Iowa by sending orders to all county attorneys to meet here next Friday to discuss ways and means of fighting profiteering. The governor's action followed an announcement last night that he would "use every means available to reduce the cost of living."

It was said at the state house today that the meeting probably would result in a special grand jury investigation. Grand juries probably will be asked to investigate the amount of certain foods placed on the market and forming pools, thus violating the law and keeping up prices.

DETROIT, Aug. 2.—A conference of governors and attorney-generals of the states to consider practical ways and means of dealing with alleged profiteering in foodstuffs, was suggested today to Governor Cox of Ohio in a telegram sent this morning by Attorney-General Grosbeck of Michigan.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Two million pounds of foodstuffs shipped to Chicago in 1918 was spoiled and had to be condemned and destroyed because of delay on railroads or improper handling by the producer, shipper, commission man or retailer, according to Health Commissioner Robertson.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 2.—The destroyer Philip, first vessel of the new fleet to reach an American port on the Pacific coast from the Atlantic, arrived here this afternoon to bring mail from the fleet and make mail to W. Strother, lieutenant-commander, U. S. N., who is expected to arrive here on August 5, two days before the fleet is due at the port.

ROME, Aug. 1.—The decision of the Italian military commission unfavorable to Italy regarding the Fiume incident has failed to bring about any explosion of indignation in Italy, as it is pointed out, it might have done if it had been rendered six weeks ago.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—A dispatch from Budapest announced that the socialist government has been formed under the leadership of Herr Feildl. The new government has issued a manifesto, the text of which declares that its chief task will be to preserve internal order and enter into negotiations with the allies.
