The Second Week of Meier & Frank's ORIGINAL

Five Sales

Owing to the enormous number of items in this four-page announcement (see preceding page and back page of this section) we were unable to find space in our ads for the coupon today, but blanks will be provided at the very conveniently located Novelty Ribbon Shop, Main Floor Central, for customers to fill out and deposit in the box placed there for that purpose.
But—aside from the coupon—there is something here for everyone—something worth while—in nearly every case specially priced for the Co-operative Sales and every item without exception priced most moderately.
With rising costs foreshadowed on several lines, wise people will provide liberally for their immediate needs and anticipate staple requirements for months to come.
It will pay to read our ads with particular interest during these Co-operative Sales.
There are many unadvertised values—select lots too small to advertise for which it will pay you handsomely to come to this store.
