a model for Cupid in a painting which he was working on. The painting, when completed, attracted much favorable comment in Paris, according to an enthusiastic letter from the French painter to the child's mother. Later a well-known German artist, Franz Pollner, in a prison camp at Bordeaux, begged the use of the picture for a child study. This work is said to have been on exhibition in Germany after the armistice.

Meanwhile the parents of the little Oregon beauty have been besieged by artists, illustrators and moving-picture directors for a share of the charm which has inspired the brushes of European painters.

NOTED PSYCHIST COMING

FREDERICK L. RAWSON EXPECTED TO VISIT PORTLAND.

Metaphysician of World Fame Will Leave London Home August 16 for Trip to United States.

Announcement that Frederick L. Rawson, who in a decade has leaped into fame as one of the world's foremost metaphysicians will visit Portland during September and is expected to arouse such interest in metaphysical and religious circles as would a visit from few other living investigators of psychic phenomena and laws.

Word has just been received by A. C. Goling, of the Going Investment company, that Mr. Rawson plans to leave his home in London for the United States August 16 and that his itinerary in this country will include Portland.

The coming visitor has attracted world-wide attention because of the fact that from being one of the pioneer electrical engineers and experts of England he was led to switch his powers of investigation and experimentation to the psychic and spiritual fields, with results reputed nothing short of marvelous. Simply put, a man of science he was led by London newspapers to investigate for them reputed cases of mental healing. The investigation not only converted Rawson to unqualified belief in healing by means of prayer, but resulted in his establishing a mammoth institution where his discoveries are practiced.

Rawson established a staff of practitioners, operating according to his instructions, and this has grown to number 150 workers, occupying offices at 90 Regent street, London. Patients numbered by the hundreds are treated daily and stories of marvelous cures are commonplace there.

His research was begun only in 1910, when the London Daily Mail engaged him to make a professional examination into mental healing processes. At that time Rawson knew nothing of mental or occult processes. Before he concluded his investigation he had records of such healing processes all over the world and it required a 100-page book to record his findings and the laws he believed he had discovered. Rawson has also won considerable note as a seer, many of his predictions relative to the world war having seemingly been fulfilled.

Cottage Grove Is Becoming Famous for Pullets.

Egg-Laying Record Reduced by Six Days, Now Three Months and Three Weeks.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., July 26.—(Special).—If Cottage Grove poultry raisers keep reducing the time between the day a chicken is hatched to the day it starts to lay, some seem to think it is only a matter of time before they will be able to produce a pullet that will lay an egg every day.

WELL-KNOWN PORTLAND WOMAN PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Joseph A. Levy, 75, died Friday night at St. Vincent's hospital after submitting to two major operations. She was the wife of Joseph A. Levy, Portland retail shoe dealer. She was widely known in the city for her charitable activities. Mrs. Levy was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Senosky and the sister of Mrs. Bessie Weinstein and Count Maurice and Louis Senosky. She was 25 years of age and leaves two little children, Clara, 12, and Robert, aged 5, and Robert, aged 3.

Mrs. Levy was confined to the hospital for two weeks prior to her death. The funeral will be held at 2:30 P. M. today from Holman's undertaking parlors.

ORPHANS ENTITLED TO PAY

Money to Be Paid if Fathers Accepted Compensation Act, Is Ruling.

SALEM, Or., July 26.—(Special).—Children made orphans by the accidental death of their fathers who elected compensation act are entitled to compensation until they reach the age of 18 years, according to a legal opinion rendered today by Attorney-General George M. Brown at the request of state industrial accident commission.

The opinion was asked in a case in which a father was killed, leaving three orphaned daughters. At the time of the father's death he was subject to the benefits of the compensation act.

WIVES MUST LEARN CIVICS

No Husband Will Become Citizen Till Wife Can Too, Rules Court.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 26.—By a court ruling made today by Superior Judge A. E. Frater, wives of applicants for citizenship papers hereafter will be required to inform themselves as to the American government and submit their qualifications at the time their husbands appear.

Both must pass the examination before either or both are admitted to citizenship. Several eastern courts, it is said, have adopted this rule.

WHY SOCIETY WOMEN WASH THEIR OWN HAIR

They do, not because it is a fad, but because they wish to obtain the greatest possible hair beauty and be sure they are not using anything harmful. They have found that in washing the hair it is never wise to use a make-shift, but is always advisable to use a preparation made for shampooing only. Many of our friends say they get the best results from a simple home-made canthrox mixture. You can use this at a cost of about 3 cents a shampoo by getting some canthrox from your drug-gist and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a hair shampoo liquid to apply to all the hair instead of just the top of the head, as with most preparations. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear in the rinsing water. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you.—Adv.

PHONES BEING CONNECTED

HOME AUTOMATIC AND PACIFIC SYSTEMS TO INTERCHANGE.

Recent Strike of Electrical Workers Cause of Some Delay—Few Exchanges Amalgamated.

Work of completing the physical connection of systems of the old Home Telephone company and the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph company in Portland to give interchange of service, is progressing rapidly, according to officials of the Pacific company. The recent strike of the electrical workers delayed the work of consolidation, it is said, although already a few private branch exchanges have been amalgamated.

"The work of effecting the consolidation is a huge one," said W. J. Phillips, commercial superintendent of the company. "We are rushing the work as rapidly as possible, but as yet only a few private branch exchanges have been amalgamated. Others will follow, but general consolidation will not be effected for a few months, at least."

The system of consolidation already effected subscribers of the old Home phone automatic system are enabled to obtain numbers on the Pacific exchange by turning the number 7 on the dial, which signals the central on the automatic system, to whom the Pacific number is given and the connection made. On the Pacific system the automatic number is obtained by the usual method of giving the desired number to "central."

GLACKAMAS CLUB FORMED

DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITY PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

Directors Are Selected to Represent Various Districts of County Under Plan Adopted.

Organization of the Eastern Clackamas Community club was effected Friday evening at the Estacada hotel, when a large body of citizens from that section met with W. W. Williams, superintendent of schools; George Quayle, secretary of the Oregon state chamber of commerce; Mrs. Winnie Braden, state exhibit agent, and George B. Weatherly of Estacada. The club was organized for the purpose of carrying on development activities in that section.

Mr. Quayle presented a plan of organization and by-laws, which was adopted, whereby the community will be subdivided according to school districts. Directors from each district were elected as follows: Estacada, H. C. Stevens, George M. Warwick, Garfield, Mrs. A. Bodkin; Curvinsville, Charles Kitchen; Eagle Creek, H. C. Cogswell; Bartsy, Mrs. J. Springwater, George Lawrence; Viola, Mrs. Watson; Logan, Mrs. A. A. Allen; Doña, E. W. Jochimsen; Elwood, Mrs. Della Valen; Dover, Ralph Dehaizer; Douglas, Mrs. Gibson; Highland, Mrs. Jessie Mayfield.

The opinion was asked in a case in which a father was killed, leaving three orphaned daughters. At the time of the father's death he was subject to the benefits of the compensation act.

SUFFRAGE HOPE IS HIGH

FIVE LEGISLATORS AGREE TO HOLD SESSION, DECLARATION.

Meeting of Multnomah Representatives to Discuss Issues Is Set for August 5.

With the Multnomah delegation of the legislature getting behind the ratification campaign which Portland suffragists have started on behalf of the federal suffrage amendment to the constitution, success is assured, according to Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, state chairman of the ratification committee.

"We know that the men of Oregon were with us," she said. "When the governor told us he would call an extra session of the legislature to ratify suffrage if the legislature asked him to and if the legislators would serve without expense, we knew the men of the state would respond."

The first five legislators to communicate with the women's ratification committee were Senators A. W. Orton, H. C. Stevens, George M. Brown, J. C. McGowan and J. C. McGowan.

Gus C. Moser and W. W. Banks, Representatives Oscar W. Horne and Eugene Smith, Senator Banks immediately proposed that the Multnomah delegation meet in committee to discuss the suffrage ratification and communicate with the governor. The 21 members of Multnomah county will meet Tuesday, August 5, the earliest date when all members could be at liberty. These members have communicated with many representatives in other counties, who will possibly attend the conference.

See the state ratify the amendment at the earliest possible moment. In reply to the telegram Governor Olcott sent to Mr. McArthur a copy of the answer given to a committee of Oregon suffragists who waited upon him at the capitol Thursday. On that occasion the governor made it plain that he would refuse to call the lawmakers together unless they made written request and agreed to meet without cost to the state.
