THE parents' educational bureau, conducted in the courthouse by the Oregon Congress of Mothers, continues to receive many babies for examination and testing. The parents find that as suggestions regarding feeding and care for the little folk are carried out a marked improvement is shown in the babies. The number of high score cards increases monthly.

Mrs. A. Bayley, "guardian angel" of the bureau, is justly proud of the record made. The parents of the state are to take advantage of the benefits offered by the bureau and to co-operate in making their children "100 per cent." In a recent child-welfare conference in Washington reports from various states were heard and it was found that New York, with its great population, had scored only 90 more children than Oregon.

Among the babies tested recently, Jack Talbert Ireland, 14-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ireland of 758 Perlander street, Portland heights, scored 100 per cent.

Donald E. Weissenborn, who lives at 140 East Forty-seventh street, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weissenborn, made a record of 99 per cent at the age of 8 months.

Another prize baby is Von Claude Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jensen, who is only 3 months old. Master Jensen lives at the West apartment.

Little Miss Bertala Mae Kretz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Kretz of Boring, Or., came to Portland to be tested and scored 99 1/2 per cent at 7 months.

Maurice David Junkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Junkin of 296 East Seventy-second street, North, made a score of 98 1/2 per cent at 9 months.

Madame Bernard, who will direct the conference center, has arranged to have practical work done with the social organizations of five villages and two industrial towns nearby.

One of the most popular resorts of the city is the Reed college summer camp conducted by the Y. W. C. A. for girls and young women. The camp has been in full running order now almost two weeks. The girls who have been out declare the place almost too good to be true.

The big outdoor swimming pool is an especial attraction on these hot days. Young with the swimming pool in popularity are the delicious eats that are served the girls. Sleeping out under the trees in the woods is another inducement. There are six asphalt tennis courts and early morning and late evening tennis is popular. There is the big gymnasium with piano and with hot and cold showers for the convenience of the girls. The employed girls who come for the week and declare they are coming for their vacations.

Girls and women of all ages are welcome. Register at the Y. W. C. A., Main 7815. The notes are furnished, so all you need to do is to roll up some good warm blankets, a towel, a bathing suit, a tennis racket and come along. The cost of expense will be 75 cents a day for food.

Reed college is reached by taking the Sellwood car, transferring to the Eastmoreland and walking four blocks north.

A pleasant evening of cards was spent by the George Wright Women's Relief corps at the last meeting at the court house Wednesday evening. The next meeting will be held Wednesday as usual.

The auxiliary of company D, 152d infantry will meet on Tuesday from 1 to 2 o'clock in room 201 court house. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, has been notified of her election as second vice-president of the American Librarians' association which meets at Asbury Park, N. J. The association is working for a large endowment fund and has an especially active program of work outlined for the coming year.

After a three weeks' vacation the Central W. C. U. held a social meeting at the home of Mrs. C. W. Barzee, 1925 Clackamas last Wednesday. Mrs. Ada Jolly addressed the women on the subject of the jubilee drive, dwelling especially on the way the million dollars was to be spent by the national union. This campaign for money and members, she said, extending as it does over a period of five years, serves the double purpose of celebrating the triumph of national prohibition and the semi-centennial of the organization of the W. C. T. U. which occurs at the end of the drive.

Thirty thousand dollars is to be used to better the condition of women and children wage-earners, of which there were as early as 1910, over eight million from ten years old and upward. The old "purity" department of the W. C. T. U. has been merged into that of moral education and race betterment, and is to receive $100,000 of the fund. In addition to this and closely allied, "child welfare" receives $150,000.

"Americanization" is a new name, but not a new work for women as well as men, through their department of "work among foreigners," a mission which has been maintained at Ellis Island and at "Frances Willard settlement" among the foreign population of Boston for many years, in addition to an immense amount of similar work in the centers of foreign-born citizens. For this important work $200,000 is scheduled. For a much needed new building at national headquarters at Evanston, Ill., and for a suitable headquarters at Washington, D. C. $75,000 is to be spent. The largest appropriation of $100,000 is for the bringing about of world prohibition.

The next meeting, also a social one, is to be next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. N. G. Patterson, 535 Burnside.

Miss Cora Van Norden of New York City, a Salvation Army welfare worker with the first division, and Miss George Ely of Bryn Mawr, Penn., in charge of Y. M. C. A. activities with the first division, were decorated recently with the croix de guerre by General Andrieu, commander of a French infantry division, on behalf of the French government. The ceremonies took place at Montabaur, near the edge of the bridgehead, headquarters of the first division of croix de guerre.

Portland men and women have been decorated with the distinguished service medal through Joseph Lee, national president of the War Camp Community Service, according to a letter received recently. The letter came to the large number of men and women who through the War Camp Community Service in Portland have given of their time and energies to aiding service men. It said in part:

"On Boston common I received from the hands of General Edwards, commander of the northwestern department, the distinguished service medal for especially meritorious and conspicuous service as president of the War Camp Community Service. I want to congratulate all the fellow workers upon this citation. War Camp Community Service is a spiritual body manifested in the flesh by all its workers and leaders. I think it has deserved this decoration and I deem it a high honor to have been the garment or lapel to which the medal has been pinned."

The women's building fund committee of the university of Oregon has been most fortunate in securing the consent of Frank Branch Riley, famous Oregon orator, whose lectures have created such a sensation in the east, to give this lecture in Portland for the benefit of the woman's building fund when he returns from his present five weeks' trip over the Chautauqua circuit in the east. Mr. Riley will show the slides that are representing Oregon, Washington, and British Columbia in the east. All women's clubs and the men's organizations of the city will be asked to join in putting this lecture before the Portland people, both that they may see their own country as the east is being told about it and also that the women's building fund may be aided in its work. There will be a large number of representative people as sponsors for this event. The time cannot be announced until it is known when Mr. Riley will return from his eastern trip, but the lecture will be given some time in September.

The American war mothers will hold a picnic at the Oaks Tuesday. All mothers of American soldiers or sailors, whether members of the organization or not, are cordially invited to attend. A thoroughly good time and social enjoyment are expected. Bring lunches and be at the First and Alder street waiting room at 10 A. M. There will be no admission fee or charges of any kind.

St. John's union of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its annual picnic in Columbia park August 4 and invites members of other unions to join them.

"Christian Americanization," Charles A. Brooks' new book, will be reviewed by the Baptist women of the city in a parlor meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. O. F. M. Jamison, 522 Main street. Following the discussion on the book a talk will be given by J. B. Easter, clerk of the circuit court, Multnomah county. Light refreshment and sociability will also be features.

Peter A. Porter Circle Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will give a "500" party Wednesday afternoon at Baker hall, corner Killingsworth and Albina avenue, July 30. The public is invited.

The mothers' and daughters' dinner, which was previously announced and postponed by the War Camp Community Service has been definitely scheduled for Tuesday evening at the Soldiers and Sailors' club.

Every Portland business girl is invited. The dinner will be especially under the supervision of the victory chorus, War Camp Community Service organization, which is eager to have other business girls of this city join its ranks. Miss Mary Francis, chairman, will be the special guest of the evening and though she is making no public speeches she has promised to "talk" to the girls for a short time about her overseas experiences in hospital libraries.

While this dinner is being called the mothers' and daughters' dinner the elderly women who attend need not necessarily be the mothers of the girls whose guests they are. It has been learned that many of the business girls have no mothers and so the invitation has been given that each girl may bring with her one other woman guest or "mother" for the evening.

Plans for the pageant to be given in conjunction with the city park board during the early part of August are progressing. The park board will take charge of the 5000 children who will give exhibitions of folk dancing, games and basketry while the War Camp Community Service will furnish some specially trained toe and assist-ant dancers. The pageant will honor Oregon's service men and will be in the form of an allegorical history of the state from the time of the Indian reign to the call of the United States color for the recent European war and civilization. It promises to be one of the largest community offerings that has ever been given in the entire north-west.

The Peninsula Park Lavender club held a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Ella Berry, 2842 East Forty-ninth street, Diner was served to 44 members and three guests. The next meeting will be held at the club rooms in the community house.

Similar centers have been opened in New Orleans, Cincinnati, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Worcester, and Pittsburg. Large cities have been chosen as the locations to demonstrate this work by women for women in order that the industrial activities would not duplicate the club work of the city associations.

A Y. W. C. A. hostess house will be opened in Brussels next fall for American, English and Belgian women residents, according to a cable recently received from a Y. W. C. A. secretary.

Madameleite Demontmort, president of French Flyers, according to the same cable, has given her own Normandy chateau near Rouen, as a general center for social conferences. The center will be similar to that at Astoria, Cal., and the Y. W. C. A. will help to support the work. The chateau, which is surrounded by a beautiful park, will house 25 people. It has a large library of French and English books, and the bedrooms are richly furnished in styles of different periods.

the children became sick and Kathleen Faith died Wednesday afternoon. Clark and the younger child, Georgia Hope, had apparently recovered and were preparing to attend the funeral, when Mrs. Clark called him to the bathroom of their home, where she had taken the younger child. When he entered the room she fired, the bullet passing entirely through his body. She then shot the 4-year-old child and turned the gun upon herself. Clark died shortly after reaching the hospital.

Mrs. Clark's mind is said to have been affected for some time, and a close watch had been kept on her movements for several days.

The killing was done with a 22-caliber revolver, which Clark, it is said, had hidden behind a picture in the bathroom to keep his wife from finding it, fearing that she would take her own life.

The authorities are investigating a report that Mrs. Clark had placed poison in the candy Easter eggs which caused the death of the older child.

ENGLISH SOCIETY TAKES TEA WITH KING GEORGE AND QUEEN

Brilliant Scene on Lawn at Buckingham Palace, With Generals and Admirals in Full Dress.

LONDON, June 27.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—English society took its tea this afternoon on the lawn at Buckingham palace, the guest of King George and Queen Mary. It was a simple affair, their majesties moving about among their friends, stopping now and then to greet this one or shake hands with that one while on their way from the palace to the pavilion where they too had tea. The scene was brilliant. The weather did very well, for while it was cloudy there was no rain. Scores upon scores of gaily dressed women walked and chatted with distinguished generals and admirals in full regiments, or went over the political situation with statesmen, of whom there were a great many there from every party.

The king and queen came out from the palace at 4 o'clock, and the nearest band played the national anthem. The whole of the great company stood still, and then began to flow with one accord toward their majesties. From that time for two hours, the "garden party" was just what it was intended to be.

The queen was dressed in a striking robe of pinkish brocade silk, and the Princess Mary, who followed her mother, wore pink and white satin. The king had discarded his familiar field marshal's uniform and appeared in the MIRPHYSBORO, Ill.—Frantic with grief over the death of her 6-year-old daughter, Mrs. Harry Clark shot her husband and 4-year-old daughter, Georgia Hope, to death at their home here and then turned the gun upon herself. In all probability she will recover.

It is said the older child died of ptomaine poisoning as a result of eating candy Easter eggs while the family was visiting at Grayville, Ill. When they arrived home Clark and
